

MEMBERS OF THE TEAM WHICH WENT TO THE North York invitational gymnastics meet were Heather Ormsby, Lynn Hermann, Martha Armstrong, Lisa Mitchell, Elizabeth Hoerig, Lisa Greenly and Amanda Deforest.

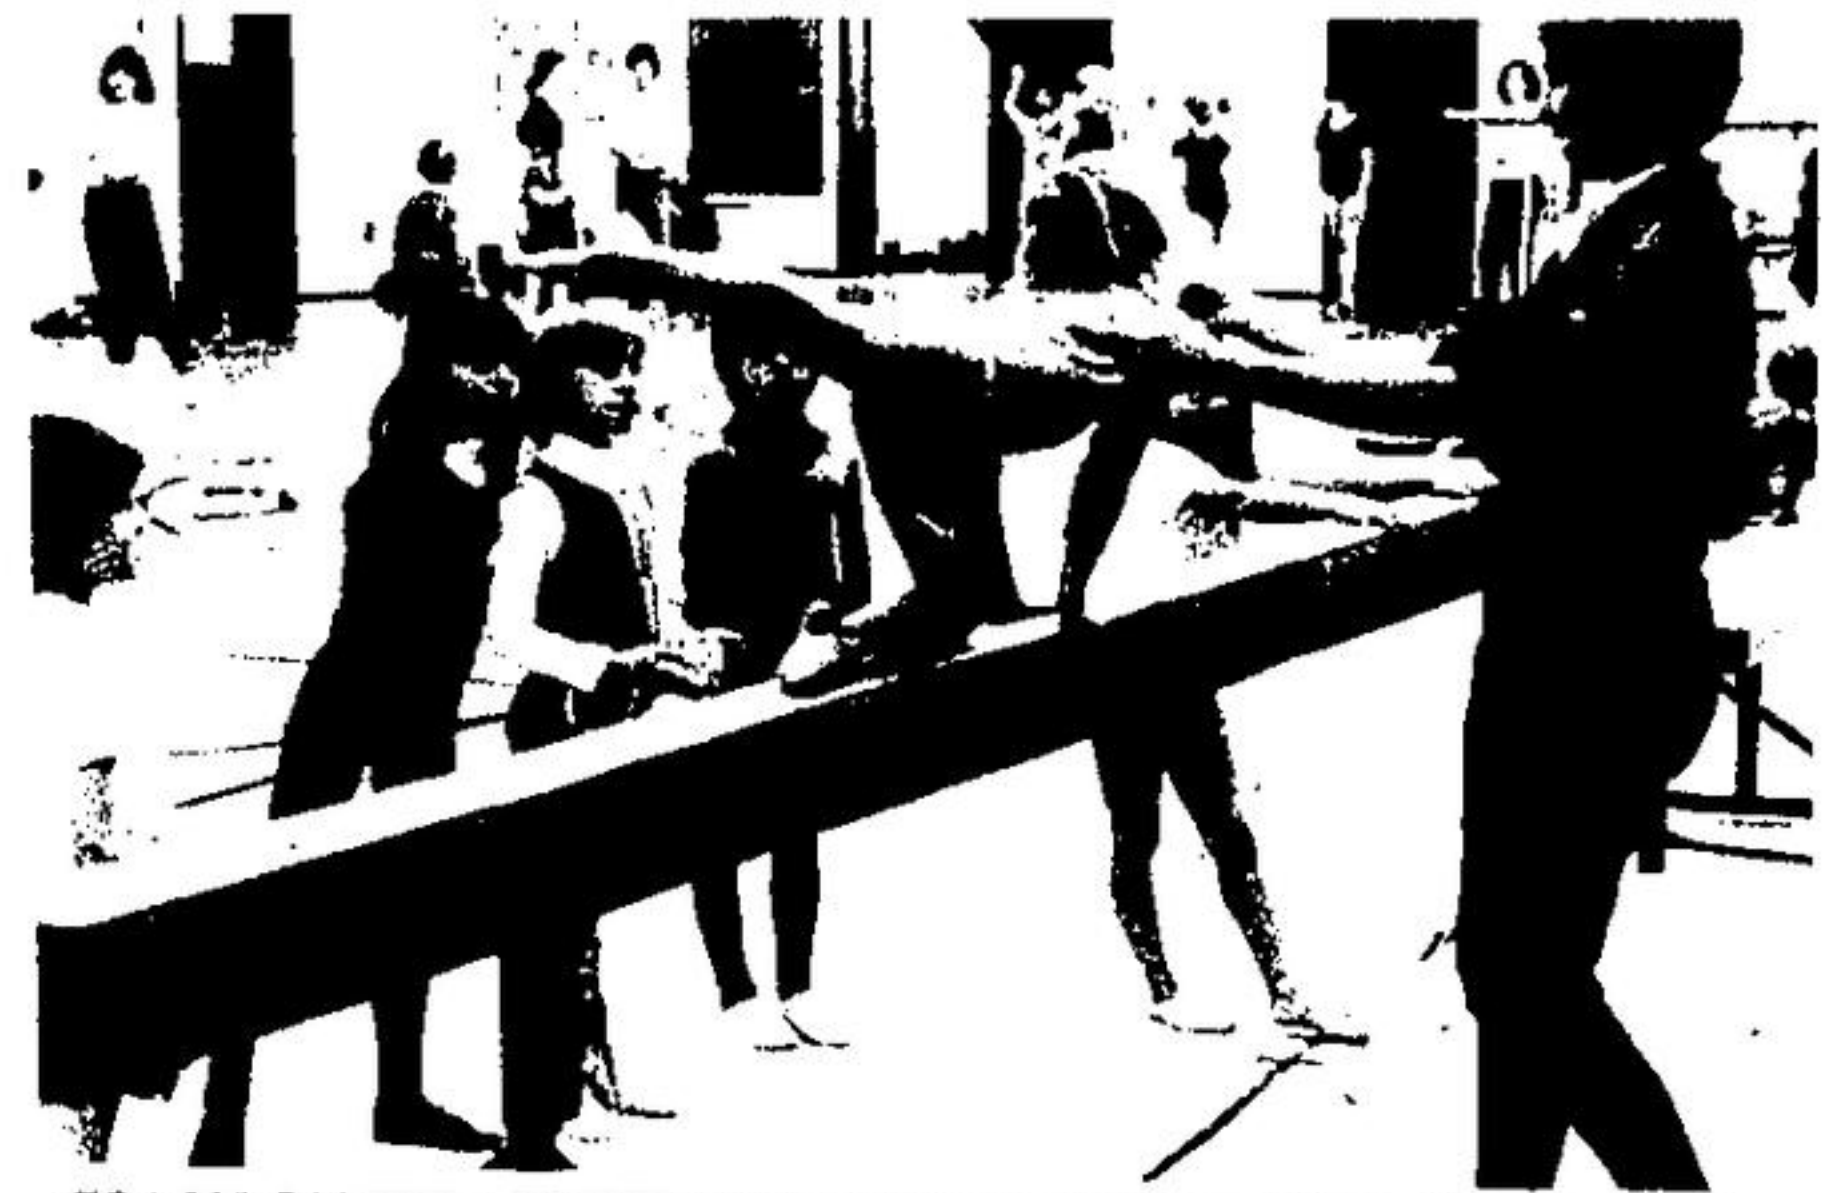

MARTHA ARMSTRONG DOES a scale on the balance beam, a trick which requires a great sense of balance.

LOOK MA, I did it. This gymnast is happy to be up on the beam. She balances with just a touch of help from coach Janet Armstrong.

Gymnix practice Saturday

COACH JANET ARMSTRONG helps tiny gymnast Lisa Greenly on the uneven parallels while coaches Rose Ann Hermann, Cathy Tost, Judy Shadbolt, Jocelyn MacMillan, Diane Muirhead and Tracey Tyndle watch.

SIX AND SEVEN YEAR OLD gymnasts watch one of their group practise on the balance beam.

Plans are set for carnival

Donut eating contests, toboggan races, snow sculpting and dog sled teams will all be a part of this year's planned Halton Regional Annual Winter Carnival.

