

93 babies compete in fall fair Baby Show

MISS ACTON FALL FAIR Victoria Lenizky presented the red ribbon and trophy to Cheryl Lilley, first place winner in the girls 0-six months class at the fair's Baby Show Saturday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lilley, Rockwood.

A record number of babies were judged at the Acton Fall Fair Baby show on Saturday. A total of 93 boys and girls passed by the judges.

Judges for the day were Mrs. Betty Macdonald, Rochelle Cunningham, Gloria Coats, Sharon Brouwer, Marg Aitken and Kay Mathies. It was their responsibility to judge the infants on health, personality, growth and development. Appropriate dress also helps in the winning decision.

Prizes for the winners were donated by Acton Pharmacy, Acton IGA, Greenock Women's Institute, Dublin Women's Institute, Bannockburn Women's Institute, Toddlers to Teens children's wear store and Mrs. E. Lidkea.

David Pearson carried off top prize in the first category, boys' 0-six months. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Pearson, Milton. Second place winner is Ryan Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Elliott, Acton.

In the girls' class, same age group, Cheryl Jennifer Lilley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lilley, Rockwood, won the top spot. Terra McMullen, Acton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry McMullen placed second.

Christopher Coulson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coulson, R.R. 1, Acton, won first prize in the boys' seven to 12 months class. Mark Page, son of Marian Page, Milton is in second place.

In the girls' seven to 12 months, Leah Oakley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Oakley, Guelph, captured the limelight with first place. She was followed by Melissa Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton, Acton, in second place.

In the boys 13 to 18 months division, Michael Keith Cairns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Cairns, Georgetown, took the top spot. Shawn Hilliard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hilliard, Guelph, was second.

Desiree Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett, R.R. 1, Acton won in the girls' group of the same age. Caroline Cosimo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Cosimo, Acton took second place.

For the first year in several, there were no twins. The prize for this category, donated by Mrs. Lidkea will be held over for next year's fair, according to organizer Carmela Cobham.

Maggie Hall was once again the master of ceremonies for the show.

WEE DAVID PEARSEN can't figure out why he is getting all the attention. What he doesn't know is he was chosen best baby boy in the 0 to six month category at the Baby Show Saturday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Pearson of Milton. He was presented with his red ribbon, trophy and gift by Miss Acton Fall Fair Victoria Lenizky. Left to right, second runner-up Dorri Russiani, David and his mother Diane, Victoria, and first runner up Kim Ottaway.

CHRISTOPHER COULSON paid more attention to his new trophy than to the photographer at the fair's Baby Show Saturday. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coulson, R. R. 1, Acton, he won first place in the seven to 12 months age group.

MICHAEL CAIRNS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Cairns, Georgetown toddled off with the top spot in the boys 13 to 18 months class at the Baby show Saturday.

Next week

The pictures and account of the fashion show at the fall fair will appear in next week's Free Press. Other news, left out this week because of the many news articles and pictures on the fair, will appear next week.

Lost, found

Lost and found at the fair: a wallet was lost, found and claimed; there's still a lady's brown jacket left over from the dance; a brief case found at the heavy horse pull has gone to police.

Photography contest good

Winners of the Free Press photography special contest at the fair: Black and white, first $10 John Hogenbirk. Colour, first $10 Clark Somerville, two seconds of $2.50 Leah Youngblut, G. Sanson; five thirds of $1 Eva Sanson, Carmela Cobham, Mrs. Barry Neave, Donna Staves, Paul Youngblut. The number of entries was the highest ever. There were 44 pictures presented to the judge this year.
