

ACTON MAJOR BANTAMS along with all the other all-star minor hockey teams are holding tryouts at the Community Centre on Saturday.

Tigers clawed in non-contact

After walking over Brampton 12-4 in the league opener of the Wellington-Dufferin-Halton Non-Contact Hockey League the Acton Tuffcoats Tigers bit off more than they could chew in the form of the Meadowvale entry Monday night.

Meadowvale controlled the game, gaining a 10-2 win. Al Ayer scored three for Meadowvale, Martin Farrell and Graeme Riddell scored twice each and Drew Stevens, Don Weaver, and Gene Mueller added singles for the winners.

Dynes' name Individuals star in X-country run

Cagers

Draw

A draw for an Afghan was made at Countryside residence on Sept. 9. Winner of the Afghan, made by Mrs. Armstrong of Georgetown, is Gaetan Patenaude.

About 50 friends and relatives of residents attended the party at which the draw was made, and enjoyed a good time together. The proceeds of the draw are for floor hockey equipment for the Countryside residents.

The practise is at Pineview schools on Fridays and desperately need volunteers.
