Special events end year at the school

by Doris Fines
Reverend Peter Barrow of Georgetown was guest minister for the anniversary service at Knox Presbyterian Church, Sunday morning. His message to the congregation asked, "If God is for us, who can be against us? Trials and misfortunes are not a punishment, he said, but are sent to make us grow stronger, and to men and women of faith, are never more than we can endure. Lovely musical selections were rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Tony Van Manen, in a duet Peace Like a River, and a solo It is no Secret, by Mrs. Van Manen, accompanied by her husband on the guitar. Brenda Bruce's solo How Lovely are Thy Dwellings, was accompanied by the organist Mrs. Max Schotsch.

Four young boys took the offering, David Grundy, Michael Schotsch, Andy Morrison and Mark Jackson. After the service, tea and coffee was served in the basement, where a fellowship hour was enjoyed.
Little Danny Wilson of Ferguson spent a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson, while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wilson, attended the clerks' convention.
Mrs. Beryl Randle has returned to her home in Birmingham, England, having spent three weeks vacationing with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mann and family. Mr. and Mrs. Doug Lamb and three children, Willie, Sarah and Maggie, of Bedford, Quebec, are now visiting for a week with Mrs. Lamb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mann.

A bicycle rodeo and check-up was held at Ospringe school on Thursday. The winner for the primary girl was April Timleck, with a score of 80. The primary boy winner was Stuart Boyens with a score of 78. The junior girl winner was Cheryl Gilbert with 86, and junior boy was Andrew Lambden with 92. The grade I class showed the highest number of participants.
Their field day was a tremendous success with a lot of smiles and ribbons flashing around.

Ballinafad

Outdoor service, picnic Canada Day in report

by Winifred Smith

It was a beautiful day for the outdoor church service and picnic luncheon on Sunday. It was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schwartz. After lunch the children enjoyed the races and a ball game. It was an enjoyable day for all who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. George Black attended the wedding of their son Douglas on Saturday, to Mary Wilson of Oakville. The wedding took place at Hopedale Bible College in Oakville. Mr. Douglas Bramer was the officiating clergyman. Rev. Don Stiles, minister in charge of the Ballinafad Church was present to bestow blessings on the newly-married couple. Besides Rev. and Mrs. Don Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shortill of Ballinafad were among the guests at the wedding.

Miss Helen Schwartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schwartz, left on Sunday to visit relatives in Germany. Congratulations to Miss Marlon Jamieson, who was among those graduating recently from Sheridan College. Marlon graduated in Business Administration.
Kyle and Colin Pinkerton are happy about the arrival of a baby sister on Tuesday of last week. The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pinkerton. Congratulations. The family and many friends of Leo Jamieson will be pleased to know that he is recovering nicely from recent surgery at the Georgetown hospital.

Erin twister tears barns

A fierce and brief tornado touched down in the north of Erin Township a week ago Sunday. No one was hurt, however several buildings were damaged.

The path of the small twister ran close to the Erin-East Garafraxa Township borders, between the 8th and 9th line.

Before the winds whipped into the mini-twister there was rain, thunder and lightning. But before the rain residents report an "Almost unnatural calm."

At least one old barn was reduced to a pile of rubble in the storm and at another 75 per cent of the roof went with the wind. Power lines were also cut.

At one home the couple inside said they heard the wind try to wrench the north side of their house from its mooring. "The winds wounded like ten freight trains roaring by," said one man.

One of the chimneys of the 90-year old S.S. 11 school house came down.

Sisters meet again at surprise party

by Mrs. Wilda MacDougall
Friends of Mr. Terry Legate hosted a stag in his honour in the Community Hall.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. Turowski are Jean's Mother, Mrs. Kay Grotenhouse and her friend Mrs. Libby Scott, both from Edmonton, Alberta.
On Saturday night, Mrs. Turowski hosted a surprise birthday party for her aunt, Mrs. Lou Weller of Toronto, in the community hall. About 80 guests were present, some from Texas, Alberta, Br. Columbia, and Toronto. Mrs. Weller was pleasantly surprised to see her sister, Mrs. Grotenhouse, as she had no idea that she was here for a visit.

