

FORBES COLE CELEBRATED his 90th Birthday with a party Sunday at Brookville Hall, and spent some time chatting with his daughter Lena, Mrs. Doug Mason.

Forbes Cole celebrates 90th birthday Sunday

On April 19, 1888, in Hornby, Trafalgar township, Walter and Emily Cole had their first son, Forbes. Today, Wednesday, is his 90th birthday. About 100 people dropped into Brookville Hall on Sunday to wish him well and help him celebrate this rare occasion. Mr. Cole farmed all his life until six years ago at R.R. 2, Acton. Upon his retirement, he and his wife atherine, a mere 83, moved to Cameron St. in Acton. However, even today, he likes to visit the old homestead and check out the farming. He still likes to browse at auctions also. The birthday party was put on by his children: Jack, R.R. 2, Acton; Ruth, (Mrs. Roy Wood), Campbellville; Lena, (Mrs. Doug Mason), Acton; Walter, R.R. 2, Acton; Delber, Guelph; Edwin, at home; and Doreen (Mrs. Ross Auliff), Guelph. Mr. Cole also has 16 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren. Special guests at the party were Mr. Cole's brother, Bob Milton, his sister Beatrice (Mrs. Gerald Downs), Milton and his

Mrs. Brooks given pin from U.C.W.

The United Church Women of Trinity United church met in the chapel with Mrs. Licka in the chair and opening with a poem Our Hands. Mrs. Shoemaker was in charge of devotions with Mrs. Ransdown reading Scripture. Dorothy Simmons led in singing a hymn, Mrs. Little read a poem Do It Today and Mrs. Shoemaker read several excerpts from religious pages. The ladies presented Mrs. Brooks with a U.C.W. pin before she goes to her new brother-in-law, Charles Robertson, Hamilton. A special letter of congratulations was received from federal opposition leader Joe Clark.

Theta Phi new vice president

The first meeting in April of Theta Phi Chapter took place April 4 at the home of Dian Bowers. Co-hostess was Diane Tappin. The sherry gift was brought by Marion Mathews and won by Terry Grubbe. After the business meeting the program was presented by Cheryl Beaton and Lynda Griffin on the topic of medicine. Their guest speakers for the evening were from Guelph Rape Crisis Centre. The evening concluded with dessert and coffee.

Lively election for Y's Menettes

The Acton Y's Menettes Club held their monthly meeting on April 10 at Margaret Wallis' home with nine members present. Shirley Broostad opened the meeting with a Y's Menettes prayer she wrote especially for the club. They discussed sending additional funds to the family of their adopted child and this will be done when they have some correspondence and can decide exactly how much and when the additional funds should be sent. Pat Nellis is pricing tables for the Y as they have funds set aside for this purpose. They held a lively election of officers for the 1978-79 season and they are as follows: president Shirley Broostad; vice-president Margaret Wallis; secretary Lynne Robertson; treasurer and friendship Anna Usher; bulletin editors Pat Nellis and Louise Clark. Shirley Broostad showed a film called Sexuality and Communication. It was a most informative and enjoyable film which is used in nurses training, but it certainly proved to be a film that would interest everyone. The meeting was concluded with friendly conversation over coffee and dessert. Renovations have improved the front of the IGA store. New facing was installed this week.

C.W.L. plans sale, films

The C.W.L. meeting of April 11, opened with a prayer. It was decided to hold St. Joseph's Parish spring bake sale on May 13 from 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. in the church hall. This is the day before Mother's Day. The major prize for the Christmas bazaar will be a 36" Raggedy Ann and Andy and a money purse. Four of the ladies offered to help with the May euchre. The C.W.L. will serve lunch following the sacrament of confirmation on April 26. The district commissioner, Pat VanderEyken, asked for the use of the church hall for Brownies on Wednesday nights from 8.15 p.m. - 8 p.m. starting in Sept. It was unanimously agreed by C.W.L. members to allow Brownies to use the hall. The May 9 meeting will be held in the church hall and since flowers of hope week falls May 14, Mrs. Julie Conroy will show a film "Who shall survive" put out by the Joseph P. Kennedy foundation, also a film on the facilities and services available in North Halton for the retarded. The meeting closed with prayer.

Mary Graham life member

The Knox "Alert" Evening Group met in the Mary Ellen Anderson room last Wednesday evening. The program was the Easter and Springtime theme combined. Readings were given by Mrs. Bessie Musselle, Nellie Merkley and Irene Terry. Mrs. Lena Mann gave a piano solo, Nights of Gladness, which was much enjoyed. A life membership was presented to Mrs. Mary Graham. Plans for the coming Bake Sale were finalized and the meeting was closed with the Mirpah Benediction and a delicious lunch of fruit breads with cheese and a cup of tea followed.

Crocuses and snowdrops are welcome sights.

MARCH BIRTHDAY visits were made to senior citizens by Lions club members John Dennis and Haid Assadourian. Pictured (left) with Betty White and Gladys Hoffman are Jeanette Fernandes and Mr. Dennis. Betty was born March 11, 1919 and Gladys, March 8, 1902. They live at Jeanette's Home. Above are Mrs. Margaret McEnery, born March 4, 1886, and Isabelle Moore, born March 28, 1891. They are Mapleview residents.

Knox W.M.S. Thankoffering

The Spring Thankoffering meeting of Knox Women's Missionary Society, afternoon, auxiliary, was held in the Mary Ellen Anderson room of the church. Miss Isabel Anderson opened the meeting with the poems, The First Easter Day, and After the Winter Comes the Spring, and with prayer. The scripture lesson, John 15, was read in unison following the singing of the hymn, The Old Rugged Cross. Conveners for the month were Miss Anderson and Mrs. Wood. Mrs. Wood led in prayer and read a story about giving joy to a sick person. Miss Anderson read a chapter from the book by Edna Jaques, Uphill All The Way. The secretary, Mrs. Watson, gave the roll call and read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. McKenzie gave the treasurer's report. The meeting closed with the singing of When I Survey the Wondrous Cross. A time of fellowship was then enjoyed over lunch provided by the committee.

Near goal
 Almost 90 people enjoyed the regular monthly lunch at the Y last Thursday. The organizers would be even happier if they could feed over 100 each time. The luncheons are the second Thursday of each month.
