Many thank you notes

It was decided by members not to take the Senior course on quilting, coming up as it is similar to the one taken a few years ago. It was suggested that those interested could join in with one of the neighboring branches who might be taking it.

Mrs. Eileen McEnery. as convener of Resolutions took over the meeting. The motto was to be given by Mrs. Grace McEnery but she was unable to be present. Mrs. Given gave current events. Two conveners spoke briefly on their designated topic. Mrs. Smith chose to speak for a short time on "The Woman of the Month". She was Mrs. Martha Jackson, who resides at nearby Maple Lodge. She celebrated her 97th birthday by going to Maple Leaf hockey team practice. She also had her name mentioned on National television. Needless to say it was one of her happiest birthdays. Sha is a great hockey fan. The program ended with a discussion on