Scheduled for Sunday, Feb. 19, from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m., it is sponsored by the municipalities of Milton, Oakville, and Halton Hills. All events are at Kelso Conservation Area.

Although a firm schedule of events is yet to be determined, the day's fun will include a $1.75 pancake brunch from 11 a.m., sleigh rides and helicopter rides, a ski binding clinic, a winter camping demonstration, and Halton Regional Museum tours.

"The whole day is really geared for people of all ages and is very much of a family oriented day," explained Anne Pickering, committee member for Halton Regional Winter Carnival.

Last year saw a turnout of between 5,000 and 8,000 people and more are expected this year, said Miss Pickering.

"Last year we experienced poor weather, with a lot of the snow melting the day before the carnival, but if the weather remains good, there should be a very good turnout."

Ski package is for new skiers

A special "Never-Ever" Ski Pass has been designed as part of the Winter Carnival Festivities at Kelso Sunday, Feb. 19. This pass is intended for use by persons who have never-ever tried Alpine Skiing and who wish to experiment with the sport before ski equipment purchases are made.

A special price of $7 will buy a "Never-Ever" Ski Pass, with a regular value of up to $19. This pass will entitle the bearer to one lift ticket, a complete set of alpine rental equipment for a day and one Never-Ever Ski Lesson at the Glen Eden Ski Area when presented at the ticket office during normal operating hours.

It is not necessary to use this pass on Sunday.

February 19, the day of the Winter Carnival.

Passes can be purchased at the Halton Hills Parks and Recreation offices, 40 Mill Street E., Acton or Gordon Alcott Memorial Complex, Georgetown, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday to Friday.

Registration for events will commence at 11 a.m. Medals will be awarded to the top three contestants in each class.

Helicopter rides, touring Kelso area for 15 minutes are expected to cost between $7 and $10, said Miss Pickering, adding that details are still to be completed.

A free bus shuttle will operate from Milton Mall on Highway 25 to Kelso Conservation Area from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m.

A message about those who think they can cheat UI:

"I got caught with my hand in your pocket."

What a shame. He thought it was some sort of a game to claim a little more Unemployment Insurance than the law allowed. Now he's in trouble. He didn't report earnings and work while getting UI.

"I mean, it was only a few bucks. You've got millions?"

We don't have any money. It all belongs to the people of Canada. And when you deliberately claim more than you're allowed by law, you're stealing from your neighbours, friends, fellow employees, employers and the Government of Canada.

It's our job to pay UI benefits fairly, efficiently and according to law. It's also our job to make sure the program is not abused by those who have little concern for their fellow citizens or the law of the land.

Getting UI when you're not available for work is abuse, pure and simple.

"Lots of people rip off UI. Why are you picking on me, and how'd you find out?"

Not so fast. The vast majority of our claimants are completely honest. They use UI as it was intended—as a financial bridge between jobs.

And no one's picking on you. Anyone we find abusing Unemployment Insurance will be dealt with under the law.

