Arthritis drive is now underway

The Acton Rotary Club is currently in the midst of a fund raising drive for the Arthritis Society. It was announced at that group's regular meeting last Tuesday.

Thefts from cars

A tape deck, radio and coat were stolen from a car parked at a residence on Victoria Ave., according to police. Value was set at $435. A battery was stolen from a car on Maria St., valued at $48.

AVID MONTREAL Canadiens fan Ron McKnight, dispatcher for the works department and well known in area sports, was the embarrassed recipient of a Toronto Maple Leaf t-shirt. The surprise presentation at the Acton Rotary club meeting, last Tuesday was made by Halton Hills councillor Pete Pomeroy. He was speaking to the club members on his North Halton Sports Camp. Mr. McKnight is president of the Rotary club.

Outreach Sale

Over 70 artists and craftspeople will be featured in the 11th annual Outreach Exhibition and Sale of arts, crafts and antiques, to be held Friday, Oct. 20 (10 a.m. to 10 p.m.) in St. John's United Church in Oakville.

Local exhibitors include Melanija Bray of Acton with flowers under glass, and Elizabeth Hoey of Moffat with tiles and silk screens.

Proceeds of the sale are for World Outreach and its many charitable organizations. A total of 35 craft exhibitors, 14 artists, 11 painters, 11 antique dealers and a sculptor are listed as participants.
