

Wallis—Harding wed, honeymoon in Florida

A honeymoon to Clearwater, Florida followed the wedding of Cheryl Ann Harding and George Frederick Wallis, September 9 in Trinity United church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harding, 237 Arthur St., and is employed at Commercial Shearing Ltd. The groom, of 19 Main St. S., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wallis, 24 Young St. He is manager of Wentworth Bulldall, Hamilton.

The Rev. Charles Beaton officiated at the double ring ceremony with George Elliott providing the organ music.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Ann wore a gown of cream colored georgette with a train, a slim skirt and softly gathered sleeves with cuffs. The bodice and high neckline of Valenciennes lace were trimmed with seed pearls. A Juliette headpiece of Valenciennes lace and pearls held a veil of silk French illusion. She carried an arrangement of silk peach colored roses, carnations and baby's breath. A locket given by the bride's paternal grandmother was also worn.

Susan Buchanan, a close friend of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Brenda Harding, and close friend Patricia Schmuki. They all wore mint green gowns with flower arrangements of silk peach colored carnations and baby's breath.

Harry Buchanan, a close friend of both the bride and groom, was best man for the occasion. Ushers were Chris Wallis, brother of the groom, and Don Harding, brother of the bride.

The Acton Y's Menettes catered for a dinner at the Band Hall. It was followed by a dance. The groom's mother, assisted by the bride's mother, made the four layer wedding cake with Mrs. Nellis of Acton decorating it.

Both the bride and groom attended M.Z. Bennett and Acton high schools. The bride went to Sheridan College and the groom attended University of Guelph.

Special guests were the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Alberta Dodgson from Belmont, Ontario, and the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Alberta Fraser from Elora and Mrs. Ella Harding, Acton. Friends and relatives attended from London, Fergus, Elora, Hamilton, Alton, Orangeville and the surrounding area.

Prior to the wedding the bride was guest of honor at many special gatherings. A miscellaneous shower was given by neighbors at the home of Mrs. Marguerite Coon, Acton, and friends of the bride gathered at the home of Mrs. Greta Wedge, of Acton. Sisters-in-law of the groom, Kathy and Nancy Wallis held a shower for the groom's relatives. A Jack and Jill shower was held for the couple by the best man and the matron of honor, Sue and Barry Buchanan, assisted by Pat and Peter Schmuki and

Guest from Holland is wedding surprise

Janet Margaret Vos and Bert Sinkgraven had an unexpected guest at their wedding, September 22—a cousin from Holland.

The couple were married by the Rev. John Cooper in Beth-el Christian Reformed church with C. Pauw providing the organ music and Miss Betty Kamminga as soloist. The bride is the daughter of George and Corry Vos, R.R. 4, Acton. She works in shipping at Beardmore. The groom, an auto mechanic at Keith's Shell in Brampton, is the son of Clarence and Susan Sinkgraven, R.R. 2, Brampton.

Dick Boers from Holland surprised the couple at their wedding. Other special guests were the bride's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Vos of St. Catharines and Mr. and Mrs. Stulp of Guelph.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a gown of white crepe, with a lace-covered bodice and empire waist, and long lace sleeves. A bow at the back flowed into a train. A short veil fell from her Juliette cap. A lace ruffle enhanced her round neckline. The bride carried long red roses and white carnations.

Sue Kuiken, Acton, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Lucy Verhey, Georgetown and Grace Ufkes of Brampton. Their blue crepe gowns were the same style as the bride's, but with big puffy sleeves, made by Mrs. Rika Andringa of Stewarttown. The maid of honor carried blue and white flowers and the bridesmaids candy stripe carnations.

Best man was John Vanderveen of Brampton, a friend of the groom. Richard Sinkgraven, the groom's brother, and Jack Vos, the brides and the best man and ushers wore white jackets, black pants and vests.

At an evening reception and dance at the church basement, the mother of bride received her guests in a sleeveless chiffon gown of peach and pink floral design. A chiffon cape completed the ensemble.

Mike Sinkgraven, the groom's brother, was master of ceremonies.

The newlyweds have made their home at Apt. 508, 40 Maria St., Acton.

The groom's mother and two sisters held a shower for the bride at their home. Sue Kuiken and her mother held a shower in their home and Grace Ufkes had a small shower at her apartment.

September ceremony for McLeod-Green

A three week honeymoon to Florida, California and western Canada followed the wedding of Janet Lynn Green and Glenn Everette McLeod September 30 in Trinity United church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Green, 14 George St. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken McLeod, 31 Columbus Crescent, Guelph.

Peach glads and white mums decorated the church as the Rev. C. Beaton officiated at the double ring service. George Elliott provided the organ music.

The bride's gown was of white chiffon with a key hole neckline, long full sheer sleeves with lace cuffs and lace bodice. A lace and pearl studded headpiece held a matching lace trimmed finger-tip veil. The bride also wore a delicate gold chain with her birthstone, a gift from the groom. She carried a bouquet of peach roses and white miniature carnations.

Maid of honor was Robin Kelly of Acton, a friend. Bridesmaids were Wendy Titus of Acton, a cousin and Donna Spielvogel of Toronto, a friend. Junior bridesmaid was Janet McLeod of Guelph, sister of the groom. Flower girls were April Frazier of Campbellville, cousin of the bride and Katie O'Meara, of Acton, a neighbor.

The maid of honor and the flower girls wore peach gowns and carried bouquets of peach and white miniature carnations. The other attendants wore blue gowns and carried blue and white miniature carnations.

Janet was escorted down the aisle by her father. John Hansen of Acton was best man. Ushers were Ray Green of Acton the bride's brother, and Ken McLeod of Guelph, the groom's brother.

The groom's uncle, Alfred Glazebrook, Acton was master of ceremonies at an evening reception and dance at the Acton Citizens Band Hall.

Special guests were: the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green, Egmondville; the groom's grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Glazebrook, of Acton; the bride's great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Wilds, Paul and Leah Youngblut. The couple are living at 19 Main St. S.

Acton woman's niece weds in Saskatchewan

A double-ring ceremony was held on July 8 in the Nut Mountain, Sask. church when Marlene Doris Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Morrow of Nut Mountain, became the bride of James Leonard Wilson, son of Mrs. Leonard Wilson of New Glasgow, Nova Scotia. The bride is the niece of Doris Cripps of Acton.

Pastor Brodhead of Wadena performed the wedding ceremony. Mrs. Brodhead played the Wedding March as the wedding party entered the church. Jo Ann Hrycak and Lorraine Hope sang "You Light Up My Life" during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was lovely in a crepe de chine gown with daisy trim and Venice lace with ruffled scalloped hemline and ruffled cuffs. A Juliet cap studded in pearls held a fingertip veil with lace trim. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and daisies with greenery and yellow ribbons.

Maid of honor was Shelly Hendren, friend of the bride, and bridesmaid was Carolyn Burnett, sister of the bride. Melody Schwanke was flowergirl. Lloyd Harris of New Glasgow, friend of the groom, was
