

Greenock celebrates its 30th anniversary

Many former members and friends of Greenock Women's Institute came back on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 27 to celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of their organization.

Mrs. Ralph Sinclair, president, welcomed the guests assisted by the hostesses, Mrs. Wayne Aitken, First Line, Erin, who opened her home for the event.

Attending from Wellington Centre District was the president, Mrs. John Burnett of Belwood and the secretary, Mrs. Elmer Duffield of Speedside.

The Anniversary cake decorated in royal blue with yellow roses was made by Mrs. Ralph Sinclair and decorated by Mrs. Keith Sinclair. It was cut by two life members, Mrs. William Ballentine of Guelph and Miss Elva Pearen of R.R. 3, Acton. Brass candelabra with blue and gold candles were placed at each end of the cake.

During the afternoon members and guests enjoyed visiting and viewing the pages of the Greenock Branch Tweedsmuir Book which was nicely arranged in the fireplace area of the living room.

Tea tables were set up outside on the deck. Pouring tea and coffee were: Mrs. George Wallace of R.R. 4, Rockwood, Mrs. Gordon Johnston, R.R. 3, Acton, and former members Mrs. Hugh Reid of Guelph and Mrs. William Butler of Fergus. Anniversary cake and fresh strawberries were enjoyed on a beautiful, sunny afternoon. Also attending were former members Mrs. Leslie Davidson of Creemore accompanied by Mrs. Lawrence Hemsley, Mrs. Stan Hill of Rockwood, Mrs. William Johnston of Acton and Mrs. Kurt Eckerlich of Georgetown.

Other guests Mrs. Ewart Sinclair and Mrs. Don Hill and daughter Marilee from Owen Sound, Mrs. Lloyd Burt, Mrs. Tom Given, and Mrs. Harvey Burt of Ballinafad Women's Institute, were present along with the local ladies.

On leaving, each lady was given a small plant to take home courtesy of Mrs. Archie Gates.

Greenock Women's Institute was organized January 14, 1948 with 26 members the first year, and now has 25 members.

GREENOCK W.I. LIFE members Mrs. William Ballentine and Miss Elva Pearen prepare to cut the 30th anniversary cake last Tuesday. Overseeing the whole operation is Mrs. Ralph Sinclair, president of the Greenock W.I.

TAG annual meeting

Piano recital held

Trinity Activity Group held a short business meeting in the Chapel at 9 a.m. Thursday, June 22, with an opening poem by the president Dorothy Rogvaldson.

Jean McLean read the minutes of the May meeting. Treasurer's report by Gloria Coats showed debits paid with a nice balance.

Election of new officers starting in September: President Cathy McGilvray; vice president Betty Bowman; secretary Laurie Cook; treasurer Gloria Coats.

The group drove to the Royal Botanical Gardens in Hamilton and to the Plainsman for lunch for their annual outing.

A piano recital was held by Jean McLean's pupils in Trinity United church on June 27. Sally Leatherland announced the numbers. Kim Allain received a prize for the most practice.

The pupils who took part, ranging from Grade 1 to Grade 7, were Kim Allain, Angela Tyler, Sari Davis, Tracey Tyler, Mike Woloshyn and Sandra Splinter.

FIRST CUP of tea at reception in his honor goes to Father James Smye, who is leaving St. Joseph's for Winona. Lucy Petric and Mary Gorjup see that he's offered the best. Letters on the wall read "We'll Miss You." A large crowd attended the reception Sunday afternoon.

Friends-in-Deed enjoy June meeting

The Friends-In-Deed hope everyone had a very enjoyable Canada Day weekend, and the weather was certainly beautiful.

Sen. cit. artists

The following artists displayed their wares in the show case in Acton's public library during Senior Citizen's Week: Mrs. J. Hargrave, James Hennessey, Tom and Jessie Ware, Laura Dittich, Florence Wilkin, Nellie Beatty, Anna Miller and Del and Ed House.

Their last meeting was held on Tuesday June 27 at M.Z. Bennett School, with a good turnout of members. When the various committees were drawn up and following the business, a few games of cards were played, which were enjoyed by all.

A prize was given to Shirley Krantz for the most improved swimmer, congratulations, Shirley, keep up the good work!

A delicious lunch was served by the social committee.

A barbecue will be held on Sunday, Aug. 20 at Ruth Courtney's, R.R. 1, Acton, (Crewmen's Corners), so, members, keep that date in mind.

The group would like to thank all the people who participated in the selling of the tickets, to make it a successful venture for the organization.

The next meeting will be on the last Tuesday in September and they hope everyone has an enjoyable summer, and that your vacation is all you hope for and that you all return home safely, and rested.

The swim program will continue for the summer months, and for those who have difficulty getting in and out of the pool, there is a lift for your benefit and use, so, good swimming to everyone! The time is 10.30 a.m. till noon every Sunday morning.

The Friends in Deed would like to thank Miss Leslie Graham for all the kindness and help she extended to them at the pool and they wish her all the best of good wishes, in her forthcoming marriage.

See you all in September.

Fair ladies reunion Sat.

All present and past members of the ladies' fair board will be gathering together Saturday for a reunion. The occasion: their 20th anniversary.

The reunion will be held at the home of Eleanor Thompson. The board's Heritage Committee has arranged the day, which includes a program, pot luck supper, and special displays of old pictures and books.
