Patterson Insulation edges Acton twice by 4-2 scores

Georgetown Patterson Insulation collected their second win in three Wellington-Dufferin-Halton non contact hockey outings with a 4-2 victory over Acton at Alcott arena last Wednesday. Both teams checked closely throughout the game with Tony Drewett and Stan Kruk playing steadily in the Georgetown and Acton nets.

Monday Insulators dumped Acton again 4-2.

The Insulators were paced in their first win by Merve McNamara and Bill Lightowers who both potted a pair of goals. Acton goals were scored by Wayne Monroe and Wayne Hill. Bill Lightowers and John Packer had two assists for Georgetown while Ernie Bodnar helped on a single goal. Acton assists were by Wayne Monroe, Wayne Hill and Rick Ward.

Patterson scored their second 4-2 decision over Acton on Monday night in Acton.

The teams were fairly even throughout and both squads had steady goaltending from Jim Walker and Stan Kruk.

Acton opened the scoring with Rob Paton connecting from Rick Ward. The Insula-tors replied with Peter Thompson scoring with help from Ken Norman and Walter Arbuckle followed by Howie Cornfoot's deflected goal after Bill Bingham set him up. Acton tied the score early in the third period with Trav Clifford connecting with help from Gary Moore.

Patterson put the game away with two unanswered goals later in the third period. John McNally scored the winner on a pass from Mike Marshall. Arbuckle then capped a strong performance with an unassisted goal to salt away the victory.

Marlins sink Cambridge Acton swimmers do well

The Guelph Marlin Aquatic Club hosted its first Golden Region Aquatic Association dual meet for the 1978-79 season. For many swimmers this was their first dual meet on the Guelph Marlin team. Some are new to competitive swimming; while others joined the club bringing experience from another club. With some senior members away at an invitational meet in Etobicoke, the remaining members overwhelmed the Cambridge Aqua Jets, 525.5 points versus 334.5 points. Some Acton area swimmers did extremely well for the Marlins.

Mark Bray took four firsts in the 11-12 boys events and a 3rd in the Open IM for 31 points. Teammate John Vadeika followed with 16 points by placing 3rd in free, 3rd in back, 2nd in breast and 4th in fly. Peter Bray outpaced his teammates and his opponents by swimming firsts in 25m freestyle, 25m back stroke, and 25m fly for 8 and under boys for a total of 21 points.

For the 8 and under girls, Adrienne Kovacs beat her opponents for a first in the fly. Kovacs also placed 3rd in free, back and breast for 19 points.

Vermeulen scores pair as 'Bants' draw opener

The Acton Major Bantams opened their regular season at the Community Centre last night (Tuesday) with a 2-2 tie against New Hamburg.

The Acton team fell behind early in the contest but tied the game on a goal by Rob Vermeulen. Mark Duval picked up an assist on the play.

Acton went ahead at the midway point of the game when Bob Vermeulen's slap shot found the corner.

New Hamburg tied the game at the 40 second mark of the third period.

Both teams missed good scoring opportunities in the remaining nine minutes. Tony Sheppard drew praise from coach Steve Marshall for his aggressive play in the game. Tim Baker went the distance in the Acton nets.

The bantams will play an exhibition game in Caledon on Thursday before resuming league play in Hespeler on Friday.

Home games are scheduled for Tuesday nights at 8.10 p.m.

Juniors lift record Varsity still untouched

The Acton Varsity girls' basketball team moved their record to 6-0 this week while the Junior girls lifted their win total to two against four losses.

The Varsity team took games from M.M. Robinson 29-22 and then in a squeaker edged Milton 35-34.

Merle McNabb led the scoring parade against M.M. Robinson with seven points. Linda Osso netted six. Coach Anne Lepik was pleased with the team effort in the game.

In the Milton contest Karen Chapman led the scoring with ten points. Lynn Margetts and Merle McNabb picked up six each. Sheila Cook was the top rebounder on defense, said Lepik.

Mardie Phillips led the Junior girls to victory with ten points. Kathy Krusch netted six and Donna Robinson four. Defensively coach Lyn McLaren noted Michelle Noble, Nancy Wong and Barb Wilson for their play.

Both teams will be at T.A. Blakelock for important games tomorrow (Thursday). The Juniors are looking for a win to make the play-off picture while the T.A. Blakelock varsity team is undefeated-30
