

THE REV. NOBLE Dean and his daughter Tesha have recently moved to Erin with wife and mother Brenda, Rev. Noble is minister in Erin Knox Presbyterian and Ospringe church.

Eramosa against stopping GO bus

by Barb Wynneck

Council will oppose the moves of transport authorities to reduce the GO Bus service through Rockwood.

This is a convenient service, mostly used by residents wishing to travel to but feel that the bus is a either Acton or Guelph, leav- necessary convenience.

Fergus awes highlanders

A crowd of about 30,000 tastic' and 'exceptional' toawed athletes at this year's Fergus Highland Games according to games chairman Jack Campbell.

The attendance failed to break the high mark of 32,000 however, other records wereset. For example about 400 dancers took part and 55 bands competed.

Games officials employed words such as 'great', 'fan- Eramosa council holds

Caledon fire guts home

Fire gutted a 180-year-old house to the tune of about $100,000 on 34 Sideroad near the Second Line West in Caledon recently.

Firefighters from Inglewood and Cheltenham were able to save part of the original house, though many antiques were destroyed. The house belongs to Sidney Klotz. No one was home when the fire started.

Sideroad 5

line on sewer requests by Barb Wynneck Requests for extension of water and sewer services, beyond the present Rockwood boundaries will not be considered by Eramosa Town-ing the village mid-morning and returning in the afternoon. Fewer people use the bus as a commuter system to Council filed no complaint when the train service to Rockwood was discontinued, describe the outcome of the games had little to do with dancing or competitions.

Approximately 12,400 bottles of beer were consumed at the Rotary Club's tent.

Another record set for the ship Council. Deputy reeve Holman Jr. remarked that the extension of services is a peren nial planning problem. Council members agreed that is unfortunate that When city folks come for a visit and consider our life peaceful and uneventful. I take them for a drive along un-

The last time our Agincourt friends were here and we treked to Aberfoyle Market I took them via sideroad for the scenery. Parts of the road was oiled or semi-paved but every once in a while we'd fly off the pavement into a section of "Whoops, we ran out of road," I'd sing gaily, snapping the "Jenny!" my friends would gasp, "Where are you taking Whoops-what fell off? Unpaved roads teach you how to drive well. They keep you alert and defensive. I learned to drive on country roads and it only took me two tries to get my license. Of course, the fact that I took my test in our old farm truck bouncing happily along unfamiliar paved city streets covering the sour old tester with dust (from INSIDE the truck) may have had Unfortunately, country roads are not so good for ears. We are told our roads would be better if we paid more taxes-we

But I'd really rather pay more for road repair than car

At the moment all three of our vehicles are suffering from sideroaditis so my opinions are somewhat colored. My beautiful gold Mustang of which I'm extremely fond, has suddenly had all his innards shaken out. Considering that his outards are in remarkably good shape I can only blame the roads on which he has to travel. Heavens-two complete Thingamabobs and boing-boings The other day, Erica and I were puddle-jumping down Third Line in the old truck (my Mustang was on blocks-see above paragraph) when it suddenly started to roar like a poked bull. I shot a look in the mirror in time to see the Round we galopped making the most awful noises and headed the muffler off at the pass. Leaping out of the cab I found it too hot to handle. Back to the truck and I shuffled around behind the seat where Mack keeps all his treasures.

Sure enough there was a pair of greasy shorts to wrap the muffler in. Cradling the swathed muffler and placing it lovingly in the back, we roared home. Erica collapsed in a

"Mom, nobody'd ever believe the things that happen to She's probably right. I'm always losing bits of car on the road, sometimes hubcaps pop into the ditch and then I'm Think I'll invent something that won't fall apart on side-roads-something without wheels yet with the ability to progress smoothly over obstacles and around potholes.

Something enjoyable and safe that heals itself. Think I'll call really worried-the hubcap holds the wheel on, you know.

muffler gathering no moss down Churchill mountain.

paved roads. Sure changes their minds in a hurry.

gravel and potholes-you know the type of road.

something to do with me failing the first test.

only get what we pay for, etc. True. True.

exhaust systems inside one year?

giggling heap—

wheel to avoid the worst of the lumps.

the public sewer systems.

