

Snow - Stansel wedding at Ballinafad United

A double ring ceremony at Ballinafad United Church joined Brenda Lee Stansel and Clare Marshall Snow in marriage on the afternoon of May 6, 1978.

The bride, a hairdresser at Carmen's Coiffure, Georgetown is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stansel, 44 Moultrie Crescent, Georgetown. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. (Bud) Clarence Snow, R.R. 1, Georgetown. He is an auto salesman at McArthur's Auto and Supply in Erin.

Reverend Stiles performed the ceremony. Bob Pinkerton was organist and Paul Swartz soloist.

The bride was given away by her father and was beautiful in a sleeveless gown of nylon organza with a lace trimmed bodice and long, flowing, double flounced train edged in lace. A headpiece of quiana held her fingertip veil, both trimmed with lace daisies.

Completing her ensemble, the bride carried white carnations, stephanotis and greenery.

Matron of honor, Joyce

Stuttard, sister of the bride wore a peasant style dress in yellow and green. Noreen Smith and Robyn Harrison, cousins of the bride and Myrna Snow, sister of the groom were bridesmaids, wearing yellow dresses with yellow and green capes.

Flower girl was the niece of the bride, Kelly Stuttard. All the attendants carried white daisies.

Alan Snow, brother of the groom, was his groomsman. Brothers John and Gregory Snow were ushers along with Bill Stansel, brother of the bride.

The evening reception, dinner and dance held at Georgetown Legion Hall were enjoyed by 200 guests. The bride's mother received in a long green dress with matching cape and a corsage of yellow carnations. The mother of the groom wore a peach dress and cape and a corsage of white carnations.

During the evening Grant Bakes was master of ceremonies. Shirley Coughlan made the wedding cake.

Guests attended the wedding from Thorold, St. Catharines, Cornwall, Smith Falls, Eden Mills, Toronto, New Hamburg, Barrie, Thorubury, Kingston, Erin, Milton, Ballinafad, Chatham, Hillsburgh, Acton, Brampton, Kirkland Lake, Drayton and Vancouver.

Before their marriage showers and presentations were given for the bride and groom by Joyce Stuttard and Carol Stansel sisters of the bride at a kitchen shower; Lydia Snow, Marge Snow and Nan Gates a miscellaneous shower; Noreen Smith and Robyn Harrison, St. Catharines miscellaneous shower; Marg and Ernie Wanless—a presentation of fireplace accessories; Paul and Cathy Waddell, Guelph—a presentation of lawn furniture.

John Snow and Grant Baker gave a stag for the groom at Ballinafad hall.

The newlyweds are living at 20 Dayfoot Drive, Georgetown and plan a honeymoon in January.

BRENDA LEE STANSELL and Clare Marshall Snow exchanged marriage vows at Ballinafad on May 6.

MILDRED RUTH MCKINNON of Milton and Robert Mark Nickle, Acton, exchanged wedding vows in Grace Church in Milton in June.

76 attend Snow family reunion

The 1978 Snow family reunion was held on Sunday, July 17 at the home of Barb and Jim Snow, Pineland Farms, Hornby. The day was sunny and hot. Seventy-six family members attended.

Ed Snow gave the blessing and a moment's silence was held for those who have passed on. A bountiful potluck meal was enjoyed by everyone.

After dinner the president of the reunion committee, Clare Snow called a brief meeting.

Nominations for three new committee members were conducted as follows: Laxton Barry, nominated by Bud Snow, seconded by Stella Snow; Hazel Snow nominated by Evaline Snow, seconded by Annie Gates; Bud Snow, nominated by Diane Snow, declined; Nan Gates, nominated by Nancy Gates, declined and Barb Ware, volunteered.

Those interested in a reunion trip were asked to check off the most appealing of nine offered on the typewritten placemats. Also, if they would like to have the reunion every year or every other year.

The older members Edward Snow, Lloyd and Lola Marshall, Phidela Drouillard, Florence Snow and Margaret Snow received corsages and boutonnieres. Ethyl Dodds the family historian also received a corsage. Ralph Anderson was given his Snow reunion pin as he will be sixty-five in September. Lydia Snow has an interesting bit of information on the origination of the Snow name, which was first known in Great Britain, in 1221. She also asked that the genealogy sheets distributed be completed and returned.

Historian Ethyl Dodds asked that the family send more pictures and notes of interest for the family history album.

In appreciation for the use of their home, Barb and Jim Snow received a tropical plant.

