

Curling Club results

by Karen Knickle

Anticipations and anxieties run high for many curlers as the season draws to a close. Monday 7-9 draw still has Sherry Few's rink out in front with six wins as of March 6. With several rinks closing in fast Sherry will have to work hard to keep his lead.

Tuesday 7-9 sees Brian Moore's rink still way out front with seven wins. What lucky rink will break Brian's winning streak! Can anyone beat Brian?

Those wishing (or dying) to know these results can send a stamped, self-addressed envelope c/o CBS.

MIKE KINAL AND Bill Knight present Alex Bowland, captain of the Beamsville Atom team, with the Home Hardware trophy after his team won the consolation championship Sunday, at the Atom Hockey Tournament.

Wednesday afternoon ladies has the rink skipped by Finni Verbiak ahead of the pack with five wins. Linda Ross's rink is still working fast and furious to catch Finni, possibly in a play-off game.

Wednesday Draw While a real dog fight exists among the rinks skipped by Rod Donaldson, Del Hickling, Fred New and Pat Chamberlain for top honors on this draw, the 9-11 p.m. has now entered playdowns for trophy honors.

As hinted a few weeks ago, the men's 9-11 draw did, in fact, go down to the last week, game and shot before a winner was determined.

Sunday, March 12 saw a thrilling playoff game between the foursomes skipped by Don Ross (Tony Verbiak, Brian Robertson, Pat Chamberlain) and Fred Archibald (Bill Cripps, Peter Vidler, Glen Gray) take place in order to determine the winner of this draw.

Acton was aptly and with but one end to play, the score was even at four apiece coming home in the 10th end. Although Freddie had the "hammer", Don's rink was sitting with first, and second shots with but one shot to play.

Under the careful eyes of an ever faithful left-handed front end, Freddie's last shot came down the ice, knudged back Don's shot and came to rest in the twelve foot as shot!

Final score—Archibald 5, Ross 4.

A thrilling game to play and a thrilling game to watch. Rumor has it that Don Duguid and Don Chevler were at the club recording shooting percentages of the players on the ice. Those wishing (or dying) to know these results can send a stamped, self-addressed envelope c/o CBS.

Don Ross's foursome now moves into playdowns with the rinks of Bill Porter, John Mintern and Sherry Few for runner-up honors.

Friday night 7-9 mixed competitive still has Del Hickling's rink out in front with Don Ross's rink close behind. There isn't much time left to go!

The past weekend saw two spels held at the club. Saturday March 11, the Carling-O'Keefe Bonspiel saw a Guelph rink skipped by Lee Strusser from the Guelph Country Club walk off with top honors. Bill Kassa from the Guelph Curling Club took second spot with our own Willa Hewitt on his rink. The day went well thanks to organizers Finni and Tony Verbiak.

Saturday also saw two Acton men's rinks entered in the Governor-General's in Milton. The rinks skipped by Fred Archibald and Crawford Casswell came away with one win only for the day. But the competition was keen and challenging and the games well played.

The Legion had another successful fun curling day at the club Sunday, March 12. The winner for the day was the rink skipped by Trev Loutlet.

Remember curlers, this Friday there's an Easter Ham Shoot. Everyone's welcome to take part. The I.G.A. Bonspiel is coming up Sat., March 18. If you're not curling in it come and watch. It should be a good for all.

CONSOLATION CHAMPIONS of last weekend's atom tournament were the Bradford team. They beat out Orangeville Sunday afternoon for the title.