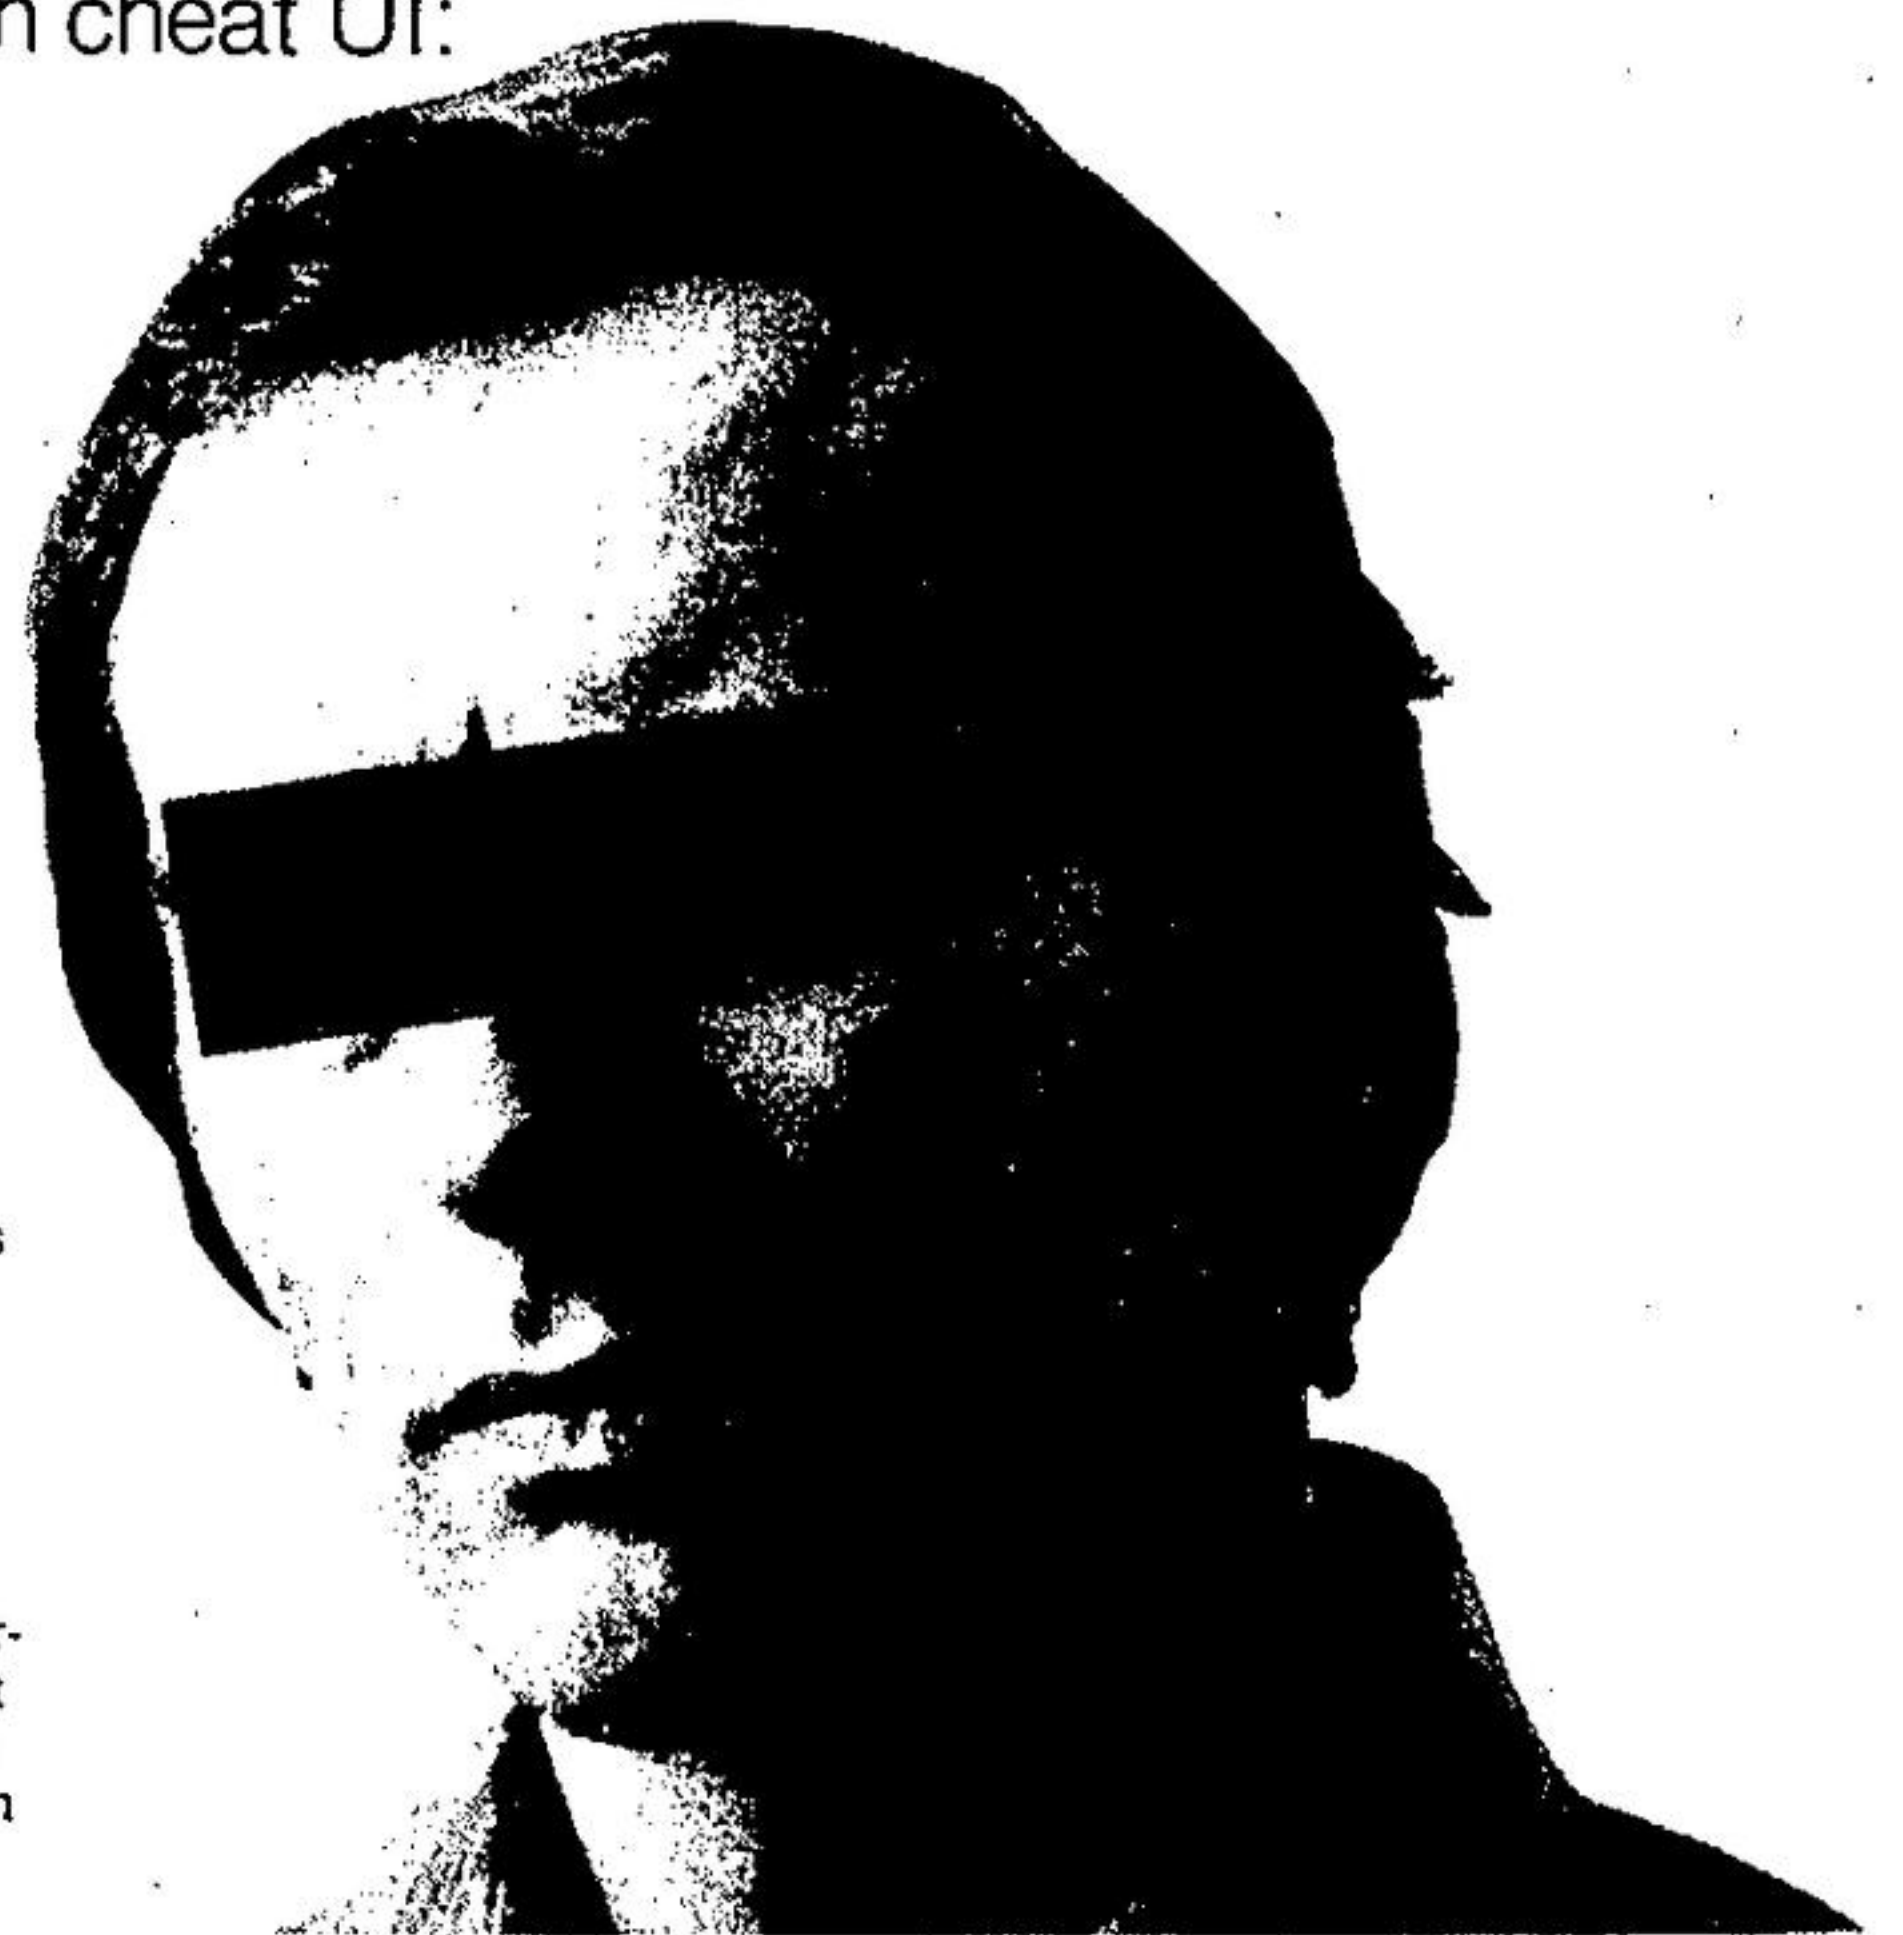

If you're caught, money improperly claimed must be paid back in full. It could mean you pay an administrative penalty. Or you could face prosecution under the Unemployment Insurance Act, or the Criminal Code of Canada. Conviction means a criminal record.

UI employs almost 500 full-time trained claims investigators and, like any modern organization, we use new data-handling techniques to their best advantage. We match up Records of Employment with claim records to find the cheaters who don't report earnings while they're on UI.

We don't like to prosecute. We'd rather avoid that painful process by telling people that if they cheat, they'll probably be caught.

"I never really believed it was criminal."

Some people's attitudes toward Unemployment Insurance have been hard to explain.

People who would never consider shoplifting or outright robbery have been willing to hide earnings from us to get more UI benefits than the law allows. Almost as if it were socially acceptable or even fun.

Everyone knows this goes on. No one knows better than we do.

Suppose you lose your job. If you've been paying into Unemployment Insurance and you qualify, you have a right to benefits. And we will respect that right as long as you remember your obligations, too.

Your obligation is to play it straight with us. And as long as you do that, we're proud to help you.

The Unemployment Insurance Commission and the Department of Manpower and Immigration have become the Canada Employment and Immigration Commission. For a time, you'll still see our local offices identified as Unemployment Insurance offices or Canada Manpower Centres. When they're together in one location, they'll be called Canada Employment Centres.
