Choir members at "Sound of Music" play

by J. Turner
The fall paper drive sponsored by Churchill C.C. Women is planned for next week, Nov. 13, 14 and 15. Bundles of newspapers (no magazines or cardboard, please) may be left in the storage shed at Turner's Precast Concrete yard next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. We again enlist your support.

The choir members of Churchill Community Church along with a number of parents and friends, attended the Sunday matinee live presentation "The Sound of Music" by Clarkson Music Society, assisted by Oakville Symphony Orchestra. This year's excursion was particularly enjoyable for younger members of the choir, because of the number of children in the cast of this popular musical. Afterwards the choir members went backstage to meet the cast and collect a few autographs.

The homeward trip featured a supper stop, after which they proceeded to prove that you can indeed sing on a full stomach. Denny's Bus Lines provided transportation.

Churchill's youthful choir number is only eight this year, ranging in age from eight to sixteen, but they attend faithfully, enjoy singing together and do a good job at Sunday services. Advent season is fast approaching and Christmas music is being prepared for these special Sundays, and also for the Candlelighting Service Dec. 17. If any boy or girl in the community, who enjoys singing would like to take advantage of the good fellowship and extra music training that choir work provides, they should contact Mrs. J. Turner 853-1501, or any choir member. Choir practice is on Thursday afternoons from 4 to 5 p.m. at the church. Most of the kids come by school bus. Regular attendance at practice and at Sunday 11 a.m. Service is mandatory, of course, but we do manage to have lots of fun times together. Right now the members are looking forward to a busy Christmas season ahead.

It was Communion Sunday at Churchill last week with our pastor the Rev. Jas. L. McFadden officiating. He spoke on the fellowship of the Communion Service. The choir sang "He Careth For Me."

Friends were sorry to hear of the unfortunate highway accident that befell Kerwin McPhail last Friday evening. Kerwin was struck by a vehicle as he walked along the highway in front of his home. He is now in Guelph General Hospital with injuries to right arm and shoulder, and we wish him a speedy and successful recovery.

Scouting movement keeps youngsters busy

by Mrs. Hannah
The Beavers are well underway and seem to be enjoying the programs. They had a Hallowe'en party at one meeting.

The Cubs had a Hallowe'en party too, which was planned by some of the boys themselves. Six of the boys attended a District Sixer and Seconds day held at the Acton Scout Hall. Mike Hannah, John Benton, Byron Cannon, Lee Foster, Ken Field and Stephen Ruggle enjoyed the day which included a craft, game, instruction, films, a walk around Acton and lunch.

Four new Cubs have been invested. Gary Foster, Steven Gallford, Robert Pollard, Chris Burrell and their families were present for the ceremony.

The Scouts attended the Regional Scout Camp held near Speyside, Leathercraft was available to them plus an opportunity to observe and participate in the jamboree-on-the-air which is an annual worldwide event. They also took part in various events put on by each District attending the camp.

The Group Committee held their monthly paper drive the end of October and the next one will be Nov. 25.

Beaver leaders Glenda Benton and Mary Burns and Cub leaders Lynn Ruggle and Robert Foster attended a Part I Wood Badge training course held at the E. C. Drury School in Milton. This is a basic training course for leaders and this year was jointly run by North Halton and Wellington District. Elaine, Doug and Mike Hannah were also there to cook for the 55 people attending the course.

The Limehouse Women's Institute held the November meeting at the home of president Mrs. Booth opening with The Hymn of All Nations and the Collect. Mrs. Hannah reported eight tons of newspapers recently moved out and a multi-sale to be held Dec 2. Roll call—a useful craft taught by our pioneers with samples brought answers from woven garments to lace. Colours were chosen for each to make a 4 inch quilt block by March 1, for District Annual 1979 competition. These could later be joined to complete a quilt. A family dinner with a film to follow was planned for the Dec. meeting and a committee appointed.

Mrs. Sanford read the section "Self Pity" of the Collect for motto. Delegate to the recent area convention, Mrs. F. T. C. Brown gave a splendid report. She told us that Women's Institutes should feel honoured that they were the only organization invited to have their own building at the Halton Museum. The Sr. W. I. workshop, quilting will be Feb. 8 and 9. Invite neighbours to the W. I. They may spark your fire. Convention theme was "Spark, Ignition, Fire."