Environment (MOE) will be contacted by council to deal

Erin hopes to nail vandals

New minister

from Toronto

Presbyterian

byterian church in Erin and and their 17-month-old moved to Erin from Toronto.

The two churches are his first congregations, having just singles, doubles, and mixed doubles.

Andersons on Clara Street.

handling and obedience will be held at Ballinafad com-

The Grand River Conservation Authority (GRCA) has budgeted about $8,000 this year for fencing parts of the

The GRCA is looking to fence all way around its park limits may not benefit from services. However, township costs must be considered and a firm policy established,

The details of the water and sewer by-law will be strictly enforced. Any septic tanks, cesspools and similar private sewage disposal facilities shall be cleaned, filled, removed or destroyed within a period of 10 days after the connection has been made to

Elora gorge

Elora gorge.

property.

they agreed.

to be fenced church.

sessions

The Rev. Noble Dean is the Divinity from Knox College, new minister at Burns Pres- Toronto. He also has a Bache-

Rev. Dean, his wife Brenda to continue working with the daughter Tesha have recently attend college or university in graduated with a Masters of group home in Toronto.

coming tournaments

by Barb Wynneck

It is time to be thinking of partners for the upcoming tournaments. Cooler weather means more comfortable practice

September 23 is the date for the Junior Tournament,

The adults will take over the courts for tournaments on September 30 and October 1. There will also be singles, de bles, and mixed doubles categories. One may sign up for these tournaments on the sheet posted at the court bulletin board. For further information call Anna Maria Bell at 856-

The tennis club executive will be changing next year. If anyone is interestee in becoming a member they are invited to attend the next executive meeting September 19 at the Dog handling course to A ten-week course in dog munity hall in the fall.

be run in Ballinafad

The tennis season is in full swing on the Rockwood courts.

Tennis players eye

Toronto.

lor of Science in Psychology from the University of emotionally disturbed, or this field. The couple lived with nine retarded children for almost three years in a

Frank Lofranco, his wife,

Darla, and Janet Leveque will be running the course be-

Registration forms have been

The Lofrancos operate a boarding kennels on the Fifth

Line, and are hoping that response to their course will be

Applications for the course can be obtained by calling with problems encountered with water and sewer hook period is over. The MOE promised to assist with operational problems and will now be called upon, remarked drainage trenches have not always been able to find water and sewer pipes where they are supposed to be. Turn on valves have been found to be defective. These problems have resulted in extra costs to homeowners, contractors and the township, according to

Councillor McLend

Contractors

Councillor Masson.

Armbro's guarantee

digging

853-1119 or 833-2693.

good from people in town.

ginning September

Mrs. Dean says she hopes going to crack down", Heeve reeve Council has also asked for

There has been a change in Village secretary Len

Ten semi-finalists will be chosen to compete on Aug. 30 and 3t. Five contestants will go on to compete in the final competition on Sept. 1. The semi-finals and final will take place at 6 p.m. in the main

The newly crowred 1978-79 Ontario Dairy Princess will jects, and this year is a wide variety of age groups gained from these activities become a full-time employee of the Ontario Milk Marketing Board for one year. Her busy Preliminary competitions schedule of activities, as ambassadress for the dairy farmers of Ontario, will take place mainly within the province of Ontario, with visits to Great Britain and the United States.

ROCKWOOD DISTRICT

The Acton Free Press, Acton, Ontario

Wednesday August 23, 1978

Rockwood Hotel owner airs licence views to councillors

by Barb Wynneck

Rockwood Hotel solicitor Brian McCann approached council to ask that two questions regarding the serving of wine, beer and spirits be placed before township voters at November 13 election.

The hotel operates under a dining lounge licence. This means that the hotel's costs thunderstorm.

Eden Mills

by Mrs. Wilda MacDougall

Rev. Carrie Doehring and husband have as their guest.

