McKenzie-Smith third in 'round robin' tourney

McKenzie-Smith boys and girls finished third in their respective divisions at the North Halton Volleyball Championships last week.

The boys entered the second half of the double round robin tournament with a three win, one loss record but split 2-2 in the second portion, forcing a playoff between themselves and W.I. Dick for the right to meet first placed Centennial for the North Halton title.

Acton fell in two straight games to Dick by scores of 15-8 and 15-10. Earlier in the day McKenzie-Smith fell to Dick 15-10. In their other loss of the day, Acton fell to Centennial of Georgetown 15-8.

The two Acton victories came at the expense of F.C. Drury 15-7 and Stewarttown 15-13. In that game Stewarttown held a 13-2 advantage at one point.

Centennial captured the title with a two game sweep from W.I. Dick by scores of 15-11 and 18-16.

The Acton girls entered their second round of the tourney with a two and two record. In round two they fell three times, beating only Stewarttown.

Centennial and Dick met in the final for the girls' title with W.I. Dick. Dick took the first game, Centennial fought back to tie the match but Dick prevailed in the rubber game of the match for the title.

Novices edge Elora draw with Shelburne

Acton Alton-McIssac Concrete Construction Novices kept their unbeaten streak alive with a win and a tie.

After starting out the season with two losses the novices have rallied for two wins and a draw in their last three starts. The latest game was an exhibition contest with Shelburne. That game ended in three all draw.

Shelburne jumped out to a 3-0 lead before Jason Henderson found the range from Ian Johnston to put Acton on the board.

John Van Dam gave Acton the lead with a pair of second period goals. The second came with an assist to Tim Tibbitts.

Shelburne rallied at the midway point of the final frame to get the tie.

In a league game on Saturday November 18 the Acton club held over the last minute for a 2-1 win over Elora.

Pee-wees regain form top Fergus and Woolwich

Acton Beardmore Union Minor Pee-wees regained their winning form last week after dropping three straight decisions.

The locals topped Fergus 4-2 for their first win of the week and then scored a goal late in the third period to edge Elmira 4-3.

Bruce Raine opened the scoring in the Fergus contest from Tony Van Dam at the 2:41 mark of the first period.

Terry Danagher put Acton up by two from Sandy Waites and Mike Hudson to open the second frame. Jamie Lawson made it 3-0 from Danagher before Fergus got on the board with .43 seconds remaining in the period.

Fergus pulled to within one by the midway point of the final frame before Mike

Hudson put the game out of reach with less than three minutes to play.

Coach Bob Raine was pleased with the way his team forechecked and bodychecked throughout the entire game.

Fall Behind Acton fell behind early against Woolwich and the score remained that way until the third minute of the second period when Jamie Lawson found the range from Sandy Waites to tie the game.

Mike Hudson scored from Lawson and Les Berry before the second frame ended to give Acton the lead for the first time.

Two Woolwich goals in the first half of the final period gave them the lead back before Bruce Raine found the distance with an unassisted goal.

Mike Hudson provided Acton with the winning goal from David Thomas with 1:46 remaining.

Atoms top Fergus with 7 goal splurge

Acton Hockey Moms Minor Atoms topped Fergus in league action last week with a 7-1 victory.

There was no scoring in the first period of the contest but Acton came to life in the second scoring five times.

Peter Cargill started the scoring from Sean Fitzgerald at the three minute mark of the frame. Kirk McNabb added another one 20 seconds later from Paul Kilpatrick.

assisting on the first and Cargill helping on the second. Acton got goals from Kilpatrick and Toth Hill in the final frame before Fergus broke Troy Nolan's bid for a shut-out with 2:09 remaining.

Acton meets Orangeville at the Community Centre tonight (Wednesday) at 7 p.m. In previous meetings Orangeville has downed the local lads by counts of 3-2 and 9-2.

Atoms

Acton Hockey Moms' minor atoms rallied with two quick goals in the final period to earn a 4-4 tie with Bramalea in an exhibition contest.
