

TALENTED LOCAL musician Jim Gordon on banjo and Dennis DiSaro of Albany N.Y., on guitar were lively Saturday night entertainers on St. John's Church Green in Rockwood.

year—the Beaners—the youngest scouting group which is for boys five to seven years old. This new Colony has 18 boys registered so far and they have four leaders. We certainly welcome them to Limehouse and wish them success with their group. Contact leader there will be Glenda Benton: 877-2101.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Booth have returned from a visit with their daughter and household at Vancouver.

We will not be seeing the Carline and Moore families in the village. They have sold their property and left for England on Saturday.

Mrs. Patterson visited her sister Mrs. S. Smith at Weston, who is now a patient at Etobicoke hospital.

Limehouse Presbyterian church observed 117th anniversary on Sept. 24 with the Rev. J.W. McBride preaching at services morning and evening. The Rev. Peter Barrow conducted the services. The Rev. McBride, a splendid speaker, entitled his sermons "Frock Coat or Moccasins" and "Unsearchable Niches". The choir, led by Mrs. Bert Benton with Mrs. Roughley at the organ sang four much enjoyed anthems. Lunch was served in the evening.

The 1978-79 scouting season has begun in Limehouse. Cub and scout registration night was held Sept. 13 with a Group Committee meeting after. The Group Committee will be continuing its paper drive every month as well as continuing the improvements in the Scout Hut. Ballinafad

Presbytery conference

by Walfred Smith
Ministers and delegates from Wellington-Peel Presbytery met for their fall conference at Ballinafad United Church on Wednesday morning of last week. The U.C.W. catered for the noon luncheon. There were about 60 present to enjoy the hot casserole dishes, salad and dessert.

The community was saddened over the weekend when they learned of the death of a long time resident of Ballinafad, Mrs. Margaret McEnery. Mrs. McEnery was in her 93rd year. We extend sympathy to her sister and brother, grandson, his wife and family as well as many other relatives living in our midst.

The youngsters report a fantastic time on their bus trip down to Toronto to see the Blue Jays play the New York Yankees. They cheered for the Blue Jays and, of course, they won. Many thanks are due the adults that accompanied the young folk.

Many church goers were pleased to meet a former friend and resident of the village, Mrs. Himes. She was waiting to greet her friend Mary Lawr as she came out of church. She spent some time with the Lawr family before returning to her home in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simpson and daughter Trena, of Garson were recent visitors at the Smith farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Miller of Toronto spent Sunday with the Marshalls.

Those attending church on Sunday enjoyed hearing the second sermon of the Beatitudes. The story Mr. Stiles told the children was quite unique, as he had a tape recorder and gave the youngsters an opportunity to hear their voice. They were a bit shy about going up except for two little girls, Jennifer Munro and Patty Brown. The title of the story was "The Voice of Jesus."

World Wide Communion Sunday will be observed next Sunday. A bale for overseas is being packed this week.

Churchill

50 years at stock yards Archie Kerr given silver tray

by J. Turner
Mr. Archie Kerr was the recipient recently of an engraved silver tray commemorating 50 years' affiliation with the Union Stock Yards, Toronto. The presentation was made at a Beef Barbecue Sept. 15 hosted by the company to honour clients of long standing.

Churchill Community Church Women held their first meeting of the season Wednesday evening Sept. 20 at the home of Mrs. Marie Anderson. Mrs. Lydia Kerr gave a devotional study "Peace of Mind" based on John: 17. Plans were made for the Fall Paper Drive to be held Nov. 13, 14 and 15.

Newspapers only will be accepted this time, and they will be collected at the usual location at Turner's Precast Concrete Yard. The ladies also agreed to make cookies and squares for a wedding luncheon in November. At the close of the brief business meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Pantling have returned tanned and well rested from a holiday at Myrtle Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Van Atter, Fenelon Falls spent fall fair weekend with cousins Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Storey, Acton, are spending a few days holidaying with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Storey of Barrie at their cottage at Burke's Falls.

There are still openings for new members in all three classes. All children of the community are welcome.

Our very best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Handy Walker, whose marriage was solemnized Saturday Sept. 23rd in a lovely wedding at Churchill Community Church. The Rev. A.W. Fosbury officiated. The bride is the former Barbara Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnston. Many members of the community attended the wedding here and also the reception and dance at Hespeler.
