Curling Club results

by Karen Knickle

With five weeks of curling now completed and just as many left in the season we can now have a closer look at the current leaders of this draw. I say current because with the time remaining it's still anyone's game. So please don't despair. If your team is not one of the top ones, maybe the leads, seconds and vices should pull up their socks (or rather their rocks) and have a few words with their skips. Remember no matter what mistakes you make the skips get last crack at throwing the winning stone. So, you need only take a quarter of the blame apiece. Even if you didn't hit the broom all night, just keep repeating in an audible whisper, "the skip gave me the wrong ice."

Mon. 7-9
To date the rink skipped by Sherry Few along with Pearl Baker, Gord Chapman and Jean Lumbers has walked away with the lead. Five wins in five games. Good curling, folks! In second place with four wins is the rink of Bruce Barber, Dolly Moulden, Bob Loutlet and Colin Ager. Weren't you out in front last draw too, Bruce? Third spot is shared by the rinks of Bill Dumarsh and Peter Ginn each with three wins.

Mon. 9-11
In this draw the rink of Bill Cripps with Mary Smith, Roy Richards and Sandra Henderson has had four wins out of five games. You'd better not blow it this time, Bill. But then again Carl Rosenquist's rink of Karen Knickle, Dave McCuechon and Bonnie Smith has three wins and this team intends to give you a good run for your money. Roger Wilson's rink holds third spot here with two wins and a tie.

Tues. 7-9
Here we have a leader way out in front and it is going to take some good curling and teamwork to catch him. Brian Moore's rink of Joyce Iglesias, Ray St. Onge and Carol Korpella have five wins and no losses. Very good! In second spot is Chester Anderson's rink of Mary Watson, Rod Donaldson and Wanetta Smith with 3 wins and only 2 losses to date. Peter Vidler's rink is in third spot with two wins and a tie. I guess it's up to either Peter's or Chester's team to catch up to and pass Brian's rink if possible. Let's make it interesting for him.

Tues. 9-11
It could still be anyone's match here since several rinks are close together with regards to the number of wins they have. This looks like a good battle in the making. Ben Wingrove's rink of Marg Toth, Keith Aitkens and Kris Bruce has a slight lead here with three wins and a tie. Two new skips and their rinks are running a close second. Tied with three wins apiece is the rink of Richard Anne Cook and Gerry Hacke and the rink of Gord Toth with Ina Mellon and Ted Hansen. The rest of the rinks are still very much in contention.

Fri. 7-9
Still in the lead here with ten wins is Del Hickling's rink of Anne Pickering, Glen Gray and Norma Hickling. Close behind with nine wins and still fighting is Don Ross's rink of Linda Ross, Bill Porter and Wendy Porter. Third spot is held by Pat Chamberlain's rink of Sue Patrick, Gabe Rosenberki and Shirley Rosenberki with eight wins to their credit.

Fri. 9-11
Two rinks of keen curlers are tied for top spot with nine wins apiece. Bruce McArthur's rink of Marilyn McArthur, Doug Appleyard and Bev Appleyard is tied with Brian Robertson's rink of Jane Robertson, Ron Loutlet and Trev Loutlet. You finally let someone catch you, Brian. The following skips each have second place spots with seven wins apiece. They are Fred Archibald, Howard Campbell, and Sherry Few. It looks as if Fred's going to let someone else take possession of the trophy this year.

The I.G.A. spiel is coming up Mar. 18. Keep it in mind, everyone, and sign up now. This is a mixed spiel for all curling club members.
Wed. Men's 7-9
Last week's column mentioned there was a number of novice curlers participating in this particular draw and that they were shooting like seasoned veterans.
Well, the standings as of February 22, 1978 show that

SENIOR
The Elms routed up the first two games and totals but the Palms swayed the last game to their side of the board. The Pines needed the Birches for the first two games and totals but were stripped of the last game. The Redwoods treed the first game but the Cedars chopped them down to take the last two games and totals.
Standings: Pines 43, Cedars, Redwoods 40, Elms 40, Birches 38, Palms 35.
Top Ten: Dale Anderson 690 (311), Debbie James 584 (208), Robbie Boufield 577 (312), Kevin Archibald 574 (211), John Herrington 540 (224), Carrie McChial 535 (242), Gary Boufield 518 (222), Bob Peher 511 (318), Gary Mandarino 483 (370), Karen Glen 482 (369).
The most consistent bowlers this week are Brent Wedge with both games of 43 and Chris Gervais with both games of 78. Our YDC bowlers did not win a place in the Zone Rollouts for the Four Steps to Stardom tournament but many very good games were bowled and the word from coaches is "well done". We would like to take this opportunity to thank all those who went along as coaches for the teams, those who offered their services as drivers, program director Sylvia Magee and Ken Huford and also the parents and families who came to cheer the bowlers on.

Beothucks enter Newfie tourney

Georgetown Beothucks, a hockey team comprised almost entirely of natives of Belle Island, Newfoundland, leaves tonight (Wednesday) for a five day visit to their home province where they will play in a three team tournament.
The team, which takes its nickname from an Indian tribe which once inhabited Newfoundland, will play two intermediate "C" calibre teams, one of them the defending Intermediate "C" champions of Newfoundland.
Five Ontario players, goalies Fred Enge and Rob McEown, Fred Grisdale, Nino Baldino and Cor Oosterhof have been added to strengthen the team.
All of the other 17 players are natives of Belle Island. They are John, Jim, Danny, Leo and Paul Kavanagh, Butch and Cyril Rees, Kevin and Brendan McLean, Norm and Les King, John Roberts, Kevin Galway, Gord Byrne, Eric Stone and Tom Spracklin.
Beothucks play in the four team Edelweiss non-contact hockey league in Bolton. They are currently in third place. The team raised $7500 on its own to finance the trip. All of the 22 players and nine boosters, who will make the trip, have helped raise the money and will have their ways paid. The team held draws, two major dances,

Sunday night card games and garage sales, since October. All of the players are from Georgetown, Acton and Brampton.
Draw winner
Winner of the door prize at the peeewe tourney was Paul Colquhoun, 340 Livingstone Ave. N., Listowel, Ontario.