The door prize was won by Lloyd Marshall and the prize for the person coming the furthest was for Elva McKewan of Bothwell. These prizes were Provincial Lottery tickets. Timothy James Ware, five days old took the prize piggy bank for the youngest attending. The remainder of the day member, Timothy is the son was spent playing ball, of Barb and Jim Ware of sunning, swimming and Acton, chatting.

Southern honeymoon for Nickle - McKinnon

Grace Anglican Church was the setting for the wedding of Mildred Ruth McKinnon, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McKinnon of Milton, and Robert Mark Nickle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nickle of Acton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lace veil worn by her aunt Mrs. Cliff McDonald on her wedding day, to complement her white lace and nylon over taffeta gown. Jane McKinnon, sister of the bride was maid of honor and bridesmaids were a friend Gail Carrol of Milton, sister of the bride Jo-Ann McKinnon and the groom's sister Toni Nickle of Acton.

Rev. Stuart Watson officiated at the double ring ceremony. Best man was Henry Brink, a friend of the groom. Ushers were Colin Best, a friend of the bride, and Tony Beakman and Terry Powers, friends of the groom. Robert Argall was organist.

The bride's grandmother Mrs. Nellie McKinnon attended the wedding. Another grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Harris of Kilbride was unable to attend but the bridal party travelled to her home to visit her.

A dinner was held for 155 guests at Holy Rosary Parish Hall, catered to by the ladies of the parish. Rev. Watson asked the blessing. Bert Stewart, a friend of the bride's family, was master of ceremonies and Donald Harris, cousin of the bride, proposed a toast to the bride. Henry Brink toasted the bridesmaids and Sam Harrop, a close friend of the bride's family, proposed the toast to the parents and grandparents.

Mr. Harrison, friend of the groom's family, spoke on behalf of the groom and Stan Allen spoke briefly for the bride.

The wedding cake was made by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. Stan Price.

Following the dinner, dancing was enjoyed.

The newlyweds travelled south and returned to reside in Milton.

Prior to the wedding, showers were given by Mrs. Freda Best, Mrs. Robert Lee, Mrs. Cliff McDonald and Mrs. Donald Harris; Mary Curtis, Joanne Firth and Linda Beatty; Mrs. Nickle and daughter Toni; also Jo-Ann and Jane McKinnon.

A trousseau tea was held at the home of the bride, with her grandmother Mrs. Nellie McKinnon, aunt and Godmother Mrs. Cliff McDonald, Freda Best and Norma Harrop among those pouring tea. Also helping were Mrs. Colin Bennell, Carol Meadows, Linda Bennell, Mrs. Gordon Newell, Nancy McKinnon, Nancy McKenzie and Mary Curtis.

Golden Age club plan Sparrow Lake trip

The regular afternoon meeting of the Golden Age Club was held with Bert Davidson as chairman. The meeting was opened by singing O Canada and the theme song.

Secretary's report was read and the adoption moved by Jean Precious seconded by Annie Lambert. The treasurer's report was read and moved by Lena Mann, seconded by Mae Fountain. Two minutes silence was observed for Mr. Smith.

Mrs. Berry explained a bus trip and dinner to Sparrow Lake. The bus is to leave Laxton Hall at 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, July 19.

It was moved by Joe Berry and seconded by Willard Britton that they adjourn to play euchre.

Mistake

Oops! We goofed. In last week's Free Press, we ran a wedding story on the recent marriage of Lillian Walls and Oburn McAfee. The story said the bride's son the Rev. Douglas G. Hanscomb of Nashville officiated, which was true. However, Acton's Rev. Das Sydney also officiated at the wedding nuptials which we failed to mention. The Free Press apologizes for any embarrassment this might have caused.

Bolton-Holman wed in Oustic

St. Peter's church in Oustic was the scene of the June 10 wedding of Kathy Anne Holman and Danny Herbert Bolton both of Rockwood.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holman, R.R. 1, Rockwood. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bolton also of Rockwood.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father Joseph Holman. She wore the bridal dress worn by her mother at her wedding 20 years ago. The bride had a fingertip veil and carried silk coral roses mixed with baby's breath.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister Mary Nightingale. Marlene Tarzwell and Diane Seim, nieces of the groom were the bridesmaids. The attendants all wore mint green dresses with chiffon capes and picture hats.

Bestman was David Drexler of Rockwood. Brother of the groom Paul Bolton and brother of the bride Paul Holman were the ushers at the wedding.