The ladies lost their ball game to Morrison ladies - score 14-8.
The senior men won their ball game, 4-2, on Monday night against Priors but lost the Thursday night game to Morrison, score 4-1.

The junior ball club had a good game on Wednesday night and won out over Maryhill with a 10-4 score.

The United Church Women held their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Ruth Millson. Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson took the devotional opening with a hymn Suffer Little Children to come unto Me. A reading and discussion on how we can help people who have been in prison, and other races join our society was very interesting. Mrs. Betty Snow took the business period, and it was decided to continue the monthly luncheons in the community hall, starting the first Wednesday in September in lieu of having a Fowl Supper. Mrs. Rene Beattie and Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson will be in charge of

S.P.I.N. the first Saturday in August. Mrs. Freda Thompson thanked the ladies for flowers and cards received in the recent bereavement of her mother. Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson thanked the hostess for the delicious lunch, and all the ladies for a good meeting.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. McKelvie, Arkell, when 24 Friendly Seniors and guests met for a picnic. The salad supper was very appetizing and tasty. A prize for the closest birthday to June 21 was won by Rita Holding and a lucky spot prize was won by Bruce Truscott a guest from Sackville, N.B. The evening was spent playing euchre. The next meeting will be on September 6 in the community hall room.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Roger MacDougall were guests at the wedding of Jane Pargeter and Carl Reed in Acton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Finney of Brampton were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vince Montgomery.

Ebenezer

No services Sundays

by Mrs. Ron McLean

For the next two Sundays, July 2 and July 9, there will be no services at Ebenezer. Sunday School is cancelled during July and August.

Everyone hopes Rev. Russel Finley will be soon able to be released from hospital.

In the absence of Mr. Finley, Horace Blyth had charge of the service on Sunday. He spoke on "Salvation, the greatest of all blessings." Our belief in Christ is not a fair weather faith. It gives victory over despair. The Christians who received Peter's first letter needed help. Peter describes the glories of salvation. Hope is generated in our hearts. The New Testament teaches that at the instant a person believes in Christ he becomes a new creature. Hope is built on a solid basis. Christ's victory over the grave is our guarantee of eternal life. Penalty of our iniquities has been paid in full. Our Christian hope becomes ever more precious.

Our inheritance of a new home that awaits us is incorruptible. The believer's heritage is undefiled. The Glory Land is permanent and unchanging. Our great salvation gives us real and lasting hope, looking forward to eternal life. Peter never really lost his faith, in spite of three denials. Our great salvation explains the meaning of our trials on earth. What we suffer for Christ will bring eternal peace. Temporary periods of trial make our faith free from objectionable elements.

We can clearly see what was dimly seen in the Old Testament, hope, security, victory, knowledge of spiritual truth. Get ready for action. Lives marked by obedience do not cover in fear. We always have God to strengthen and help us.

A good crowd enjoyed the strawberry social put on by the U.C.W.

Limehouse event

Limehouse is planning its own Canada Day celebration, Saturday, July 1. At 3.30 p.m. a parade will travel from Limehouse school over to Memorial hall. There will be games, sing songs and a dance at the hall, as well as a pot luck supper.

Other events will go on in the school yard, while there will be a Scout display in the Scout hall and an exhibition of old pictures, and crafts, both old and new, in Women's Institute hall.

The whole day is sponsored by Limehouse Women's Institute.

Limehouse

Picnic, games on Saturday

by Mrs. A. Benton
Limehouse is a busy place these days.

The cubs camped at the Hannahs' over the week-end. The Sunday School children and their parents picnicked after Sunday's service.

This coming Saturday Dominion Day will be observed with a picnic and games day at the school.

The teachers entertained their mother helpers at a luncheon on Tuesday and a teacher's retirement was enjoyed with a party at the School on Tuesday evening. Rev. W. A. Douglas of Meadowdale was in charge of the service at Limehouse Sunday morning while Rev. Barrow was anniversary preacher at Ospringe. Rev. Llewellyn of Georgetown will preach here during July while the Barrows are on holidays.

Anniversary

The University of Guelph's College of Family and Consumer Studies will mark its 75th anniversary this fall. The College will actually be celebrating the founding of its predecessor, Macdonald Institute, with special lectures.
