Mrs. Black was the hostess for the May meeting of the U.C.W. It was held in the evening of Tuesday, May 9. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Willa Shortill as president opened in the usual way. The roll call was answered by each telling of their bazaar project. Mrs. Grace McEnery was called on to give the devotional. There was a paper given on Citizenship. Slides were shown of Russia. Mrs. Edna Shortill and Mrs. Eileen Brown assisted Mrs. Black with the serving of a cup of tea. During the social time, there was an exchange of plants. On Wednesday, May 10 the postponed meeting of the W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Ada Kirkwood. There were 17 members and three visitors' present. The president called the meeting to order and opened with a short poem. The W.I. ode and Mary Stewart collect was repeated by all. The minutes were read of the previous meeting and approved. First item of business dealt with was the District Annual. Mrs. Given was appointed Delegate with Mrs. Slessoraltis to be alternative. In the reading of the correspondence a thank you note was read from Mrs. Ben-

Mrs. McLean gave the motto "History is Fabric Woven by Mankind on the Loom of Time". It was well thought out and put together in a most interesting way. Each member gave a local current event. A special guest at the meeting was Miss Lydia Snow from Georgetown who came to judge the baking. She had quite a task as there were six entries in lattice top cherry pie, and as many entries or more in plain bran muffins. Mrs. Jamleson was declared First prize winner for pie, Mrs. Lola Marshall second prize winner and third went to Mrs. Elleen Burt, For the muffins Mrs. Burt was first, second went to Mrs. McLean and third to Mrs. Marshall. Miss Snow was thanked by the president for taking time to come to the meeting and was given a small gift of appreciation. Mrs. Given reported on the bustrip planned for June 7. Many showed an eagerness to go and it was thought it would not be too hard to get a bus-

Mrs. Given volunteered to be present at the North Halton Musical Festival to present a trophy. Meeting closed with O Canada and the W.I. grace.

The cherry pies served with tce cream were all sampled for lunch. Mrs. McLean and Bonnie Kirkwood assisted hostess with lunch. Lille Given in her usual humorous way was auctioneer for the sale of plants. By this time the hour was a bit late, all agreed it was a busy evening but a fun night too.

special service at the church on Sunday. It was Christian Family Sunday. Sunday School was omitted as the Sunday School superintendent Mrs. Clarke with the help of the young folk took charge of the service.

The first scripture lesson was read by Darryle Johnston, followed by an anthem by the Junior Choir. The first story was read by Barbara Munro. Members of the Kerr family received the offering.

The lesson on "Sharing" was read from the second chapter of Acts verses 41 to 47 by Paul Larose followed by prayer by Helen Schwarz. The second story which fitted in with the theme of sharing was told by Mrs. Ann Gilpin. Two young boys were the ushers, Gerry Clarke and Ross Munroe for this special

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Haynes entertained for some friends at their home on Friday evening. It was a way of celebrating for Mr. and Mrs. Haynes as they were celebrating their 17th wedding anniversary the next day. The get-to-gether was mostly planned to show appreciation for some of the workers in the area who had given much time and help for the P.C. party. A delicious buffet dinner was served and a dozen beautiful red roses graced the centre of the dining room table. Other floral arrangements decorated other parts of the room. Among the guests were Perrin Beatty M.P. and Mrs. Beatty who had travelled from Ottawa that day to be present for the occasion.

When the meal was over and well on in the evening, the guests gathered in the large living room. The member of parliament Mr. Beatty thanked all for their work but he paid special recognition to Frank and Winnie Smith for the many years of service they had given as workers for the party. He went on to say although this couple could not be as active now as in the past any help in the future would be appreciated. Perrin pre-sented Winnie with a beauti-ful blooming plant and Eric Haynes presented Frank with a souvenir ash tray. The Smiths were deeply moved and felt highly honored for this special recognition shown them. Many thanks were given to Mr. and Mrs. Haynes for the wonderful evening

Rev. R. Finley spoke on "Breath of God." The first Pentecost was not the only occasion of God putting His spirit on earth. In Genesis 2, > ground, made man and breathed life into his nostrils. Ezekial, in the valley where there had been a terrible war, saw God clothe the bones with life. At Easter, Jesus's followers were in the upper room, behind closed doors, when Jesus breathed on them the breath of God. They were gahtered in one place, with one mind. They had unity. In Luke 11, Jesus says to ask.

You will be given according to your need and ability. God chose your gifts for you, and chose something else for others. Travellers in Africa found sticks laid out for a fire in the jungle. They waited for people to come. Finally two chimpanzees brought wood, and sat in front of the prepared fire, but there was no flame. The breath of God is yours for the asking.
