

Ballinafad W.I. Christmas party

by Winifred Smith
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McEnery opened their spacious home last Wednesday evening for the annual Christmas party for the W.I. Husbands and friends were invited to attend. The get-together got underway at 6:30 in the form of a pot-luck dinner.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Card tables were set up and each one was bedecked with a lighted candle. Food was arranged buffet style and each in turn had a helping from a variety of dishes. Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. Plouffe were in charge of dessert. Tempting pies and squares were placed on the table after the remains of the first course had been removed.

When all had participated in the meal, the group of ladies had a short business meeting while the men sat around the dining room table and chatted.

Progressive Court Whist was played for an hour or so. The winners being ladies first, Nellie Gwen, second Eileen Burt.

Men's prizes for cards were won by Ernest McEnery and Jesse McEnery.

With Eileen McEnery at the organ familiar Christmas carols were sung. The final part of the evening's festivities was the exchange of gifts. Before leaving everyone thanked Eileen and Ernie for again helping to make the evening so enjoyable.

Family Sunday was observed at the Church when members of families took an active part in the service. Mrs. Helga Schwarz read the old Testament lesson. Mr. Stiles told the story of the lighting of the advent candles, the first one signifies Light, second one Love. Susan Guest lit the candles. The Junior Choir were delighted as they sang the anthem "The Keeper of The Inn" white gifts were brought forward by the young folk and placed around the Communion table.

While the collection was being taken up the Junior Choir sang another anthem. Everyone listened attentively when Mrs. Sheila Stiles told the story of The Christmas Apple. Miss Gayle Jessup and Miss Christina Quackenbush were the ushers for the service.

Following the service lunch was served in the basement. In the afternoon the Sunday School concert was held back up in the Church. A beautiful Christmas tree aglow with coloured lights graced a corner in the Church and added a festive note. Mrs. Joyce Clark as chairman called for the opening number on the program. It was in the form of a cantata which took in all the scholars, the older ones right down to the tiny tots. Susan O'Connor favoured with a solo accompanied by Mrs. Brown on the guitar.

A group of the smaller girls from the junior choir sang, Mrs. Schwarz's class gave a number followed by a humorous reading by Mrs. Grace McEnery. The Junior Choir gave another Anthem. Leigh Jessup kept the audience interested as she recited The Story of Jason Dawes. Rene Schwartz and Paul Volmar put on a skit Paul Volmar put on a skit mentioning local people which caused some laughs. The Kerr family delighted all with several musical selections. Mr. Stiles thanked the Sunday School pupils the teachers and the parents of the children. He had a special word of thanks to Mrs. Clarke who has been superintendent of the Sunday School for three or four years. He stated that Mrs. Clarke was retiring as leader of the Sunday School this year. Mrs. Clarke was taken by surprise as she was presented with a gift as a token of appreciation.

The highlight of the afternoon was when jolly old Santa appeared on the scene. He had a gift and a candy cane for all the children.

We are glad to welcome home Mrs. Lloyd Marshall after her recent eye operation in Toronto.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Slessoraitis, who suffered a bereavement this past week, when Mrs. Slessoraitis suffered the loss of a sister whose home was in Chicago.

The Rockwood Nursery school is humming with excitement these days, getting prepared for "the big day". Here Jennifer Woodburn and Jeff Patterson paint pine cone decorations which they will hang on their Christmas tree.

Limehouse

W.I. enjoys turkey dinner

by Mrs. A. Benton
Just heard the good news. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Norris, Fourth Line have their second child, a daughter named Tara, born Nov. 18 in Georgetown.

We are pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cunningham, Elaine, Allen and Wayne to Limehouse. They have moved to their farm at Lot 20, Fifth Line.

Thank you to the Limehouse Brownie Pack of little girls who called around to sing "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer" to me on Wed

Nearly 30 members and families of the Limehouse W.I. and a few guests enjoyed turkey dinners at L. M. Hall on Thursday evening. President Mrs. Booth was hostess with words of welcome and announced the W.I. grace. Mrs. Bert Benton played for carol singing while tables were cleared. Mrs. Frank Brown then introduced Miss Cora Barwell who showed several splendid films in color—flowers both wild and cultivated, scenery or a trip to the Gaspé, and several short ones. The evening was quite a pleasant one excepting we all regret Mrs. Milham's accident. She fell on ice breaking her left wrist and dislocating the elbow. We wish her a quick recovery.

bread house, Valerie Tellier.

The L.A. meeting and Christmas party was held Dec. 4 at the home of Elaine Little, future plans were discussed including carol singing in Limehouse Dec. 14, enrolment and badge distribution in Jan. and the bottle drive in April (a reminder to save all those jars and bottles).

LOTTARIO! A LOTTERY THAT LETS YOU WRITE YOUR OWN TICKET.

HOW TO PLAY:

- You can get selection slips from any LOTTARIO agent. On each slip you'll see seven "boards" with numbers 1 through 39. Using one "board" at a time, select any six of the 39 numbers. With a black pencil, make a vertical mark in the box which contains the number selected.
- Take your selection slip to a LOTTARIO agent or retailer who will enter your selected numbers in the LOTTARIO computer and issue you a receipt with your numbers printed on it. That is your LOTTARIO TICKET. Check it to ensure that the numbers on it are the ones you have chosen.
- Each "board" costs $1 to play. You may play as many "boards" as you wish. In other words, if you played 2 "boards", it would cost $2.
- Then watch the draw on TV every week or check your newspaper to see if the numbers you've chosen match the numbers that are drawn.
- If you've won, simply present your winning ticket to your LOTTARIO agent for validation. If you've won $100 or less, the agent will pay you right there on the spot. If you're a big winner, your LOTTARIO agent will tell you how and where to claim your prize.

HOW YOU WIN:

Every week six regular numbers and a bonus number will be drawn on TV.

Match those six regular numbers, in any order, and you're the JACKPOT winner, or, if someone else has also chosen the same numbers, then you'll share the prize.

But if you don't have all six numbers, there are still thousands of other chances to win.

If you get five of the regular numbers right and your sixth number matches the bonus number, you share in the big Second Prize Pool.

Or, if you match five of the regular numbers, your bundle of cash comes from the Third Prize Pool.

Match four regular numbers and you share in the Fourth Prize Pool.

And, if you match three of the regular numbers, you win $5. Not bad fun for a buck! And there are bound to be thousands of winners every week, because the numbers you choose don't have to be in the same order as those drawn.

HOW MUCH YOU WIN:

The major prizes are divided into four separate prize pools - the JACKPOT Pool, the Second Prize Pool, the Third Prize Pool and the Fourth Prize Pool.

The Fifth Prize is worth $5.

Those holding winning tickets in any of the four pool categories will share that pool equally.

For example, if the JACKPOT pool is $300,000 and 2 players have correctly chosen the six regular numbers, each player would win $150,000.

The weekly JACKPOT could be $100,000, $300,000, $500,000 or more depending upon the number of people playing LOTTARIO. In the event that there is no JACKPOT winner, the JACKPOT Pool builds each week until someone wins it.

In Quebec, the JACKPOT in a similar lottery was over $1 million before being won.

YOU DON'T JUST BUY A TICKET. YOU PLAY IT.
