

Travelogue is highlight at May F.W.I.O. meeting

The May meeting of the Greenock Branch F.W.I.O. was held at the home of Eleanor McCulloch.

The meeting opened with everyone singing the ode and repeating the Mary Stewart Collect: Keep us O Lord from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word and deed, O Lord, let us not forget to be kind.

Mrs. R. Sinclair, president, read a comment from the Dairy Paper regarding three types of people, those who make things happen, those who watch things happen and those who wonder what happened.

An article found on page 13 of the Spring 1975 Home and Country about our new agricultural museum near Milton was read. The museum is not intended to be another pioneer village but an effort to depict the history of agriculture and rural living.

Individuals have artifacts to offer, they should contact the museum, Box 38, Milton, a receipt is available for income tax deduction for articles that have a substantial value.

Minutes of the April meeting were read, as well as a financial report in good standing by secretary-treasurer Mrs. E. McGeraghe.

An invitation was read inviting members of A.C.W.W. who might be visiting England to a conference held July 10 to 13. The last day will be an open meeting to all members. This will be held at Keele University in Staffordshire, 150 miles northwest of London. If you are a member of a F.W.I.O. branch you are also a member of Associated Country Women of the World.

Mrs. McCulloch displayed the almanac which she was in charge of and which has just been completed by many of the industrial members.

A letter from Margaret Birch F.W.I.O. secretary on promoting family togetherness and awareness was read.

District annual for Wellington Centre will be held May 25 in Belwood United Church. Delegates and members are busily making preparations.

A committee including Mildred Sinclair and Evelyn Aitken will prepare the roll call on communications. Another committee, on entertainment from Greenock, will include Eleanor McCulloch and Annie Gates.

The usual donations of food for the noon luncheon was volunteered by the membership.

Pennies for Friendship used to sponsor delegates to the triennial Conference of A.C.W.W. were received.

Gifts were presented to the leaders of the recent quilting course. Nancy Addison, Emily Wallace and Evelyn Aitken each received a pair of embroidery scissors.

Members were treated to an armchair travelogue of Australia and New Zealand by Eleanor McCulloch taken when she and James exchanged teaching years there.

The pictures made it very clear how different the climate in Australia is from ours.

They have many exotic features in plant, bird and animal life because of the tropical climate. Iron is a plentiful commodity.

They had a holiday in New Zealand where among other things they have sulfur springs and geysers. Mainly white buildings with clay tile roofs are heated by these springs. North Island's sheep farming is its main product.

South Island is mountainous and heavily snow covered and Mount Cook is among the highest.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. D. Milton and Mrs. J. Jackson.

A successful plant and craft auction was fun bringing the evening to a close.

Mrs. Sinclair was courtesy convener.

The June meeting is in the charge of the grandmothers and will be held at Mrs. M. Brozic's home.

The May meeting of St. Joseph's Catholic Women's League was held in the church hall. It opened with a prayer.

Members volunteered to organize the May and June euches. The June meeting will be a pot luck supper June 14. It was decided that all CWL members were responsible for making the sick committee aware of any parishioners or members who were in hospital or sick for a while.

The meeting closed with a prayer and then Mrs. Julie Conroy presented slides on the facilities available in Halton for the mentally retarded. Also, a film "Who Shall Survive" put out by the Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation.

The May euche had 13 tables and the Mother's Day corsage was won by Mrs. Gladys Davidson.

THE McGRATH BROTHERS, John, Kevin, and Frank Richard were all out at the Catholic Women's bake sale last Saturday, May 13. The sale which was just in time for Mother's Day was very successful and reported a good attendance. Helen Rowe aids the boys with their purchases.

Guests of the club were fellow Y's Menettes from the Kitchener and Woodstock clubs.
