

Ed's In-n-Out midgets earn New Hamburg tie

Ed's In-n-Out Midgets could manage only one of a possible six points in Waterloo-Wellington league action this week. The midgets dropped games to Orangeville by a 7-2 score and Elmira by a 5-2 count. The only point picked up by the In-n-outers came with a come from behind 4-4 tie with New Hamburg.

In that game Acton allowed New Hamburg to jump into a 3-0 first period lead before fighting back to gain the tie.

Jim Towbridge started the Acton comeback with a goal from Rob Evans with 2:52 remaining in the opening frame. Dave Lawson added an unassisted goal before the period ended to make the score respectable. Acton tied the game in the sixth minute of the second frame as Denis Kirton found the mark from Murray McNabb.

New Hamburg came back to regain the lead before Don Brouillard hit for what proved to be the final goal of the contest as both teams were held off the score sheet over the final period.

Acton took 29 minutes in penalties including a fighting major, game misconduct and automatic minor to Roger Evans. New Hamburg was assessed 20 minutes.

In Woolwich the In-n-outers could manage only goals from Ray Mueller and Denis Kirton with an assist going to Lance Alton. The Mueller goal came early in the contest while the Kirton counter came late in the final frame.

Acton took 22 minutes in penalties to only 16 for Woolwich. It was the same problem in Orangeville the following night as the midgets couldn't find the net. Denis Kirton scored his third in three games from Jim Trowbridge and Scott Timbers in the last frame while Murray McNabb hit from Rob Evans in the second.

This time the home team took the bulk of the penalties but Acton could not capitalize. Orangeville was penalized for 52 minutes. Acton sat out 27.
