

Draw, plates for town hall

The people who manned the Town Hall Restoration committee booth were delighted at selling 70 plates with the picture of the town hall on Saturday. (They still have more, but have orders for 30 and expect they will have to re-order.) They also sold pictures of the town hall and copies of the feasibility study.

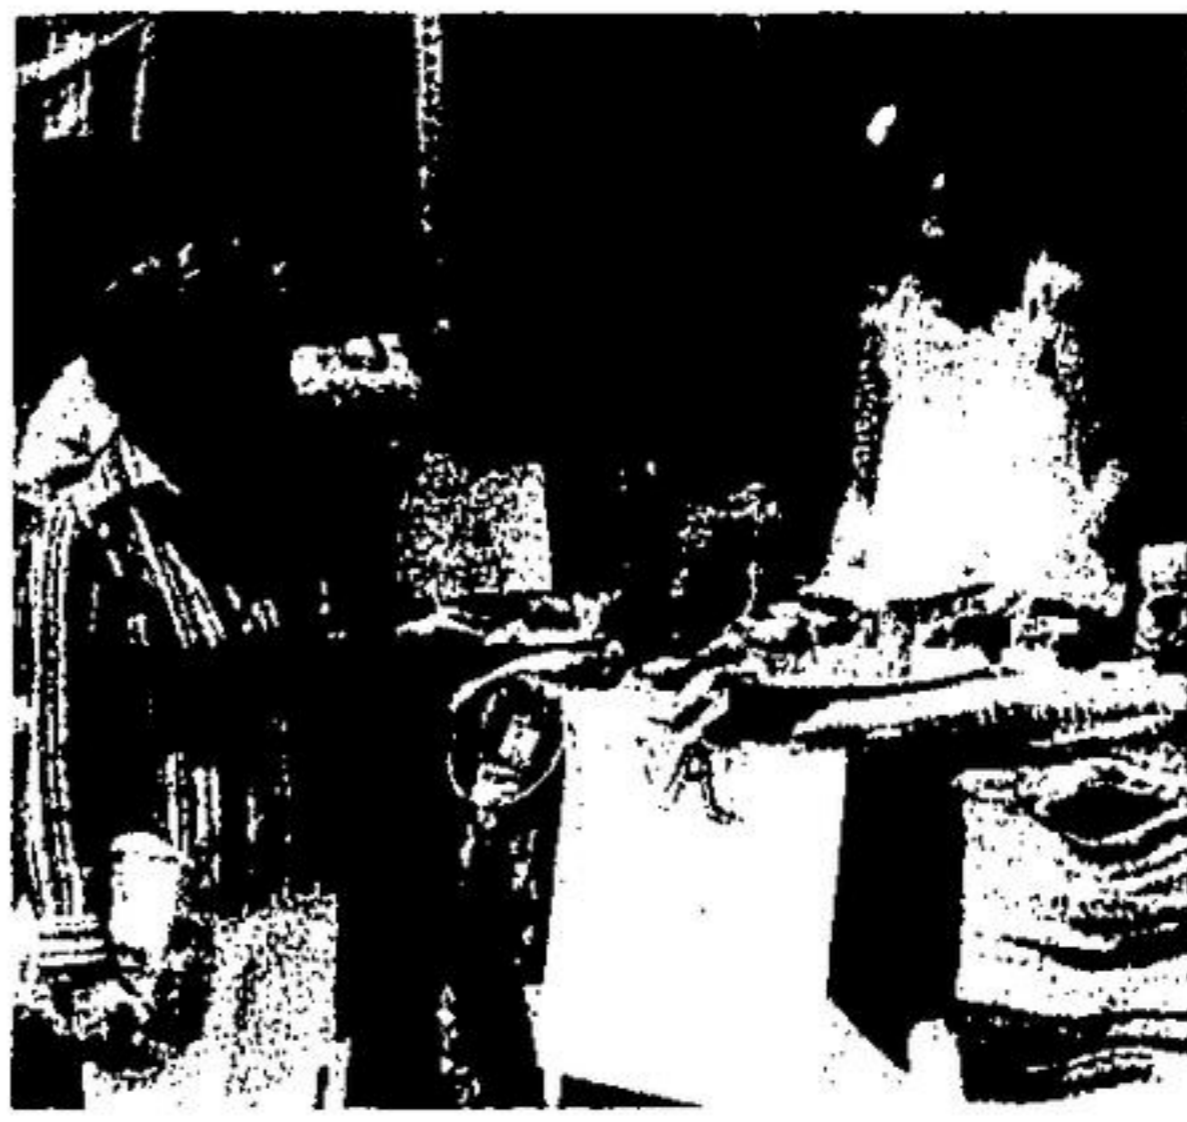

A portion of the cost of each town hall T shirt from J and T Sports also went to the town hall project.

The draw committee's 50-50 draw was made late Monday night, and the winner is Marcel Rousseau of Rexdale, Louis Charlebois sold the winning ticket. Mr. Rousseau gets $226.50, Ed Wood drew the winner's name, coming downtown in his pyjamas to do it. Some merchants will be donating two per cent of Friday's sales to the town hall project. Some who operated booths also will be making a similar donation. St. John ambulance has done so already.

Box company break-in

A cheque writing machine and cash were stolen from the Hornby Box and Pallet Co. on Main Street North last week. Thieves broke the window of the front office and took about $150 in cash.

ADMIRING CRAFTS table Saturday is Dolores Tyler. Val Caissie is the artisan.

Tower break-in

According to police reports, vandals broke into nine buildings at the foot of the transmission towers for the radio station on Sixth Line, Halton Hills on Monday, June 24.

All doors had been forced open and all lights in the towers had been turned off, said police. There was no damage to any equipment.

BACK TO What Days? Back to sleep days. She's Jennifer Goy.

OWNERS' pride and joy, dogs lined up Saturday afternoon seeking Back to Acton Days red ribbons. Dog met dog, cat met cat, dog met cat... you can imagine the scene.
