McLaughlin Group to sponsor Gemini

Georgetown Gemini have announced that S. B. McLaughlin Associates Ltd. will sponsor the Junior "B" hockey club for the 1978-79 season.

"The financial support of the McLaughlin Group is greatly appreciated," Gemini President Bob Thompson said at a press conference called to announce the sponsorship, last week. "This support puts us in a healthy position and allows the club executive to concentrate on the team and work to give our fans good hockey this season."

Ernie Bodnar, vice-president of Ontario operations for McLaughlin and a Georgetown resident, also expressed his satisfaction with his company's involvement with the Gemini club. "Within the limits of our budgets, our corporate policy is to support local volunteer endeavors in those communities where we are doing business or want to do business. In this case, I am pleased because it affords a personal involvement for me in supporting my home club," Bodnar said.

Bodnar would not disclose the amount of financial support his company will be giving the Gemini, but he did emphasize that the McLaughlin donation was not made to assist the Gemini in clearing up their $8000 debt. "We didn't want their money going into paying off their past debt," he said. "They'll still have to put one half of their revenue into operation of the club. The rest may be used to retire the debt."

Gems will use the same sweaters.
