

Churchill

140th anniversary planned

by Joann Turner
Preparations are well under way for the celebration Sunday May 28th of Churchill's 140th Anniversary as a place of worship and 10th year as a community church. The choir and orchestra are preparing special music. The Churchill C.C.W. have had commemorative plates and mugs made up which will be available at that time. We have been fortunate in obtaining the services of two special speakers, The Rev. T.J. Reese, B.Z., B.D., of Mount Forest will be guest speaker at the morning service, with the Rev. Robt. Hyde, B.A., B.D., of Hagersville, officiating at the 7:30 p.m. service. A number from this community attended the 100th anniversary services at Ballinfad on Sunday and also enjoyed the buffet luncheon and special program that took place in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thompson, Mr. R.L. Davidson, and Mr. Jas. Leitch attended an open house on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Krick of R.R. 1 Stoney Creek. The occasion was the 90th birthday of Mrs. Krick's father, Mr. Frank Smart. Janice Swackhamer returned this week from an extended motor trip to the sunny south. A friend, Virginia Zurah, Moffat, accompanied her on the 100-day holiday that took them first to Florida where they found the weather too cool for the beach, but perfect for visiting such attractions as the famous Walt Disney World. They reached New Orleans, Louisiana in time for Mardi Gras, and enjoyed the fun, the music and festival atmosphere of this unique old-world town. The travellers drove on to Texas and saw the sights of Houston and Galveston, and took in a Western Rodeo in San Antonio. Crossing through El Paso they reached Arizona. They visited the Grand Canyon but found that clouds of fog completely obscured the view of this famous natural wonder. After proving their luck at the nickel slot machines of Las Vegas, they travelled through the mountains of Southern California, to the coast, then drove up the Pacific Coast from San Diego to Los Angeles. From there they flew to Hawaii where they spent two weeks that proved the highlight of the whole trip. They visited two islands and found the beaches, the scenery and the hospitality to be everything they had ever heard it was. Returning to the mainland the two girls motored north through California, Oregon and Washington and finally reached Vancouver. Spring had preceded them to B.C. and all the flowering shrubs were in beautiful bloom. They drove east across Canada finding increasing evidence as they neared Southern Ontario of the severe winter we stay-at-homes had endured—a good winter to have missed. What a lovely trip these two adventurous young people have had, and how nice it is to have them safely home again!

Achievement Day news

by Doris Fines

Mrs. John Vander Vlugt and her family, Doreen, John, Richard, Brian, and Jacqueline, were guests at the wedding of her niece Karen Vanden Hoek, in Brampton, April 22. Other relatives who came from a distance for the occasion, included two brothers of Mrs. Vander Vlugt, and a brother of her husband; Rev. C. J. Vander Voort, a priest and a chaplain in the army in Germany, who officiated at the wedding; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Vander Vlugt of Lisse, Holland; and Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Vander Voort of Cornwall, New York. They all visited for a week and had a family reunion before they returned home.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Buck on the arrival of their wee daughter Christina Muriel Marguerite, on April 30.

A gentleman on TV one day commented on emergency doors he had seen in some buildings. One had a sign which read "For Employees Only". Another one said "Emergency Door. Do not enter under any circumstances." It makes one wonder why it was put there in the first place. I never relied on mechanical devices to get me up in the morning. I detest being rudely awakened by ringing bells. I have my own built-in alarm clock which seldom fails me, but as can be expected, it couldn't foresee why 7 a.m. should suddenly be 8 a.m. However, my inner springs are getting adjusted, and will soon be ticking on schedule again. Jeremy Bruce of Carp, Ontario, celebrated his second birthday on April 29, at the home of his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce, along with his parents

Dr. Carol and Dr. Barry Bruce, and brother Michael. His great grandmother Mrs. M. M. Bruce of Whitewood, Sask. was there for the occasion, also Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Bruce of Toronto. Other visitors with the Bruces on the weekend were Dr. Garth Bruce and Mrs. Bruce, Kim and Dean of Toronto, Mrs. James Sayers and Lorna of Acton, Dr. T. R. Maxwell and Mrs. Maxwell of Waterloo, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnston of Acton. Nine girls and their leaders Mrs. Glen Jackson and Joan Veerman, attended Achievement Day on Saturday at Ross R. Mackay school, Hillsburgh, of the 4-H Home-making project Focus on Living. Linda Pankratz and Jennie Flinders commented on the exhibit, What To Do With Your Leisure Time. Karen McKinnon received her County Honors.
