

ACTON TOWN HALL 1881

TOWN HALL Restoration Committee is urging people to buy prints of the town hall, to clear debt. They're available at local stores and from committee members.

Monthly meeting of Y board held

Kelth Robbins chaired the monthly meeting of the Y board, February 15 in the Y. Committees were formalized with individuals assigned to various committees: finance, Gord Chapman; building, Bob Clark; ways and means, Bev Owen; program, Carol Clark; membership and registration, Dot Redekop; regional representative, Helen Van Sicker; world development, Cindy Blades; and nominating, Helen Van Sicker.

Prints for sale

The sale of town hall prints is going slowly. Profits will be used to cover costs incurred by the Town Hall Restoration committee. Prints are available at Dawe Real Estate, Toddlers to Teens, the Pine Chair, and the Chicken and Pizza Spot. Committee members George Elliott and Yvonne Rosenquist also will welcome calls.

Bev Owen of the ways and means committee reported that the last lunch was very successful with 85 people attending. The next one will be March 9. They are always on the second Thursday. She also announced that the group is looking for someone to supervise the afternoon session of the kiddies' club every second Friday, 12 noon till 2 p.m. Anyone interested can contact the Y office.

A good time was had by all at a Tupperware party held by the ways and means committee at the Y on Thursday. Tea and dessert were also enjoyed. Mary Smith and Jean McKee won the door prizes.

The ways and means committee is planning a get-acquainted offer in the Y Thursday and Friday, March 9 and 10 from 4 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, March 11, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to take family or individual pictures. TGG Photographic Industries, Downsview are offering one $10 as a gift, compliments of the Y. For appointments, call 853-1070 or 853-2783.

IT'S NOT THE MUMMY, and she isn't really hurt. Ruby Weber is all wrapped up as part of the St. John ambulance first aid night school course at the high school. Kari Aitken does some touching up on her handiwork.

Musicians wanted

Acton Citizens Band is looking for musicians in North Halton willing to join their organization.

The band is a group of volunteers who enjoy weekly practices, concerts, a few parades, and a lot of fellowship. The band has been performing since 1872 and has won many awards in competitions.

Many of the band members have come up through the group's instructional program where they are taught to read and perform for the lowly price of the promise to work at it. Most instruments are even available on loan. Beginners practice every Tuesday night and the band plays every Wednesday from 8 to 10 p.m. in the band hall in Acton. Players need not be Acton residents to belong.

Anyone interested can call Dr. George Elliott, 76 Bower Ave., Acton, at 853-0365 between 6 and 7 p.m.

Monarchist League branch formed here

The formation of a Halton Region Branch of the Monarchist League of Canada is announced by John L. Aimers, Dominion Chairman of the League.

Chairman is Oakville banker J.S. Watt. "Mr. Watt will be organizing interest in, understanding of and support for the Monarchy and the aims of the League throughout the Halton Region", said Aimers. "We already have a good base of membership, and we wish to expand it into an active organization, due to the great interest shown in the area."

The Halton Region Branch will comprise Acton, Burlington, Georgetown, Milton and Oakville.
