Petric—Blake vows in Toronto ceremony

St. Basil's Roman Catholic church, Toronto, was the setting for the wedding of Penelope Marguerite Blake and Joseph Francis Petric, formerly of Acton, on July 29.

The bride, a teacher for the Scarborough Board of Education is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Blake, formerly of Kandy, Sri Lanka and later London, England. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Petric of Acton, is a free-lance musician in Toronto.

Father Hale and the Rev. Crocker officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Janet Smith, a friend of both the bride and groom, sang "Bist du bei mir", by J.S. Bach.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bridesmaids were dressed in white, excepting their pink and green sashes, making an all white wedding party. They carried bouquets of pink roses.

Hannu Lambert was best man, and Stanley Petric, brother of the groom, was groomsman. They were attended in formal black tuxedos.

The evening reception, dinner and dance were held at Hart House Great Hall, the University of Toronto. All the guests received a carnation at the door following the Slovenian tradition. Guests attended the wedding from Acton, Guelph, Kitchener, Bermuda, Amsterdam, London, England, Boston, Vancouver, Lethbridge, Alberta and Montreal.

The newlyweds travelled north for their honeymoon and returned to reside in Toronto.

PENELOPE MARGUERITE BLAKE and Joseph Francis Petric were married July 29 in Toronto. Guests came from as far away as Bermuda, Amsterdam, England and Vancouver.

Hilts—Wall wed on August 5

Beth Noreen Wall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Wall, 3270 Prospect St., Burlington and Kevin Herbert Hilts, of 301 Queen St. Acton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hilts of Glen Williams were married in Burlington on August 5.

The Rev. Pritchard officiated at the double ring ceremony at Wellington Square church. Mrs. Murr provided the organ music.

The bride is employed at Frank Heller Co., Acton and the groom is with Brants Dry Wall, Toronto.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Brad Kinnear was best man and Don Walls and Brad Hilts were ushers.

Floyd Toole, an uncle of the bride from Ottawa was master of ceremonies at an evening reception at the Continental Hall in Burlington. Special guests were Reg Dove, from Halifax, Nova Scotia, the bride's grandfather, and the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Woods, of Guelph.

The couple honeymooned in the Midland area.

Area man weds near Stockholm

An R.R. 4, Rockwood family got a taste of Swedish wedding customs on August 19 when Brian Thomas Storey and Martina Maria Anderson were married.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson and is from a small town near Stockholm, Sweden. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Storey, R.R. 4, Rockwood.

The wedding ceremony took place in a small country church near Stockholm. The church was built in 1711.

In contrast to a North American wedding, the bride and groom escorted each other up the aisle. Upon leaving the church, the bride was given many bouquets of flowers by her girlfriends. A small reception was held at the bride's parents' home.

There was also a reception in Rockwood on September 8 for the newlyweds, for Canadian friends and relatives to meet the bride.

Attending the wedding in Sweden were Mrs. Mary Storey, mother of the groom, his brother Bob and his wife Kay of Guelph and Kay's sister, Patricia Buckles of Cochrane.

The newlyweds are now living in Toronto.

MARTINA MARIA Anderson of Stockholm, Sweden and Brian Thomas Storey of R. R. 4, Rockwood were married August 19 in Sweden. A reception was held September 8 in Rockwood. They are now living in Toronto.
