Area women at U.S. meet

Two members of the Halton Hills synchronized swim team travelled to Washington D.C. over the weekend to participate in the Masters Synchronized Swimming competition.

Anne Pickering, recreation co-ordinator for Georgetown, and Judy Patterson of Hillsburgh, who coaches the Georgetown team were among 60 women, mostly American who entered the event.

Miss Pickering reported she doesn't know how well she and Ms. Patterson did in their four minute duet routine.

Synchronized swimming is a combination of gymnastics and ballet in the water.

Recorder taken from school

A tape recorder, valued at $75, was removed during a break-in at Robert Little public school last week.

Midgets still look for first league win

Acton midgets are still looking for their first win in Waterloo-Wellington league play. Last night (Tuesday) they fell to Woolwich (Elmira) 9-3.

Derek Hodgson scored two first period goals for Acton with Jim Trowbridge and Rob Evans assisting on both. The only other Acton goal came off the stick of Ron Jackson in the second period. Woolwich games and totals from them. The Chinuhuas fought hard to take two games from the Beagles, but the Beagles came back to take one game and totals.

Standings: Bulldogs 17, Chihuahua 12, Pekes 11, Huskies 8, Beagles 8, Shetties 4.

Top Ten: Julie Heatley 322, Peter Mills 614, Teresa Dunn 492, Wade Sheppard 490, Mary McArthur 482, Dennis Lawrence 468, Diane Little 462, Roger Masters 456, Tracy Gordon 455, Barry Manes 448.

Seniors
The Elms grew rapidly to take two games but the Birches slowed them down to take one game and totals. The Redwoods stood straight and tall when they took two games but they were slightly bent when the Pines stole one game and totals from them. The Cedars put the Palms in deep freeze when they took two games and totals from them.

scored four in the first period, once in the second and four unanswered times in the third.

Woolwich took seven of ten penalties called in the game.

The midgets meet Erin in an exhibition encounter Saturday at 2.45 p.m. and then resume league play when they host Fergus next Tuesday at 9.15 p.m.

Atoms open with wins

Acton Major Atoms have started off the 1978-79 season in fine fashion with a pair of exhibition wins over Caledon and their first league win over New Hamburg.

In Acton October 18 Caledon dropped a 4-0 decision, with goals being scored by Brad Demone, Kevin Lobsinger, with a pair, and John Lloyd. Assists were earned by Clinton McMillan, Philip Wedge, Mike Cunningham, Scott Phelan and Gary MacEachern. Goaltenders Brent Connor and Mike Ormsby, shared duties and had a fairly easy time.

The return match in Caledon was much tougher for the two goalies who made some fine saves in a 4-1 Acton win. Caledon opened the scoring but Acton came roaring back with goals by Steve Wagner, Brad Demone, Clinton McMillan and Mike Cunningham. Assists went to Steve Hubbard with two, Gord Mitchell and Scott Phelan.

Acton opened their league schedule October 25, at home with a 4-2 win over New Hamburg. Once again the opposition opened the scoring but Acton made it 3-1 on goals by Brad Demone, Philip Wedge, and John Lloyd, with assists going to Philip Wedge and Gary MacEachern.

New Hamburg closed the gap to 3-2 but an insurance goal by Gary MacEachern assisted by Fred Shea and John Lloyd put the lid on the game. Brent Connor and Mike Ormsby made some fine saves and coach Jim Warren was especially pleased with the defensive work of Steve Wagner and Gord Mitchell.

The Major Atoms will be out tonight (Wednesday) at 7 p.m. to make their record 2-0 when they host Fergus.
