

Golden anniversary for John, Kate Post

Guests came from all over central Ontario to attend the 50th wedding anniversary party of Mr. and Mrs. John Post, 47 Frederick St.

The couple were married April 18, 1928 in Brantford, Ontario. The bride, Kate Elizabeth, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webber, of Brantford. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Post, of Kent England and Brantford. The newlyweds made their home in Brantford for many years before moving to Meaford, Ontario. They lived there for several years, and moved to Acton five years ago to be more centrally located to their children.

Mr. Post was an employee of textile mills for 47 years before his retirement and Mrs. Post worked in various stores in the Meaford area.

They have five daughters, Ruth (Mrs. Frank Elliott) Brantford; Grace (Mrs. Garland Wilson) Peterborough; Patricia (Mrs. Guy Mathieu) Oshawa; Shirley (Mrs. Brydon Hunter) Acton and Sheila (Mrs. Bruce Graham) Kitchener. They also have 19 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

Between 80 and 90 people attended the open house held in the Acton Curling Club on Sunday. A family dinner was held in the evening.

Guests travelled from Brantford, Peterborough, Kitchener, Meaford, Brampton, Galt, Guelph, Paris, Waterloo and Oshawa. Also at the celebration was Mrs. Phyllis Hamilton, who was bridesmaid 50 years ago.

Special greetings were received from Dr. Frank Philbrook, member of parliament for Halton, Julian Reed, member of provincial parliament for Halton; the Rev. Charles Beaton; the mayor of Brantford, the mayor of Halton Hills, Tom Hill; Ontario premier Bill Davis; and Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau.

OPEN HOUSE WAS held at the Acton Curling Club for Mr. and Mrs. John Post on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Trinity Anglican church, Eagle Place, Brantford, at one p.m. Wednesday, April 18 when Kate Elizabeth, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webber, of this city, was united in marriage to John Post, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Post of Kent England and Brantford.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father and was becomingly gowned in Alice Blue satin, trimmed with metallic embroidery wearing a grey hat, slippers, hose and gloves to match. She carried a beautiful bouquet of sunset roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Phyllis Hall, wore sand and rosewood georgette, sand hat with shoes and gloves to match, and carried a bouquet of Columbia roses.

The groom was attended by Ernest Pusey, and the ceremony was performed by the Rector of Trinity church, the Rev. C.H.P. Owen, assisted by the Rector of St. Paul's church, the Rev. J. Tully, with Harry Nurrish presiding at the organ.

The happy couple left by train for Collingwood and points north, amid showers of confetti and best wishes. The numerous and beautiful presents show the high esteem in which the young couple are held. A reception was held at Collingwood, upon their arrival. On their return they will reside at 50 Burwell St., Brantford.

36 members at Auxiliary meeting

by Fern Skulits
The Legion Ladies' Auxiliary held their monthly meeting last week with 36 present.

Roberta Hughes, a member from Oakville Auxiliary, was transferred and present at the meeting. A new executive was nominated and installation will be in May. The bazaar was discussed and girls were asked to be conveners for the tables.

Jean Earle has an interesting bus trip for the group Aug. 28 so any Legion members wanting to go, get in touch with Jean in lots of time. Eva Cutting had her name drawn for the money pot but was unable to attend. Lloyd has been in hospital and all hope for him a speedy recovery. Easter lilies were sent to all the senior comrades.

The Zone Rally is on April 25 and President Helen Fowler hopes to have a whole bus load going. It is in Milton and leaving at 6.45 p.m. at the Legion or at Ed's In and Out.

The ladies donated $300 toward new uniforms for the Chorallers. A bus load of Chorallers and Ladies' Auxiliary went to Sunnybrook Sunday. The Chorallers were

MR. AND MRS. Ed Archibald celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary on March 18 at their home in Guelph. They are former residents of Nassagaweya and Erin townships.

MR. AND MRS. NEIL MARTIN of 324 Kingsleigh Ct., Milton quietly marked their 50th anniversary on April 5. The couple have lived in Milton, Acton and the Nassagaweya area all their married life.

Couple celebrates 45th anniversary

Forty-five years of marriage were celebrated March 18 when Ted and Mary Archibald were guests in their own home for an anniversary open house. They live at 36 Robertson Dr., Guelph.

The party was arranged by the couple's children, Ida (Mrs. Don Matthews) of Fergus, Fred of Acton, Joan (Mrs. Phil McCristall) of Acton and Donald of Acton., and the Archibald's 13 grandchildren.

Mr. Archibald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Archibald of Schomberg. His wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gilroy of the Guelph district.

After they were married the newlyweds lived in Schomberg for three years. They then moved to Nassagaweya where they lived for 14 years before moving to Erin township. They lived there for 23 years before retiring in 1973 to their present home in Guelph.

Mr. Archibald was a farmer his entire life. Mrs. Archibald belonged to the Acton Fair Board and was president from 1971 until 1973. She was also a member of the Greenock Women's Institute.

Guests attended the open house from London, Hawkestone, Cookstown, Schomberg, Alliston, Toronto, Unionville, Guelph and the Acton district. A telegram was received from nieces and nephews in Florida.

A member of the original wedding party, Wilfred Gilroy attended the festivities. He is the bride's brother. Her sister, the late Mrs. Oscar Strome, was also in the wedding party.

Mrs. Archibald made her own dress for the occasion. As gifts, a portraits of each child's family was received by the happy couple.

THE STANDING GENERAL GOVERNMENT COMMITTEE

The Standing General Government Committee will be considering Sessional Paper #13, "Policy Options for Continuing Tenant Protection" on eight Wednesdays commencing April 12, 1978. The first six of these meetings will consider Rent Review Legislation and the last two The Landlord and Tenant Act.

Interested individuals or corporations wishing to present Briefs and/or appear before the Committee should contact the Clerk of the Committee, Room 110, Legislative Building, Queen's Park, Toronto M7A 1A2, telephone 965-1406. Written briefs should be as concise as possible, in point form, and submitted at the earliest possible date.

Mr., Mrs. Neil Martin mark golden anniv.

Lifelong area residents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Martin of 324 Kingsleigh Ct., Milton celebrated a happy 50th anniversary last week.

Wednesday, April 5 was the golden anniversary of their marriage and their only son Larry treated them to dinner at Hunter's Inn, Georgetown.

The Martins recently returned to live in Milton, after a year and a half in Georgetown. Otherwise, they have spent the rest of their married life in Milton, Acton and Nassagaweya.

Mr. Martin was originally from Puslinch but moved to his uncle's Town Line farm just before he married Margaret Wilson. They were married by Rev. Jones at the Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church manse, April 5, 1928.

They recall their wedding day with great clarity — it was a wet and rainy spring and the roads were in terrible shape, they said. Mr. Martin had borrowed his brother-in-law's car and got it stuck three times, just trying to get to the minister's house. At one point it was settling in the mud and by the time a team of horses was rounded up to pull it free, the mud was "halfway up the doors," he recalls.

Mr. Martin worked at various jobs, including farming, threshing, silo filling, the railroad, trucking, factories and custodial work before he retired in 1973 at the age of 69. His last job was on the staff of the Halton County Court House and Administration Building in Milton.

The Martins did not plan any open house celebration for their anniversary ("we've just been too busy," they said) but their many friends didn't let them forget the occasion. They received many cards of good wishes and floral arrangements
