Guests came from as far away as Scotland to attend the November 4 wedding of Wendy Lynne Ward and Edward Paterson in Trinity United Church, Acton.

The bride, of R.R. 4, Acton, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ward, R.R. 1, Hillsburgh. She is a cashier at Foodland in Acton. The groom, of 127 Main St. S., Georgetown, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paterson, 6 Sarah St., Georgetown. He is employed at Canada Battery in Acton. Both the bride and groom were students at Georgetown and District High School.

The Rev. Charles Beaton officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, the bride wore a gown with a lace bodice, long train and satin skirt with a sheer covering on the skirt and v-neck. She carried a trailing bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.

The bride's best friend, Kathy Thomson, was maid of honor. She wore a rust colored gown and carried yellow and white carnations. Bridesmaids were the bride's cousin Nancy Ward, and the groom's sister, Nancy Paterson. They wore turquoise gowns and carried bouquets similar to the maid of honors. Debbie Ward the bride's sister, was flowergirl. She wore a green floral print gown and carried yellow carnations.

David Paterson was best man. Ushers were Rick Ward, and Alex Paterson. Danny Ward was ring bearer.

An evening reception and dance were held in the Georgetown Legion where guests admired the wedding cake made by the bride's aunt, Nancy Knight.

Special guests for the day were the groom's grandmother, Mrs. A. K. Muir and cousin, Miss Sally Brown, from Scotland.

Kathy Thomson held a shower in her home at R.R. 4, Acton home for the bride. Two others were held by Nancy Ward in Ferris and Mrs. Nancy Knight and Wendy Kelleher in Guelph. The Georgetown Falcon's Soccer team held a stag for the groom.

Name left out

In the confusion of election coverage in last week's paper, the Free Press failed to mention Gail Gervais. Gail, an Acton resident, worked hard all that evening answering telephones and posting results in the Acton arena. The clerk's department employee deserves a lot of credit for her hard work November 13.

Nelson Branch, acting hostess, welcomes approximately 65 members of the district who enjoyed a delicious and beautiful buffet dessert table followed by tea and coffee.

Mrs. J. McNabb, district president, presided for the court whist games.

Prizes were donated by Dublin Branch and won by: High Score: Mrs. Mabel Hadley, second high Mrs. E. Carter. Low score: Mrs. Jean McLean, second low, Mrs. Edna Nelles; hidden score (even 100): Mrs. Laura Dixon. Travelling prizes: Mrs. Alice Rose and Mrs. E. Carter, both of Nelson Branch.

Invitations were received to 4-H Achievement Day, "Essential Edibles" in E.C. Drury School, Milton, Dec. 2 at 8.30 a.m.

Invitations were also received from Nelson Branch Nov. 21 at 1.45 p.m. meeting in Christian Education Building of Nelson United Church to hear guest speakers from West Oakville Cancer Society.

There are still some Halton District W.I. plates available.

Mrs. H. Wilson presented a gavel made by her late father Ernest Henderson in 1920 for her mother who was the president of Palermo W.I. The gavel was then presented by MAGNETIC COWS were a great attraction at the IODE Christmas bazaar Saturday, so Agnes Holmes had to make sure the display looked pretty.

C.W.L. meeting

The Catholic Women's League met at the church hall November 14. There were 17 members present and Father Speagle attended.

Mrs. Linda Taras and Mrs. Fran Marcoux will convene the tea tables for the Bazaar this Saturday. Mrs. Toots Papillon will sell tickets on a cake. A motion was passed by members that the tea be 75 cents again this year but will be $1. next year. All plans for the bazaar were finalized.

The Christmas supper, Wednesday December 13, will be catered by Dublin W.I. It will cost $5. per person and tickets must be purchased two weeks ahead. It was decided there would be no gift exchange. Father Speagle approached the C.W.L. about a "birthday party for Jesus" in the church hall for the young children. This will follow the children's mass Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Julie Conroy, Mrs. Pat Jackson and Mrs. Pat Garton reported plans for a spring parish dance in February.

It was reported that the monthly Sunday coffee hour was a great success. Mrs. Verna Arbie asked approval for a small turkey for the door prize at the December euchre. This was passed.

The meeting closed with a prayer.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD Paterson are now living at 127 Main St. S., Georgetown following their November 4 wedding. The bride is the former Wendy Lynn Ward, R.R. 4, Acton.

Remembrance program

The November meeting of the Knox "Alert" Evening Group was held in the Mary Ellen Anderson Room. After the Call to Worship the Hymn "Peace Perfect Peace" was sung.

Elsie Loucks read the scripture and Bella-Maye Roszell read "The Peace that Passeth All Understanding" from Niven Miller's Book of Poems. Isabel McDonald led in Prayer.

Elsie Loucks and Isabel McDonald read an article "Remember to forget" followed by another reading

"Why We Remember" by Bella-Maye Roszell. The Hymn "God of Our Fathers" closed this portion of the meeting.

During the business, members were reminded of the Christmas pot luck supper and gift exchange.

It was decided to send enough money to make up the allocation to the Presbytery treasurer. The election of officers for 1979 was held.

Sandwiches and a cup of tea brought the evening to a close.

Auction sale fun for Dublin Institute

An auction sale is always fun, and so it was at Dublin Women's Institute meeting on Thursday evening. A good variety of baking, fruit, vegetables, pickles, etc. from which buyers could choose at a price, were exhibited. With top hat and cane, Mrs. D. Hunter got high prices for all the articles in her role as an efficient and persuasive auctioneer. As a result, a fine sum of money was turned into the treasury. It is an event that is looked forward to in each year's program.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. Wilson, 4th Line, Milton, (Nassagaweya), and had a good turnout of members.

Mrs. M. Hunter presided over the meeting and in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. K. Smith, Mrs. J. Kranendonk carried on the duties.

It is said that a good laugh is as good as medicine, and so it was when the roll call was answered "Boy, was I embarrassed." Many very funny experiences were told by the ladies that were terribly embarrassing at the time, but could later be laughed at and enjoyed.

A report from three standing conveners were given by Mrs. W. Lasby on Citizenship; Mrs. K. Kranendonk on Visiting; and Mrs. W. Frank from the quilting committee.

Two upcoming events in the near future will be catered to as reported by Mrs. E. Wilson, convener.

Mrs. M. Nellis reported a pleasant time spent at District Day at Ligny Hall recently. Several neighboring branches enjoyed fellowship together.

A busy and profitable six month period was outlined in the treasurer's report as read by Mrs. Kranendonk.

Members were reminded of the Christmas party on December 7, at the home of Mrs. G. McMillan; also of the Family Night Party on December 16 at Luxton Hall. Substantial sums of money were approved to be given to the two committees in charge of these events.

A very interesting resume of the two-day Guelph Area Convention held at Bingham
