

Spring comes alive

by Emily Price
Anyone who has taken a drive through the countryside lately, must be happy and pleased to see the spring flowers in bloom in the bushes, the dog tooth violets, trilliums and marsh marigolds. It lifts one's spirits to see the green grass, the trees all budding, and the plowed fields. It makes one feel alive after the long hard winter we've had. We hope everyone had a real nice Mother's Day and will enjoy the Victoria Day weekend and do the things that gives them a great deal of pleasure. Those who are travelling please be careful and come home safely. There will be a number of us going to Stoney Creek on Sunday, May 28 to participate in Handicapped Bowling. Everyone who takes part enjoys it very much. We are in need of one car and driver for that day, so if there is anyone willing to help us, would they please get in touch with me at 853-2324, to get the details. We would appreciate it so much if we could get a car, as would hate to disappoint anyone wanting to go.

There will be swimming this Sunday as usual at 10:30 a.m. at the pool.
I'd like to send greetings to our friends in Guelph who read this column and to thank them for the Zehrs and Dominion store register slips.

We hope you will still keep saving them for us, as we appreciate them very much. Our next meeting will be held at the M.Z. Bennett school at 7:30 on May 30, when we will be having our election of officers. We hope everyone will be able to get out on that night as it is important for all of us to encourage the new executive and to show our appreciation to those who were in office the past year.

Mothers

Mother's Day brought business to shops and florists, and crowds to churches on Sunday.

IT WAS Grandma Week at the Rockwood Nursery School recently. Babcie Turowski watches her grandson Scott who is being advised about his painting by Shirley Facey. Babcie means Grandma in Polish.

Today's recipes yummy

Some special goodies from the Synchronized Swim Team cook book.

Potter's Mushrooms and Sour Cream
½ lb. small white mushrooms
2 bunches green onions—green stems only
1 c. sour cream
Salt and pepper to taste
Pinch of garlic salt
1 lemon
Slice mushrooms paper thin. Cut stems of green onions with scissors, very thin as well. Mix mushrooms and onion stems with sour cream to form a nice paste. Add seasonings to taste. (Can be prepared in morning.) Just before serving, squeeze over juice of ½ lemon. Serve about 2 tsp. of mixture per person on a small plate garnished with a lemon wedge. Serves 8-8 people.

Onion Meat Balls
1 lb. ground chuck
2 cans onion soup
1 tbsp. garlic
¼ tsp. garlic salt
¼ tsp. pepper
Mix garlic, salt, pepper and meat together. Form into 1" meat balls. Brown in skillet on top of stove using a little oil. Empty soup into another pan (add no water). Add meatballs to soup. Simmer 45 min. at lowest heat. Mix Bisto into 1 c. water and add to above mixture. Bring to a boil and stir constantly. May be stored and frozen. These may be used as appetizers or for fondues.

Crab Stuffed Mushrooms
1 lb. med. mushrooms (24)
1-6 oz. can crab meat
1 egg, well beaten
¼ c. fine bread crumbs
¼ c. tomato juice
Dash of tabasco
1 tsp. finely chopped onion
2 tsp. finely chopped celery
½ tsp. salt
¼ c. bread crumbs or margarine
Early in day, wash mushrooms and dry thoroughly. Remove stems and store in fridge for other dishes. Mix together crab meat, egg, ¼ c. bread crumbs, tomato juice, lemon juice, tabasco, onion, celery and salt. Fill mushroom caps with mixture. Toss the ¼ c. bread crumbs with melted butter. Sprinkle over mushroom caps. Place caps on baking sheet. Cover with foil and refrigerate until ready to cook. Remove foil. Broil 6" from heat 5 to 8 min. or until crumbs are lightly brown or bake in 350 degree F. oven for 15 to 20 min.