Dr. Hillard was a special speaker at the evening banquet. He said that God blessed us by having such organizations as the W. I. in the world. Having travelled in many parts of the world, he told of some terrible conditions he saw first hand. He and his wife support two of the many orphaned children. Points brought out during the meetings included: This being the year of the child, we should plan programs with the child in mind, such as child safety; the loan library is being phased out due to lack of funds; resolutions should be dealt with at a lower level as they have already been dealt with by government before reaching our higher levels; objection was raised to some T. V. advertising such as in feminine hygiene; some house logs are so elaborate that they could not be left with a house, so leave a summary.

Since the W. I. was first started, it has opened the doors to thousands of women and girls to share their talents and training at home and abroad.

Count Your Blessings and a tasty lunch by Miss Brigham closed the meeting. We are sorry that Mrs. James Noble is hospitalized in Milton, but hope that she makes good progress. She had a skin graft on an ulcer on her leg last week.

Turkey roll demonstration delights W.I. members

by Winifred Smith
Mrs. Frances Buckrell was hostess for the W.I. on Wednesday evening Nov. 1. President Mrs. Jamieson called the meeting to order and after welcoming all, she opened the meeting with some inspiring thoughts. The W.I. ode was sung with vigor and enthusiasm as everybody clapped their hands to the tune as they sang. All then repeated the Mary Stewart Collect. There was a good attendance with 15 members present and five visitors.

Some interesting stories told. The minutes of the Oct. meeting were read and business items dealt with. It was announced that seven from Ballinafad Branch had attended the area Convention earlier in the week. Mrs. Buckrell and Mrs. (Continued on Page 15)

Craft club's raffle Hallowe'en party news

by Wilda MacDougall
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hamer from Blind River spent a week as guests at the home of Mrs. Wilk Wilson.

Mrs. Anna Wilson visited with her sister, Mrs. Fred Reilly, of Moorefield on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rinehart entertained Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Blacklock from Burlington, Miss Christine Blacklock from Ottawa and Miss Lois McLean from Badenoch, at a dinner party recently. The following day, Fred and Jean visited relatives at Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hamilton, Guelph, took their grandmother and aunts, Mrs. William and James Gilbertson, Mrs. Peter Wylie and Mrs. Marie Davis down to St. Catherine's for dinner and later visited relatives in Burlington, on Saturday.

Homemade pie for dessert was on the menu for the United Church Women's Association luncheon on Wednesday in the hall and there was a good attendance.

The Craft Club showed their wares and raffled a cushion which was won by Mrs. Betty Marshall. The Craft Club meetings are on Tuesday afternoons if anyone is interested in joining.

Mrs. Anna Wilson presided at the meeting for the Friendly Seniors on Wednesday afternoon. There were 11 members present and they enjoyed a social time with cards and refreshments.

Hallowe'en night was fairly quiet in the village. The younger children were treated to a party in the hall. Several prizes were given for best costumes but each child received a treat.

The Girl Guides are sponsoring a teen dance in the hall on Friday, Nov. 10. Proceeds from this event will be used for guide activities.

The Community Club meeting that was to have been on Nov. 6 will now be scheduled for Nov. 14 at 8 p.m.

Embarrassing moments—we've all had them. Like the time you have a deep and interesting conversation with someone charming only to discover later your eye makeup has splurged under your eyes making you look like Orphan Annie.

Or the time, in high school, when you noticed your date had neglected to zip up and you died a thousand deaths wondering whether to tell him or not, knowing how HE'D feel when he found out.

Some embarrassing moments are too magnificent to do anything but laugh at. If you're going to pull a boner, make it a good one.

Boozeless party

Once I ran a dance for our club (only once, mind you, I was never asked to do it again). I think I got volunteered for the job when I went to the bathroom.

It seemed easy enough. I booked the hall and the band. We ordered tickets and sold them. No problems.

Mack and I turned up on dance night a half hour early, to be asked by the club president where was the liquor for the bar. Liquor?

I had totally forgotten the little matter of a bar and had no idea that I was responsible for its stocking.

With admirable restraint, and a lot of tense looks, the president and Mack worked double time for that half hour and managed to save the day. I can laugh about it now but nobody else can.

Well, I'd rather dance than drink anyway.

More moments

Another reluctant volunteer job was undertaken by a friend who had to provide coffee for 200 at a church dinner.

Having been brought up in the era of instant coffee, she wasn't familiar with coffee in bags. However, she bought enough anyway and bravely set about perking all this coffee.

When pouring the coffee into the perks it dawned on her something was wrong.

Weren't coffee beans supposed to be ground or something before being made into coffee?

Two funny stories (and many more I can't print) come from dancing friends. My mother, a dancer before marriage, had a classical Greek dance to perform in concert one cold night. Late for the curtain she leapt into her costume sticking her outdoor gloves into the urn she was to carry. Forgetting all about them, she tripped on stage, built the dramatic mood of the dance, dipped low swooping her urn over the audience and watched her wooly gloves go sailing out over the footlights.

