For the benefit of newcomers to the community we would like to explain some of the work and planning that goes into making this hockey tournament a success.

The Legion asks all pee wee teams in the country if they are interested and the first 15 to reply are accepted. These teams are then sent tickets to sell and advised that they are assured of at least two well as the dance are included games, each player will get a for the ticket price of $10 a crest and up to 20 meals per team will be provided. A prize is given to the team selling the most tickets. There is also a prize to the Acton player selling the most tickets.

Hot beef sandwiches on Saturday and breakfast on Sunday is available at the Legion at a nominal price for all interested spectators.

Congratulations to the Canadian Legion Committee for an enjoyable, wellorganized bonspiel, held on February 12. Four of our ladles skipped rinks, namely Phyllis Patrick, Trev Loutett, Ann Cook and Nan Hurst. There were 24 rinks in all, and Trev Loutett finished a remarkable third. It was a great day, lunch and dinner included. We're looking forward to the next one. Many of our ladles have been competing in out-oftown bonspiels lately. A rink including Susan Patrick, Shirley Rosenbersky, Bev Appleyard, and Trev Loutett, and another of Willa Hewitt, Kae Hansen, Joyce Iglesias and Ina Mellon journeyed to the Chinguacousy Curling Club Saturday, February 11. Kae Hansen, Phyllis Patrick, Ina Melion and Dorothy Few played in the two-day spiel in Stratford last week, and on Saturday February 18, Gwen Tyler, Marg Toth, Nan Hurst and Helen Otterbien made their annual trek to the Business Girl's "super" splei in Whitby.
