

Four hour fiddling was best show ever

The fiddlers' contest in the arena Saturday night kept the audience in their seats from 6 p.m. until well after 10 p.m. The seats were about three-quarters full.

The best contest ever, it received many favorable comments from contestants and listeners alike.

There was a record number of 33 entries.

Brian Hammond was chairman of the committee which ran the show. For the first time there was a duet competition. The only other show to do this is the famed Shelburne show.

Prize money totalled $1,000. Winners are: Open class Alex Urecko, Toronto; Elizabeth Woods, Fergus; Paddy Curran, Etobicoke.

18 and under Michael Lubinecki, Scarborough; Bruce Woods, Fergus; Jamie Dennis, Cement City, Michigan.

65 and over Tom McQueston, King City; Isaac Mitchell, Guelph; Bruce Black, Oshawa.

Open Class, Dwight Lubinecki, Scarborough; Kendra Woods, Fergus; Walter Munn, Hamilton; Kevin Reger, Elmira.

DUETS WERE A NEW and popular addition to the Fall Fair fiddlers' contest held Saturday evening. Avid listeners packed into the arena to watch the entertaining show. Kendra and Elizabeth Woods were one of the hit duets in the show. The two are from Fergus.

JAMES FLEMING of Port Colbourne was one of many fiddlers taking part in the Acton Fall Fair contest held Saturday evening. Chairman Brian Hammond said the committee was pleased with the contest as were the contestants.

Whim brings winner here

The Acton Rotary Club annual beef draw was won by a Weston man who followed up a whim.

Ed Pope, 46 LaRush Dr., Weston, returned to Acton Saturday to take in what he described as a rural fair. He bought the ticket from Gary Dawkins in the fair grounds.

Mr. Pope told draw organisers he came to the Acton fair after he saw the advertising banner across Mill Street a couple of weeks ago. Mr. Pope was passing through town, and decided then to return.

He has also decided to take the cash—more than $600—rather than the beef.

The lucky ticket, number 0150, was drawn by the new Miss Acton Fall Fair Victoria Lenizky.
