Midgets top two fall to Orangeville

Ed's In-n-Out Midgets are starting to make waves in Waterloo-Wellington league play.
Sitting in sixth place in a seven team league, the midgets are starting to play a respectable brand of hockey and are winning games as a result.
Last week the In-n-Outers fell to Orangeville 8-4 but topped New Hamburg 5-2 and Fergus 3-2.
The loss, Acton's eighth of the year, was all decided in the final period. Don Brouillard opened the scoring for Acton from Roger Evans before the game was a minute old.
Orangeville came back with three unanswered goals before the period ended.
Rob Evans scored from Derek Hodgson to pull the midgets to within one before Orangeville rallied for another pair to take a commanding 5-2 lead.
Acton fought back before the period had ended and with goals by Murray McNabb from Dave Lawson and Todd McIntyre and Don Brouillard from Gary Lumbers to produce a 5-4 score at the end of two.

Three unanswered Orangeville goals in the third produced the 8-4 final.
In Fergus, three second period goals were all the In-n-Outers could manage but it was enough to give them a 3-2 win.
Murray McNabb scored twice for Acton with Jim Trowbridge adding the other. Todd McIntyre, Dave Lawson, Randy Smith, Bill Currie, and Derek Hodgson picked up assists.
After a scoreless first period against New Hamburg the midgets found themselves down early in the second and fighting from behind. Four straight second period goals gave Acton the boost they needed as they scored a 5-2 win.
Denis Kirton scored twice for Acton with Todd McIntyre Ray Meuler and Don Brouillard adding singles. Randy Smith, Todd McIntyre and bantam Mark Duval added assists.

Kovacs and Bray

Adrienne Kovacs and Peter Bray, both of Acton, helped the Guelph Marlin Aquatic Club trounce the London Y Aquatic Club by a score of 624-153 in a Golden Region Aquatic Association dual meet in Guelph.
For the eight and under group Kovacs and Bray each won four firsts for 28 points for the girls and boys respectively. Both swam on winning relay teams; Bray filled in for the 9-10 boys relay team adding another five points to his individual total of 38 points.

For the 11-12 boys' four events were won by Mark Bray who also won the Individual Medley. John Vadeika placed fourth in the breast stroke, second in three other events and tied for second in the Individual Medley.

Turkey winners for the Y.B.C. turkey roll on Saturday were Craig Gillis, Ann Marie Franklin, Kevin Galloway, Shelley Patenaude, Joel Pink, Tiju Jago, Steven Matheson, Carol Chappel, Connie McCristall and Chad Crooks.

by Mrs. Mitchell

December has been a very busy month for the club. With club competitions for junior skaters as well as senior it was also a test day for intermediates and seniors.
The club held a family skate party which was very well attended with coffee, juice and goodies for the children. A draw for $50 was won by Nancy Kaiser of London, Ontario.
Chocolates were sold by the club. There are still some chocolates left to be sold. We are selling these candies to help with the purchase of a new sound system.
Congratulations to all who passed on test night which was held December 7. On December 14 the club held senior competition. The winners will go on to interclub to be held at Acton Arena on January 14.
Good luck and good skating. Junior competition will be held on December 21. Santa will be on hand at 6:30 to visit the children. Presentations will be made to the winners of the various categories at this time also.
Congratulations to the following skaters who earned badges.
