

Farrow scores in 12th to end GIFL all-star tilt

NORM TOPPING of Acton unleashes a pitch against Team B in the first Georgetown In-Town Fastball League all-star game Sunday afternoon. Topping helped chuck Team A to a 5-4 win in 12 innings.

Wayne Farrow scored on a passed ball with two out in the bottom of the 12th inning, Sunday afternoon, to give Team "A" a 5-4 win over Team "B" in the 1st annual Georgetown Industrial Past-ball League all-star game. Players, who made the GIFL's 1st and 2nd all-star teams in voting by team reps, suited up for Team "A". Team "B" was made up of players voted to the 2nd and 4th all-star squads.

Cunningham pitched the first six innings for Team "B", holding Team "A" sluggers to just five hits until the 12th inning rally. He forced the game into extra innings by singling home a pair of Team "B" runs with one out in the top of the 9th. Blake Sherrill, who singled, and Tim McChesney, who doubled, scored on Cunningham's hit.

Anderson doubled in both his trips to the plate as starting pitcher for Team "A". His two baggers in the 12th inning scored Rob Hatcher of Hewayay and Hay Ingalls of Harley Motors with the first two Team "A" runs. Both had shared the game's MVP award with centre fielder Doug Anderson of Harley Motors, a Team "A" member. Bob Marchand and Bob Wray made the presentations following the game.

Reith McKinnon worked the middle three frames giving up five hits. Horby's Mark Curtis started for Team "B", loev Deforest of Limehouse pitched in relief before Cunningham came on to finish up. Four players, Farrow, Standbridge of Acton Merchants collected two hits apiece for Team "A". Gene Ingalls of Park Toyota, the only player to play the entire game, had two hits for Team "B".

League President Bryan Lewis reports the game attracted approximately 300 fans. Only a couple of players named to the team failed to show without notifying the league.

Umpires for the game were Barry Jenkins, Ken Noakes, Glen Cooper and Jack Norman.

Rockwood bantam girls take Glen title

Sharon Coverdale of the Rockwood bantam girls came through with the biggest blow of the tournament, belting the Glen 10-8 in the first game, which drew a 4-3 win over Hillsburgh.

Rockwood, which was outlaid 6-8 by the burgers, had loaded the bases on walk.

by Rick Kilpatrick

July 19 House League - Squirt
Angels vs. Erasmosa 3-1
A good even game until the second half when Erasmosa pulled away from Angels with three well taken goals, Angels just couldn't find the net.

Erasmosa vs. Ajax 6-0
This game was a lot more even than the score suggests. Erasmosa played good positional soccer and were able to capitalize on their chances.

Leeds vs. Rockwood 1-1
Although Rockwood were playing short-handed they scored the sixth. Particularly impressive was the solo goal by Peter Wright, who is a very good soccer player, who should be playing for our rep team.

July 20 Hillsburgh vs. Wolves 0-0
A disastrous game for Wolves which wrecked their chances of taking the league, they played short-handed but Rockwood were far too strong. Wolves are now sitting their sights on the playoffs.

Intercountry soccer plans all-star game

by Rick Kilpatrick

Richmond Hill United, an outstanding 1st division team from the Barrie and District Soccer League will be the visitors for the 1st annual all-star game of the Intercountry Soccer League. The game is scheduled for Cedarvale, Tuesday, August 1 at 7:30 p.m.

A preliminary 17 man roster has been selected from seven of the Intercountry's eight teams and clubs, who feel they have worthy candidates, are invited to send them to a workout at Cedarvale tomorrow (Thursday) night at 7:30 p.m.

Charlie Kneppel and John Campbell have been selected to represent the defending league champion Georgetown Motors, while Mitch Jeffrey and Bill Kamrath of Pineview have also made the team.

The all-stars will play the Georgetown Silver's Falcons "B" squad, which has three all-stars, Leooson and Ken Chapman. Steve and Colin Foster have been chosen to represent the Brampton ATC team.

John Tomp, Jim Canlan and Bill Walker of Olympia have made the all-star squad, along with Erwin Schandmeier and John DeVries of the Georgetown Eagles and Peter Comstie, Reg Knight and Carl Fisk of Acton Villa.

So far, Ajax is the only team not represented on the all-star team.

Fans are encouraged to come out and watch the game. The Richmond Hill team has several, highly-skilled, English players in its lineup.

The all-stars will play the Georgetown Silver's Falcons "A" team of the Toronto and District 2nd division in a warmup game at Cedarvale, Sunday morning.

Family girls

Family Restaurant peewee girls continue to dominate the Halton Rural Softball League as they dumped an inferior Omagh team 4-2 last Wednesday.

The peewees belted out 16 runs in the first inning as each girl came to the plate twice. Ten more runs came across the plate in the second and third innings.

Acton's worst inning the night was in the bottom of the 4th when they counted three runs. The girls were led by Teresa Dunn who pitched three times, while Julie Carline was the big slugger with two home runs.

Single homers went to Sally Briggs and Nancy George.

Teressa Dunn was the winning pitcher, while Kim White was the big slugger with two home runs.