Another dancer friend, due to give a performance in Toronto, was similarly rushed when leaving home. Wearing a lovely caftan, she and the other girls went into the dressing room to change. The costumes for the folk number were swirly gypsy skirts needing substantial undergarments to prevent embarrassment.

With a shriek, Friend collapsed on a seat when she realized she'd left home without ANY kind of underwear on at all!

Bad paint job bill: $1,500

Paint smearing vandals caused $1,900 in damage to the buildings at the Electric Railway Museum on the Guelph Line last week.

Suspects painted obscene words on one of the buildings.

Unemployment Insurance is now more responsive to conditions in Ontario.

To make your Unemployment Insurance Program more responsive to the special needs of different areas of Canada, there are now 48 economic regions for UI. (Up to now, there were 16 regions.) With this change, UI benefits will more accurately reflect your local employment conditions.

It's all part of a plan announced over a year ago.

Each of these new 48 regions will have its own unemployment rate. This will set the length of time a claimant must have worked to become eligible for Unemployment Insurance benefits. And it will govern the length of benefits as well.

There's nothing new about the system itself—it's just being measured more finely in 48 regions, rather than 16.

The length of time a claimant must work to get UI remains the same. It varies from 10 to 14 weeks, depending on the unemployment rate where the claimant lives. And regionally-based benefits have the same maximum.

The change will only affect those whose UI claims start after November 12.

