

MICKEY MOUSE is celebrating his fiftieth anniversary this year and he was on hand at the Acton Santa Claus Parade to meet some of the youngsters.

THE STAR OF THE SHOW in Saturday's Santa Claus parade was none other than jolly old St. Nick himself. He followed the parade to its destination at the arena before returning to the YMCA to meet some of the children.

They came by the thousands . . .

GIFT BOXES AND PACKAGES found their way down Mill Street during the Santa Claus parade on Saturday. All kinds of characters came out to participate in the parade.

MR. AND MRS. BERT DAVIDSON, monarchs in a fairy tale castle.

UNIQUE BIRTHDAY party for five year old Terry Petrillo of Storey Drive was a float.

WHO SAYS YOU can't mix a clown and a kangaroo. Not John Jorden and Gillian Fuller

. . . to greet Santa and friends

I'M THE Indusmin bear!

Season's greetings to all!

ACTON CITIZENS' Band, an integral part of every Santa Claus parade in the district kept up the tempo for the entry of Santa Claus.