to Mr. Hinton Thursday, the board is sure to hear more from Mr. Hinton, the former trustee said he would not be attending board meetings. "I don't believe in the visiting deal, it's a rat race. . .having people looking over the shoulder," Mr. Hinton said.

"Quite a few people, with nothing else to do, have a watch dog attitude," he said. He continued by saying he is not in their number. Such an activity is not quite fair and would be interference on his part, said Mr. Hinton.

Mr. Hinton is an active member of the Halton Fair Board, the Halton Lung Association and other causes.

FIRST AID GOALS
St. John Ambulance says the aim of all First Aid is to sustain life, to minimize the effects of injury and to promote recovery.

Coloring contest

Hey Kids! It's that time of year again—Christmas Coloring Contest time. Stay tuned to next week's paper for the drawings to be colored. This year, there are only two categories, from kindergarten to grade three and from grade four to five. Santa himself will be the judge, so do your best. Contest deadline is December 15.

OPP nab trio of thieves

Guelph detachment of OPP charged three Oakville men in connection with the theft Monday of a car. The vehicle was stopped on Concession 3-4 of Eramosa Township. Police were on the look out after receiving a report from Ted Freeman, R.R. 3 Rockwood, of an attempt to steal some gasoline. Names of the arrested trio were not released by police.

New super

Dr. Robert Dixon was named by the Halton Board of Education as its new superintendent of programs. The appointment, made last Thursday at Burlington, takes effect next January. Dr. Dixon has a "distinguished career in education" according to director of education Em Lavender. Twenty applied for the job, none of them women, and seven of the applicants were interviewed.

REQUIRED TRAINING
Under the Workmen's Compensation Act, employers of more than five workers must have employees qualified in the 16 hour Standard First Aid Course, reminds St. John Ambulance. Employers of five or fewer than five workers are required to have employees trained in the eight hour Emergency First Aid course.

MUSICIAN PAUL BRODIE was at Acton High School last week giving a seminar and concert as part of the Arts Festival. See youth page for more pictures.