Miss Jessica Jones of England, who will be with them have returned from a visit

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner

Mrs. Ann Funk and Mr. and

The junior ball team was eliminated by Freelton who Grant Gilbertson is with the

Mrs.George Fleck of Glas-

Kent Tocher heard on international show

Guelph, motored out to Swift wagons and later in the Current, Sask., to attend the evening there was bingo and Funk Family Reunion and other games of chance for the visit with friends and real- adults. The refreshment and some friends attended the Scottish World Featival at Mrs. At Copeland from

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Jennings for a six week visit.

with friends in Sarnia.

the C.N.E. on Thursday.

for food and alcohol must be part time employees. He has could be stopped at 10 p.m. If equal. At the present time $40,000 in renovations. In the more alcohol than food is future he hopes to invest served to meet the patrons' demands. A licence review with the L.C.B.O. has been set up for September 21, according to Mr. McCann.

Free Press

Owner Mr. Ferarro has been operating the business himself during the last eight months. He has 22 full and review, the sale of liquor

EDEN MILLS' BOYS try out the Crown and Anchor Game before the evening fun begins. The Fun Day was a success despite the supper hour

Rain doesn't dampen

G. Stevenson and Mrs. W. and

The weatherman wasn't too co-operative for Fun Fair, but after a brief pause while the thunder, wind and rain took over, the old timers dusted off the ball diamond and resumed their fun game, and the other activities commended. There was a bake table, craft table, pony rides, fish pond, races for children and prizes for the very prettily decorated bikes and booth and hamburg stand bikes and wagons were Laura

Wachal, Scott Turowski,

Andrea Turowski, Amanda

Winners of the decorated were both busy places.

spirits at Fun Fair

Gilbertson.

additional monies, installing a piano bar, renovating upstairs rooms, improving the building's exterior providing more parking, Mr. Ferraro's solicitor advised

The organizers of the Fun

Fair extend their sincere thanks to all who helped in any way to make it a suc-

Mrs. George Campbell of Sundridge is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn

Rawding have had as their guests, Glenn's mother and dad, two sisters and husbands that Anna took to the East Coast a few years ago.

cessfut event.

Bould.

position, and his staff to five, he said.

As a result of the licence this is the permanent catastrophic to the business, according to Mr. McCann. Mr. Ferraro would then close the hotel at 8 p.m. and reduce

One question asked by cou cillor Dave Masson was whether the liquor question

Rockwood village residents. Another question was if the changes in the liquor licence would apply only to establishments in the village or would the changes apply to all township premises serving

Mr. McCann will return to a council meeting on September 5 with more information regarding the vote could be confined only to liquor licence laws.

Minstry

OKs subdivision at Queen Street

by Barb Wynneck

The Ministry of Housing has approved an eight lot subdivision on Queen Street, Rockwood, between Jackson area is serviced with water and Christie Streets. The Scarfe property is known as Rockwood Heights Sub-following points as factors in development.

its decision. The houses will front on an already existing street. There are existing houses opposite the lots. The and sewers. This is a logical area for rounding out and in filling of lots within the village. Local merchants pre-The Ministry gave the sented a petition favoring California visited Mrs. Mile-

Stephanie Lister and Paul

Troplin of Kitchener who were married in Holy Cross Church on Friday afternoon.

The reception was held at Someplace Else, Huttonville.

Portadown, N. Ireland, and Miss Nan McLean of Coler-aine, Northern Ireland were weekend visitors with Mrs.

Miss Peggy Agnew of ham recently.

Congratulations

Limehouse

Sanfords return

by Mrs. Art Benton Mr. and Mrs. William Sanford are home after a trip to New Zealand, Australia and the Orient.

Ed. Ryan is recuperating after removal of a cartilege from his knee a couple of weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cooke and Stephen Cooke of Harriston and Mrs. Stuart Smith and Mrs. E. Crymble of Weston were recent visitors with the A. C. Patterson's.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Guppy of College Park, Maryland and John Glynn, Although living in the midst of bombings and threats, life goes on there as Mr. and Mrs. Bardolph of casually as here.

Brookville in Ontario finals Brookville Peewee girls ville squad with four hits while captured their semi-final Sue Kruk had three hits series of the Ontario amateur including two homers. Denise Softball Association playoffs Kennedy also hit safely three by virtue of a 13-7 win in times.

