

Rockwood Roundup

by Barb Wynneck

The Rockwood Cubs and Scouts are sponsoring a Silent Movie Afternoon and Evening during the school break, at the Town Hall. Look about the village for further details and date confirmation.

The Eramosa Junior Farmers are currently staging a membership drive. This is an organization of rural youth promoting community involvement. The age group is 15-30 years. For further information contact Peggy Burnett at 858-9097.

MIKE CHAPMAN sits down to enjoy his Friday night dinner at the Rockwood Scout's Bean Supper. The beans were cooked to spicy perfection by Scout Master, Gary Lawton and politely served by the troop to a steady stream of satisfied customers.

Enjoyable afternoon for Sunshine Club

by Robina Peacock

The Rockwood Sunshine Club had a lovely afternoon March 9 and 36 members came to enjoy the singing and entertainment.

Mrs. Black welcomed everyone and a special welcome to Mrs. Milne after her stay in hospital. Everyone was glad to see her out at the meeting once again.

After the ritual of opening and hearing the reports of the secretary and the treasurer's report from Mrs. Nellis, birthday greetings were sung to Mrs. Irene Davidson, Mrs. Florence Trousdale, Mrs. Katie Gilbertson, Mrs. Jessie Dunk, Mrs. Marg Copperaud and Mrs. Frances Cutts.

The sing-song for the day was comprised of Irish songs it being near St. Patrick's Day and these were well sang and enjoyed by all with Mrs. Black at the piano.

Henry Leachman, program convener called on Mrs. Elsie Leitch who gave a very humorous reading and then read the story of "The Praying Hands". Mr. Leachman then gave some lively tunes on his harmonica with Mrs. Black accompanying him on the piano. A poem entitled "Grandma" came next read by Mrs. Dunk and then everyone was ready to turn to the game tables.

Mrs. May Fletcher and Mrs. Frances Cutts took the high scores for euchre and crokinole highs went to Mr. A. K. Thomas and Mr. William Hayden.

Mrs. Florence Trousdale and Mrs. Daisy Kingshott served doughnuts and tea for lunch.

The Choralliers of Acton are putting on a concert in the town hall April 23 at 7.30 p.m. for the Sunshine Club and everyone is welcome.

Windows

A plate glass door and a window at Speyside school were broken sometime during the night of March 4, according to Halton Regional Police. There was no evidence of entry, police say.

Guide and Brownie bake sale is success

by Marjorie Griffenham
The Second Rockwood Brownie Pack had another busy month. Mrs. Petrie has been working with us in Creative Drama. She is working for her Creative Drama certificate so we are happy to try and help her get it.

A puppet play, "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" was put on by the Pixie Six. Two of us were trying for our puppet badges and were happy to learn that we would receive it. Cookie Sheets were handed out. This year, the cookies are $1 a box. On Sunday, February 19, we took part in a parade with the Guides, Cubs and Scouts to officially set Scout-Guide Week in Rockwood. Karen Johnston, Laura Johnston and Dianne Petty told us about Brownies in Nigeria. As our Lend a Hand deed for Thinking Week, we took the pennies off the map where they had been taped and are giving the money to the World Friendship Fund, so some unfortunate Brownies may have as much fun as us. We planted flower seeds hoping they will grow so we can put them out in the spring. This is a Golden Hand requirement.

February 22 was a very special meeting for us. This was the day Lord and Lady Baden Powell were born many years ago. To celebrate, we enjoyed birthday cakes which were made by Brown Owl. The birthday candles were also used to demonstrate match safety. Those of us who had never lit a match, did so. Match Lighting is also a Golden Hand requirement.

Our knitting is coming along. Some of us even know how to cast off now.

Our trip to the C.N. Tower will be remembered for a long time. We were among 6,000 Brownies and Guides from all over Ontario. Our wait was a very long one, somewhere between three and three and a half hours to get to the elevators to take us up. We were all pretty hot and bored by this time, but seemed to recover when we finally reached the top. The view was breathtaking. The things on the ground looked like toys. We wish to express a special thankyou to our parent committee who provided us with the buses. Thank you also to our bus drivers Mrs. Ann Drexler and Mrs. Sharon Johnston and to our parent volunteers. Our Brown Owls, Mrs. Janet Cunningham, second Rockwood, and Mrs. Ellen Thomson, first Rockwood, deserve our special cheer because without all their organization, the trip would have not been possible.

Recent badges received were: Friends to Birds, Colleen McKendry; loymaker, Cheryl Cunningham; Colleen McKendry; Golden Ladder, Colleen McKendry; Veronica George; and Karen Johnston; second year service stars, Colleen McKendry, and Tara Waller; golden bar, Tara Waller.

Limehouse

Trip, shower, touring 94th birthday news

by Mrs. A. Benton
Mrs. Roughley has been away since early February and Miss Brigham since early January. They visited friends in B.C., then with other friends travelled down the west coast to California, then back to Canada where they visited in all three prairie provinces before returning home on Friday. Sorry, Carl! Telephone conversations don't always spell correctly. Congratulations just the same.

Mrs. Garnet Case was hostess when she and several young friends held a baby shower for Mrs. Joe Brooks and little Janice on Tuesday evening, March 7, ending with a lovely lunch and decorated cake.

On Friday afternoon Miss Helen Mills entertained a number of her mother's friends in honour of Mrs. Mills' 94th birthday. We wish her continued health and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Dubuc were welcomed as new members by transfer of certificate from Quebec when communion services were held at Limehouse on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, with Robert Cook from Norwich, England who have been making their home with Mr. & Mrs. Frank Freeman for the past two weeks, returned home on Sunday.

Area residents vacation in south

by Winifred Smith
The Lenten series continued on Sunday when Mr. Stiles' sermon was taken from St. John's gospel on "Jesus, The Bread of Life". The men's choir added to the service when they sang the anthem, "Room At The Cross".

Next Sunday being Palm Sunday, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated as Holy Week begins. The beautiful basket of flowers placed in the church, was in memory of Mrs. Black's sister who passed away last week.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Black and family in the loss of Mrs. Black's sister whose death occurred recently at North Bay. Mrs. Tom Given accompanied by her niece, is spending a holiday in Florida. Daughter Kathy Hall, is enjoying a vacation in Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Coleman, with Robert Cook from Norwich, England who have been making their home with Mr. & Mrs. Frank Freeman for the past two weeks, returned home on Sunday.