The double-ring ceremony was officiated by the Rev. A. J. Olinisky. Soloist was Joe McCann. Following the ceremony a reception was held at Rockmosa Community Centre. Guests totalling 120 attended the reception. Out of town guests came from Arthur, Rexdale, Fergus, Arris and Guelph. Bridesmaid Diane Seim flew in from Frobisher Bay in the North West territories.

Master of ceremonies at the reception was Wilfred Hauser from Guelph.

Before the wedding the bride was honored with five showers. A kitchen shower was given by the matron of honor and bridesmaids at the home of Valerie Samuel. A miscellaneous shower was given by Brown Owl Ellen Thomson with the first Rockwood Brownies and mothers as guests. A miscellaneous shower was also given by sisters of the groom and friends Anne Drexler at the home of Leona Kingsbury. Sue Nightingale of Rockwood was the hostess for a shower given by the staff of Zellers in Willow West Mall. Also a miscellaneous shower was given by Vera and Marlene Tarzwell with residents of the fifth line as guests.

Welcome families

Welcome Wagon hostess Linda Franklin was happy to welcome eight new families in the month of July.

New to town from England are Mr. and Mrs. R. Leech and their two children. From Georgetown Mrs. Franklin welcomed Mr. and Mrs. K. Crosby and their three children.

Moving into town from Penetang are Mr. and Mrs. J. Trimble and from Owen Sound Mr. and Mrs. H. Camp. Mr. and Mrs. Atherton formerly of Leamington are new to town. Other new residents include Mr. and Mrs. P. Wall from London, Mr. and Mrs. Henshaw from Milton and Mr. and Mrs. McLean recently moved from Oakville.

Rain

The last rainfall was on Monday, July 3. It's badly needed by gardeners and farmers.

The Disturbing Demotion Of Ron Kearns

With the pendulum beginning to swing to the right in our "post-permissive" society, ARE WE IN DANGER OF SUPPRESSING HUMAN RIGHTS, AND VIOLATING HUMAN DIGNITY BY THE IMPOSITION ON TEACHERS AND PARENTS OF THE FALSE VALUES OF THE SECULAR TYRANNY WHICH DOMINATES THE ONTARIO PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM?

Should former Halton school principal RON KEARNS, found innocent in an Ontario court of law on a criminal charge which had been laid against him under the Narcotics Act, be subsequently DEMOTED and "FINED" $10,000 annually, WITHOUT A HEARING under the Ontario public school system? It may be that the courtroom revelations of Mr. Kearns' personal lifestyle disqualify him for service as a principal in the public school system. BUT HIS DEMOTION WITHOUT A HEARING DEMONSTRATES THE FRIGHTENING TOTALITARIANISM WHICH THREATENS, AS WELL, THE JOB SECURITY OF THE FINEST EDUCATORS WHOSE RESPONSIVENESS TO PARENTAL CONCERNS PUTS THEM OUT OF STEP WITH THE DICTATES OF THE SELF-SERVING BUREAUCRATS WHO ARBITRARILY MAKE THE DECISIONS BY WHICH THE MONOLITHIC ONTARIO PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM IS RULED.

Even "dissidents" in Russia are at least given a "public hearing" so that all the world may judge the character of the Communist system of injustice! But not so under the Ontario public school system where "dissident parents" can be libelled as liars, without a hearing, (as in the motion of censure passed by the previous Halton Board of Education against the Renaissance Committee); or a "dissident principal" may be forced from the system, to make his living feeding pigs, (as is the case of Halton Regional Councillor Jim Watson).

HEAR: KEN CAMPBELL, founder of Renaissance, sponsor and "host" of the trans-Canada "Christian Liberation Crusade" featuring pro-family crusader, singer ANITA BRYANT, DISCUSS THE DEHUMANIZING, DEGRADING, AND DESTRUCTIVE SOCIAL IMPACT OF THE ONTARIO PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM, in the evening message of his all day theme: "CHRIST, THE DISTURBER" (Matthew 10:33-39), at the Lord's Day services of EMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH, Commercial St., Milton, Ontario, SUNDAY, JULY 23, 11 A.M. and 7 P.M. NEEDED: ALTERNATIVES TO THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS, WITH ECONOMIC JUSTICE! — A question period will follow the evening service at 8.30 P.M. to which the public is invited, to discuss equal educational opportunity for all, in alternatives to the grossly undemocratic, — and in our pluralistic society, — crudely archaic public school system.