Springford, Monday night. Kerry Kirton led the Brook- the ORSA finals.

and children from Dartmouth and Kempt. Nova Scotia. Mrs. Anna Wilson had a surprise visit from Mr. and Mrs. Ron Brogan, Katie and Peter of Burlington, Ron was the bus driver on the bus tour

Brookville now moves on to

GRCA buys valley land

The Grand River Conservation Authority is using $4,950,000 of an Ontario government grant to buy 5,500 programs. acres of valley along the Grand River and its tributaries as the first part of a 10-year land purchase HALTON'S DAIRY PRINCESS Holly Hurren of Campbellville will be competing at the Canadian National Exhibition's Ontario Dairy Princess preliminaries this Friday evening at 6 o'clock. She was runner-up to 1977 Dairy Princess Maria Booi last year and her many supporters in Halton will be cheering her on in this year's campaign to win the coveted title.

Erin sucks, according to a they are. vandal who sprayed the verb heavier sentence will be "We're fed up and we're launched, according to the vandalism being done, said won two games in the best "What we want now is the two out of three O.R.S.A. evidence to take them to games; and the senior ball court," the reeve said. The elub lost an O.R.S.A. game to village will take the accused Laidlaw with a score of 7-3. to court, and if the court sentence is too light, in the vil-Eleventh Field Army Regilage's opinion, on appeal for a ment cadets in Grayling, Michigan for two weeks.

gow, Scotland and Mrs. Ron Fleck, Trevor and Suzanna of Missisauga, visited with Mrs.

onto the village's water tower. Village officials posted a $500 reward for information leading to the spray painter and others who have performed acts of vandalism this

Larry MacKenzie said last are vandals, and also that council has a good idea who week. He continued by saying the help of the OPP and resithere are very few people who dents. People must see the the reeve.

Rockwood Roundup

by Barb Wynneck

Medical Centre, Dr. S. A in Guelph General Rospital. Hunt has taken over Dr. Ig. Bours at the Village Office natov's dental practice. Dr. are irregular because of this. Hunt will be in the office Wed- Residents should check by nesdays and Fridays. Dr. telephone to make sure that Hopkins will continue with his personnel is available before Monday and Tuesday ap visiting the office, Contact pointments.

personnel at the Rockwood Hockey is presently a patient any village trustee with, major problems.

on Oprey North, a nationwide broadcast, performed live in Minkler Auditorium

Europe got a chance to hear

Country and Western music Toronto. Some 2000 people sat fans across Canada and in on the audience. Also appearing in the same Hillsburgh's own Kent Tocher show was another country got the chaise lounge.

on CFGM radio Sunday music singer Dallas Harms. Mr. Tocher is well known in Mr. Tocher sang two songs the Acton area for his performances in the area. He is married to the former Catherine Higgins of Acton.

Dairy Princess competes Friday

By Henry J. Stanley Holly Hurren, Halton Dairy

Princess, competes at the CNE on the first day of competition this Friday, Aug. 25. Holly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hurren. R.R. 2 Campbellville. She is a very active 4-H agricultural club member in Halton, having completed 13 4-H promember of the Halton 4-H and to milk dairy cows form will be a valuable asset at the Senior Dairy Calf, Horse and an unusual combination of CNE. Sheep Clubs. She has finished talents! The additional one year at the University of features of knowledge of the Guelph and for the past dairy industry, personality, summer was the Summer poise and appearance are the Extension Assistant at the judging areas for the 23rd Agricultural Office in Milton. Ontario Dairy Princess Com-

Dairy Princess for the past Canadian two years. Last year she was most successful at the CNE, being runner-up to Maria Booi, the present Ontario District Dairy Princesses Dairy Princess.

several supporters from to service clubs, men's and Halton at this competition to women's groups, as well as support Holly.

Holly has been the Halton petition to be held at the Exhibition. Across the province of Ontario, 45 County and have been hard at work It is hoped that there will be during the past year speaking public and high school The ability to speak to a students. The experience > begin on Aug. 25 and will take place daily until Aug. 20. The preliminaries will be held at 6 p.m. in the small judging ring in the east annex of the Coliseum.

ring of the Coliseum.