Obituary

Richard Hewitt dies in Simcoe

Funeral service was held today (Wednesday) in Simcoe for Richard Thomas Johnstone Hewitt, formerly of R. R. 5, Simcoe. He died Monday in Norfolk General Hospital, Simcoe, in his 67th year.

The service was held at 1:30 at the Veale Funeral Home, Simcoe. Interment was at Rockwood Cemetery at 3:30 p.m.

Mr. Hewitt was a former employee of the Brook

Woolen Co. in Simcoe. He worked there for several years before he became a stationary engineer at the Simcoe detachment of the O.P.P. He retired 20 years ago. He was a member of the Mt. Zion church at Renton and served in World War I.

He was predeceased by his wife, the former Jane Torrance, and survived by two sons, Douglas and Jack, both of Hamilton. He is also survived by two grandchildren.

Erin ignores water rules

The developer and some homeowners at Erin Heights subdivision were caught using water for lawns and gardens after restrictions were slapped on.

Reeve Larry MacKenzie said council is aware many people cheat, by watering gardens. He said he even caught the developer using water when it was restricted.

Subdivision residents have been asked to cut down their use of water, though a new pump has been installed. Residents complained to council about low water pressure and the existence of air locks in the line.

A new well has recently been finished in the village, but approval is yet to come.
