

Badminton Club holds tourney

ACTON BADMINTON CLUB member Henrietta Mason waits for a serve during a club tourney last week.

The Acton Badminton Club held a successful round robin tournament at Acton High School last Wednesday evening.

Bob Watts walked off with the men's title while Pam Harman took the ladies' crown. John Zions was runner-up in the men's competition with Sis Ko Koch capturing the ladies.

There were numerous draws held during the evening. Winners included Bob Watts, Rene March, John Zions and George Williams.

Court prizes went to Henrietta Mason, Chris Steen, Stella Brunelle and Marcia Gregg. The door prize for the tournament was won by Vic Morris.

The new executive for the Acton Badminton Club is Joan Morris, president; Jeannette Hisaki, vice-president; Marie Zions, secretary-treasurer, and tournament chairman Bob Watts.

The group meets Mondays and Thursdays from 7 till 10:30 p.m. at M.Z. Bennett.

Minor bantams have .500 record

Acton Rotary Club Minor Bantams moved their record to three wins, and three losses last week with a 8-2 win over Elora.

"Everyone played super, passed checked, and played positional hockey" said coach

Ed Hillier.

Paul Vermeulen scored the first Acton goal, an unassisted effort, at the midway point of the opening period. Wayne McMillan added to the Acton lead before the period ended.

Mike Yalowica, Mike McNabb and McMillan scored second period goals for the Rotarians. Brian Demone, Todd Wiseman, Blake Norton, Brian Canary and Rick Chapman assisted on the goals.

Both the Elora goals came in the middle frame.

In the third period Acton got goals from Canary, McMillan, and McNabb to bring their total to eight.

500 Club

The Acton Minor Hockey began its 500 Club draw last week with the following winners; the November 11 draw 139 Stan Curtis, 386 Gary Pickles, 300 Al Hall, 248 Jack Mackenzie, and 372 Ken Brown.

The November 18 draws were won by 349 Ella Morton, 287 Bill Syme, 443 Dot Polo, 316 George Lockerbie and 482 Doreen McIntyre.

Anyone not interested in holding their ticket for this season is asked to call Harold Townsley.

Atoms

Acton major atoms split games last week beating Elora 18-0 and losing to Orangeville 3-1 in Waterloo-Wellington league action.

In Acton last Wednesday, Elora were the visitors and once again it was too bad for both teams that it was such a mismatch. Everyone, except the two goaltenders, figured in the scoring. Elora only had two shots on the Acton net.

In a rescheduled game Saturday, Orangeville were the visitors. Acton opened the scoring in the first period on a goal by Randy McIntyre, unassisted.

Orangeville got on the scoreboard with two goals seven seconds apart, halfway through the second period and again just as the period ended. Final score Orangeville 3 Acton 1.

Coach Jim Warren was very pleased with the boys' efforts as it's difficult to keep the score close against the stronger Orangeville club and he cited the extra efforts of Kevin Lobsinger, Brad Demone, Gary MacEachern and Gord Mitchell as the reason for the close score.

Acton major atoms will have to come up with that extra effort again, tonight, (Wednesday), when Woolwich will be the visitors.

AFTER FINISHING LAST SEASON with the Streetsville Derbys Kent Moffatt has returned to the Sabres along with three others in a trade for Paul Pickard. Moffatt was traded from Acton to Streetsville last season.

Midgets score win over Elora 15-5

Ed's In-n-out Midgets finally found the winning combination in Waterloo-Wellington league play as they scored a 15-5 win over Elora.

In Elora last Wednesday the two teams met with Elora taking a 5-2 margin of victory. In an exhibition contest the In-n-outers edged Rockton 3-1.

Elora scored the first goal in the eventful Acton romp. Murray McNabb got Acton on the scoreboard to start the spree with five minutes remaining in the period.

Todd McIntyre led the Acton scoring attack with three goals and three assists. Dave Lawson and Gary Lumbers each netted a hat-trick and picked up a pair of assists. Ray Meuler added a goal and three helpers. Jim Trowbridge and Denis Kirton fired two goals apiece with Scott Timbers adding a pair of assists. Murray McNabb rounded out the goalscoring and assisted on another. Rob Evans, Don Brouillard and Derek Hodgson added assists.

In Elora the only people to find the range for Acton were Denis Kirton from Gary Lumbers and Ron Jackson and Derek Hodgson from Evans and Brouillard in the second period. Elora scored two in the first to hold the lead.

A goal by Ron Jackson late in the first period held up most of the way as Acton edged Rockton in exhibition play. Ray Meuler put Acton up 2-0 with 3:43 to play and nine seconds later Dave Lawson found the range.