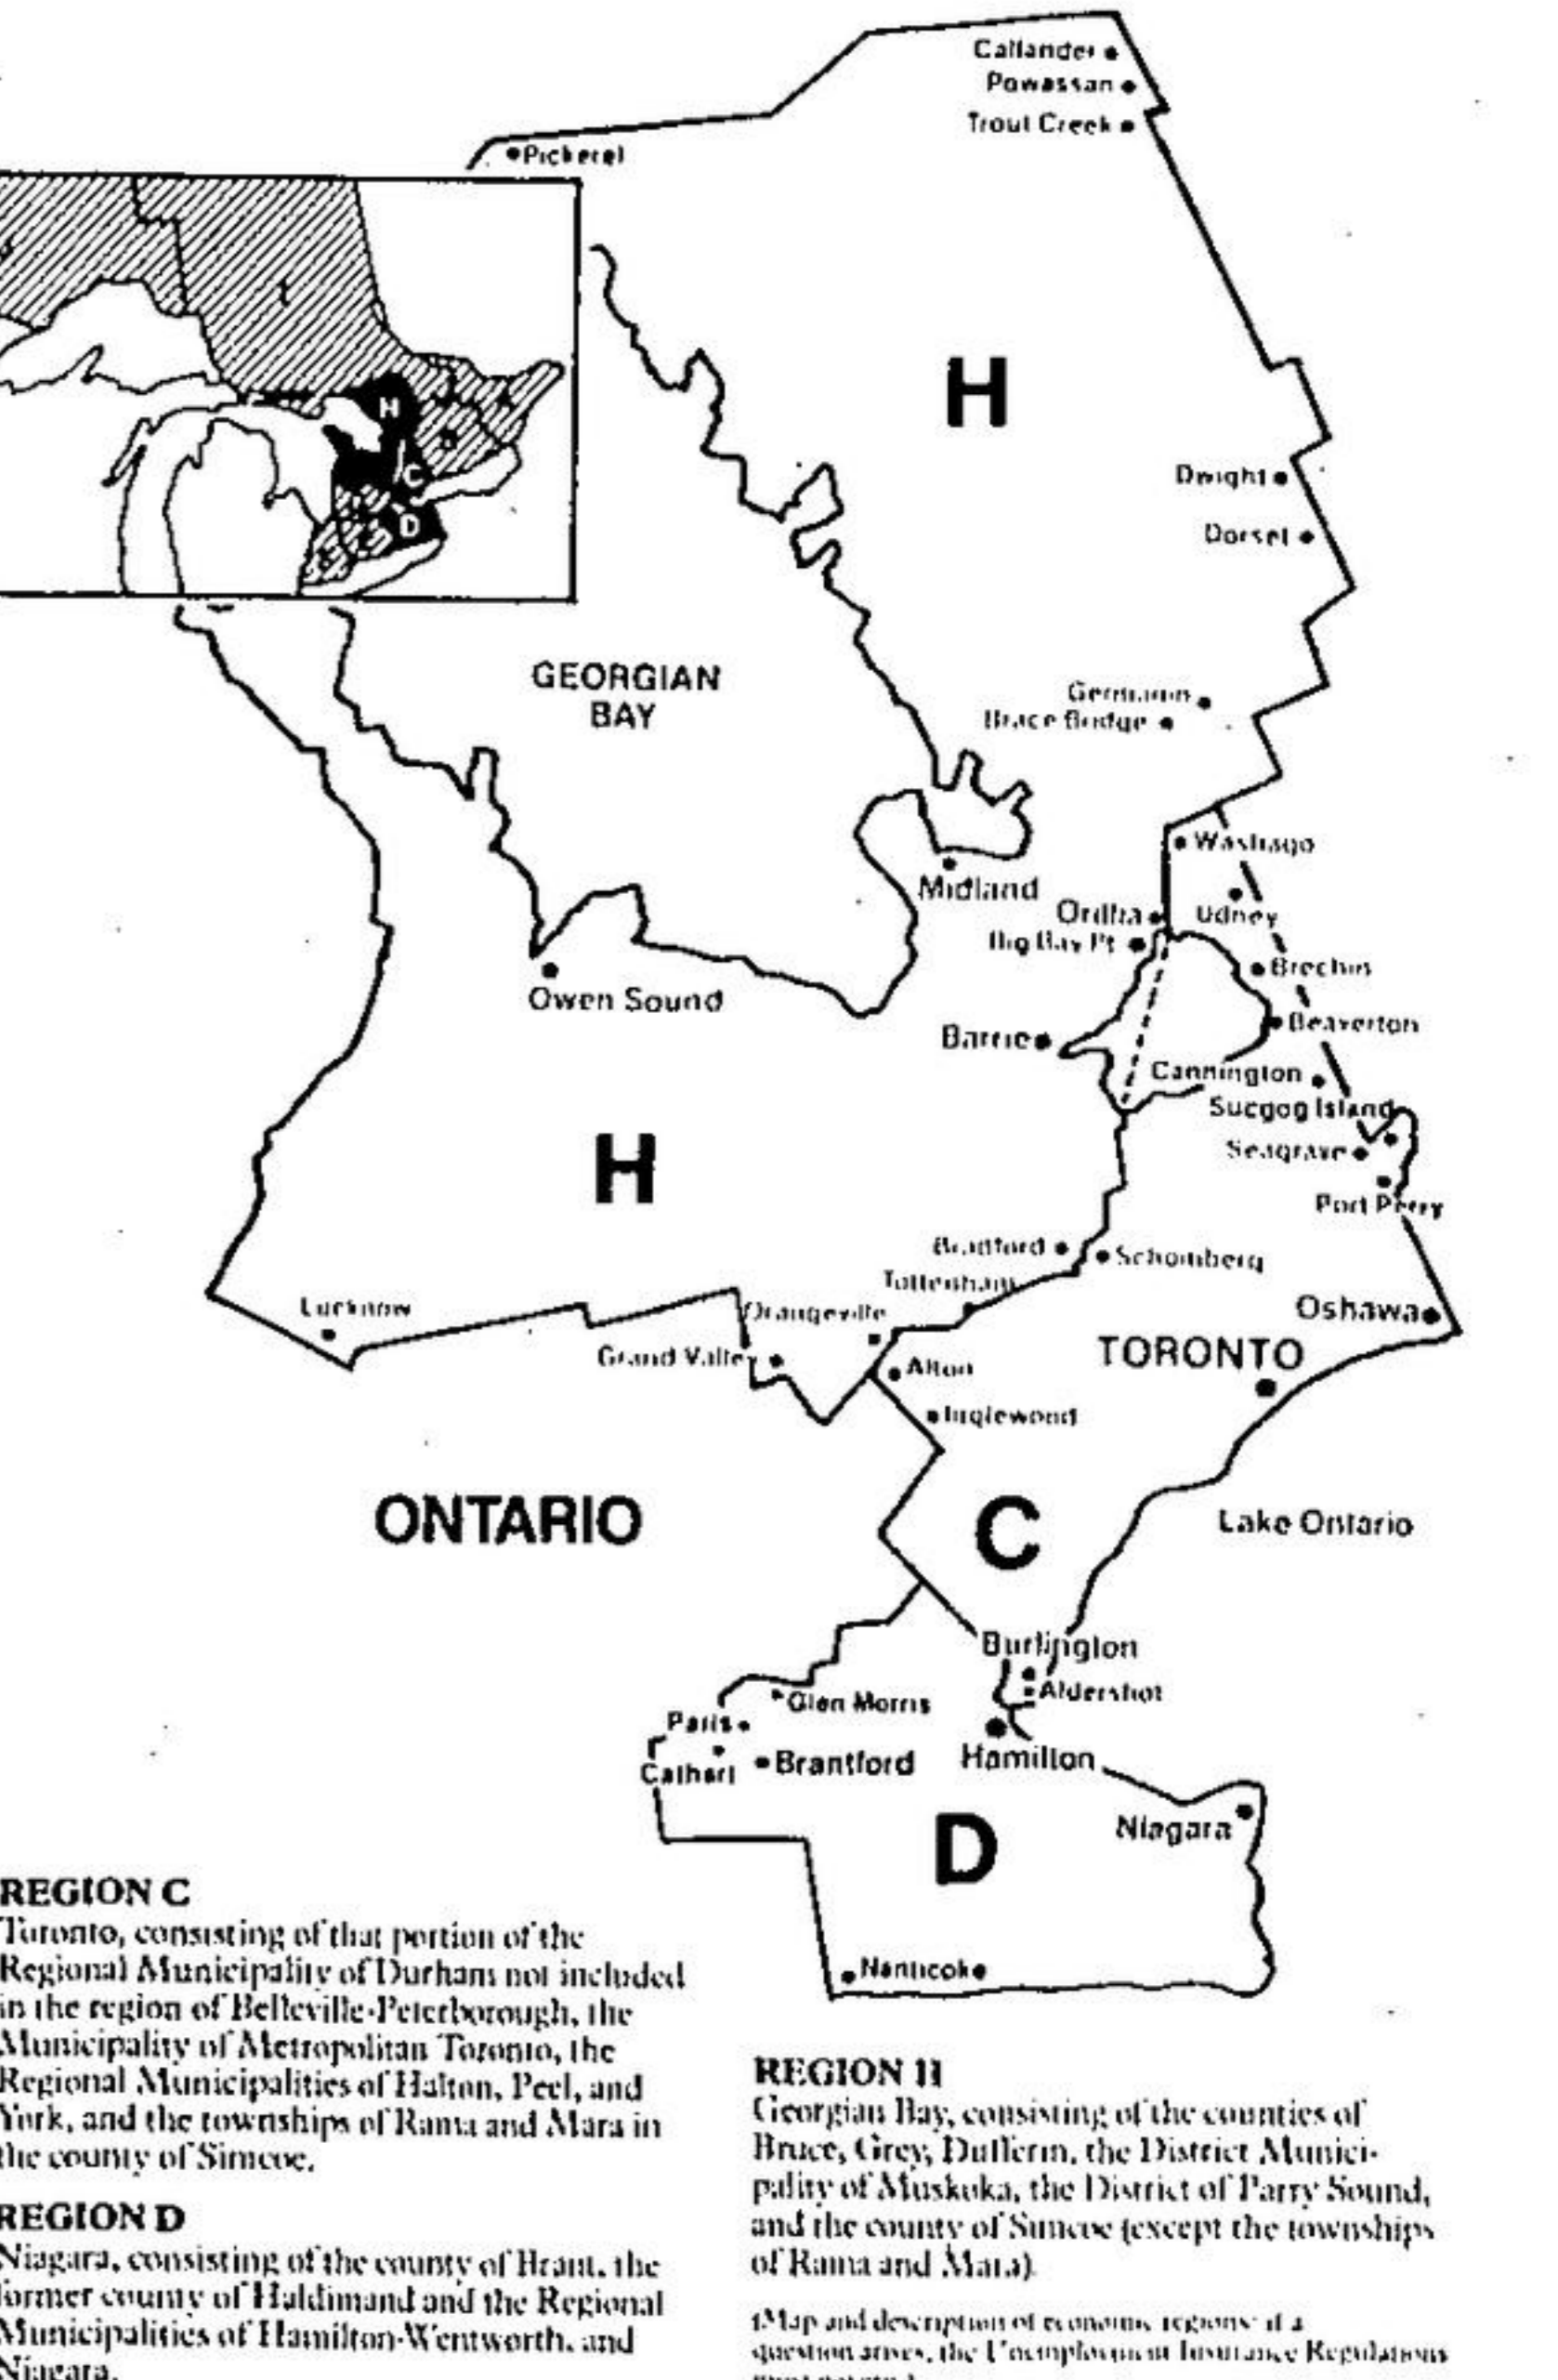

This map and the information with it will show you the new economic boundaries in your area.

Clip the map and save it for reference, if you like.

Note: Further changes to the Unemployment Insurance Program have been proposed by the Government. They will come into effect only when enacted by Parliament.
