

BEAVERS WITH Canadian flags led all the Calithumpians down the street Saturday before noon.

THE GENTLEMAN under the plume will be happy to talk to you about insurance. The lady on the left will be happy to clean your clothes. The people behind will be happy to shout "Happy Birthday Canada."

DECORATED BIKES circled town in the Calithumpian parade and then were judged at the Mill-Main corner.

BACK-TO-ACTON DAYS

The Acton Free Press

Wednesday, July 5, 1978

104th Year--No. 1

Second Section

BEST DRESSED family at the Back to Acton Days celebration on Saturday were the Johnsons. Dressed in costumes of days gone by are Bill Johnson, wife Susan and children LeeAnn and Craig.

COSTUME JUDGES Fred Wright and Pop Main confer, while C. of C. president Jake Kuiken watches.

CLOWNING around... Peter Saxon refreshes the old fire truck.

MAC SPROWL marched along with the parade dressed in costume. Many residents joined in the Calithumpian parade.

REBECCA BATES took first place for the best dressed individual at the Back to Acton Days Calithumpian parade.

Saturday's Parade in Pictures

LEADING THE PARADE are Beavers Todd Oliver, left and Kevin Grubbe. The two started the Glenlea area Calithumpian parade which merged with two others downtown. The parade was one of the many scheduled events carried on for Back to Acton Days.

SPECIAL MESSAGE was carried in the calithumpian parade by Bella Maye Roszell.

CANADA invited Australia out to join the Calithumpian parade.

RECOGNIZE THE pony? It was Santa's reindeer in the Santa Claus parade. Saturday it wore a straw hat instead of antlers. Driver is sometimes Santa Claus Bert Robertson.

THESE NATIVE Canadians took to the streets Saturday for the Calithumpian parade. Beads, braids and war paint were all part of their costume.

