

Powell—Grant vows in St. Alban's church

St. Alban's Anglican church, Acton was the setting for the August 19 wedding of Carol Grant and James M. Powell. The Rev. L. Ewing officiated and Mrs. Oakes provided the organ music.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grant of Corunna, Ontario, (near Sarnia) and formerly of Acton. She is a student at Sir Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo. James is the son of Mrs. Doris Powell of Napanee, Ontario. He is a television technician at Ryder's TV in Georgetown.

Following the ceremony, the couple signed the register in front of the guests.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin with an empire waist and cathedral train. The bodice was lace covered, complemented by long sleeves of lace with a ruffled cuff, and a scoop neck with scalloped ruffle. The pleated skirt was also ruffled at the bottom. Her lace veil was held by a floral headpiece. She carried a cascade of coral roses and ivy leaves. Carol made her wedding gown and veil. She also wore her maternal grandmother's diamond engagement ring.

Mary Louise Cayer, a friend and former teacher of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a green crepe dress with a floral cape and white hat. Sharon Sweeney was the bridesmaid wearing a similar gown to that of the matron of honor, but of pink. Flowergirl Jennifer Sanford, a friend, wore a pink floral dress like the bride's. All carried pink and white daisy-like bouquets. The bride made the bridesmaid's gown and the matron of honor made her dress. The flowergirl's mother made her daughter's dress.

Best man for the occasion was Walter Noble, a friend from Acton. Don Reynolds, another friend from Kingston, and Ronald Grant, the bride's brother, from Corunna, were ushers.

An evening buffet reception and dance were held at the Acton Meadows Golf Club.

Special guests at the wedding were: the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Rheta Sweeney from Milton Manor and Mrs. William Grant from Orangeville; and special friends from Huntsville, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wissing, formerly from Acton.

The newlyweds made their home in Kitchener after a honeymoon to Vancouver and Nanaimo, British Columbia.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH was the setting for the July 22 wedding of Debra Ann Clayton and John Edward Tyers. They are now living at 200 Churchill Rd.

Quebec honeymoon after July 22 wedding

A honeymoon to Quebec City and the east coast followed the July 22 wedding of Debra Ann Clayton and John Edward Tyers.

The ceremony was held in St. Joseph's church with Father Leo Speagle officiating and Mrs. Pat Salt providing the organ music. It was a double ring ceremony.

The bride, of 21 Wilton Drive, Brampton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Clayton, 40 Maria St., Apt. 40, Acton. She is a nurse at Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tyers, 160 Main St., S. He is employed with Wood's Freezer Company, Guelph.

For her wedding day, Debra wore a traditional full-length gown with a deep ruffled hem, lace embroidered sheer neckline edged with a ruffled trim, and sheer sleeves. She carried a bouquet of orange roses and white chrysanthemums.

Mary Barrett of Mississauga was her friend's matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sherrie Clayton, the bride's sister of Acton, Miss Maryann Tyers, the groom's sister of Acton and Mrs. Betty Ann Coughlan, a friend of the bride's from Brampton.

They wore chiffon gowns, the matron of honor in yellow and bridesmaids in orange. They carried bouquets of orange, yellow and white carnations and chrysanthemums.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, Gary Milton of Acton was best man. Ushers were Peter Milton, Paul Tyers, the groom's brother and Kevin Maroux, all of Acton.

A dinner and dance was held at the Acton Band Hall. The cake was made by the bride's mother and grandmother and decorated by Mrs. Mansel Nelles.

Showers were hosted by: the groom's mother; the matron of honor; the groom's aunt, Mrs. Louise Papillon; the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elgin Cunningham; and Mrs. Ruth Weislogel, a fellow nurse, for the girls in the maternity ward of the Peel Memorial hospital. The rehearsal party was held by the groom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tyers are now living at 200 Churchill Rd.

HOONEYMOON IN British Columbia followed the marriage of Carol Grant and James Powell on August 19 in St. Alban's Church. The bride is formerly of Acton, and is a graduate of Acton High School.

Perkins—Creasey wed in summer

St. Alban's Anglican church was the setting for the July 15 wedding of Sharon Louise Creasey and Kevin Scott Perkins.

The Rev. J. Maxwell was the officiating minister with Mrs. Betty Oakes as organist. The bride is the daughter of John and Margaret Creasey, 274 Elmore Drive, and is employed with the Town of Halton Hills. The groom, of 43 Maria St., is the son of Tom Perkins and the late Freda Perkins, R.R. 1, Acton. He works at Beardmore and Co.

For her wedding day, Sharon chose an ivory gown with matching hooded cape. She carried a colonial bouquet of talisman roses and white stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Cathy Field, a friend from Grand Valley. The bride's sister, Linda Creasey of Acton was bridesmaid. They both wore peach gowns with matching shawls and carried colonial bouquets of talisman roses and white carnations.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father.

Michael Field, a friend from Grand Valley, was best man for the occasion. Ushers were Cliff Creasey, the bride's brother, and Craig Perkins, the groom's brother, both of Acton. The men all wore brown tuxedos.

At a dinner and dance held at the Acton Music Centre, Mrs. Creasey received her guests wearing a blue gown with matching cape and a corsage of pink carnations.

Peter Homer, of Acton, was master of ceremonies. The wedding cake was made by the bride's mother and decorated by Mrs. M. Nelles.

There were several special guests at the wedding. They were: the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. Penrice of Guelph; the bride's grandfather, J. Creasey of Milton; the bride's great aunt, Mrs. M. McEdwards of Morrison; the bride's great-great aunt, Mrs. F. Fielding of Puslinch; the groom's grandmother, Mrs. C. Perkins, of Acton; the groom's grandfather, I. Harris of Milton. Other guests attended from the United States, Toronto, Guelph, Gravenhurst, Beeton, Puslinch, Morrison, Milton, Burlington, Blyth and Acton.

Bridal showers were hosted by: Mrs. Cathy Field at the home of her mother, Mrs. Harry Lawson (miscellaneous); Mrs. Ken Fryer, Mrs. Lloyd Broostad and Andrea Broostad, at the home of Mrs. Fryer, (miscellaneous); fellow workers from the town office, hosted by Mrs. Joyce Pickles, Acton, (miscellaneous); family shower by relatives of the bride hosted by Mrs. Robert Penrice and Mrs. Jean Corlett of Puslinch (miscellaneous).

For leaving on a honeymoon trip to Gravenhurst, the bride wore a burgundy and beige suit with an orchid corsage. They have made their home at 43 Maria St.

SHARON CREASEY and Kevin Perkins were married in St. Alban's Anglican church July 15. After a honeymoon in Gravenhurst, they made their home at 43 Maria St.
