

Big Run for Little Brothers

SURROUNDED BY clothes, June Hunter sifts through a pile at the Y's Men's auction held Friday evening. The arena was filled with a good crowd.

This Sunday is the time for the first Big Run of Little Brothers here.

The run in Acton will start and finish at the high school, making a circle through town. A map in today's Free Press shows the route.

Runners are getting sponsors for the afternoon event, being held in conjunction with the national Big Run for Little Brothers which includes all of Canada.

There will be a run in Georgetown at the same time, heading out from the Cedarvale community centre.

Both runs are being sponsored by the Halton Hills Big Brothers. They hope to raise $1,000.

The run covers three miles and should take each participant about three-quarters of an hour. The runners will begin at different times during the afternoon, from 2 to 5 p.m.
