

Acton Curling Club played host to the Halton-Peel Championships last week with a Brampton rink skipped by Ken Scovel taking the top honors. Before the bonspiel finals the participants were piped onto the ice by Tracey Porter of Georgetown. Acton Curling Club member Brian Robertson was right behind Miss Porter.

Curling Club results

by Karen Archibald

Now that the bonspiel season is upon us everyone seems quite busy whether it be in the club spiels or bonspiels played away from home base. Then there are the rest of us who only get to watch the action. Anyone playing in a spiel away from the club who wishes to have the information concerning their rink recorded please get the information to me.

After a week of play-downs at various clubs, January 20 saw the finals of the Halton-Peel at the Acton Curling Club. The overall winner of the event was Ken Scovel's rink from Brampton.

The Chingacousy Club held playdowns for the Colts January 26 through 28. Fred Archibald's rink made a valiant effort again this year and came away with two very good wins. Sorry you didn't make it, boys.

The President's Bonspiel was held at the Acton Curling Club this past weekend. Winner of the second draw and overall winner of the event was our own Del Hickling with Keith Atken, David Lang and Don Garner on his rink.

New teams have been made up for the second draw of the season. The results of the last week are as follows:

Monday 7-9
Pat Chamberlain's rink has a 13 point win. Ken Phillips is in second spot after one game with a 10 point win and Tom Nicol's rink holds third place with an eight point win.

Monday 9-11
Again Bill Cripps and his rink start out ahead with a 10 point win. Right behind is the rink skipped by Carl Rosenquist with a nine point win. Third spot at this time belongs to Darrell Greeny's rink.

Midgets drop tourney pair

Acton Ed's In-n-out midgets were in Ernestown on the weekend competing in tournament play.

The In-n-outers played what manager Bill Hodgson considered "two of their best showings" dropping one goal decisions to Oshawa 5-4, and two-time defending tournament champions from Bancroft 4-3 in overtime.

In the first round match with Oshawa the locals held a slim one goal lead with seven minutes remaining but could not hold on, allowing the opposition two unanswered counters and a 5-4 win.

Tuesday 7-9
The top four rinks after one game are respectively Anne Moore's, Glen Grays', Brian Moores', and Del Hicklings'.

Wednesday Afternoon Ladies
After two games played this draw Jean McPhail's rink of Jean McCutcheon, Mary Storey and Millie Smith marches ahead with two good wins. Well done girls!

Wednesday Night Ladies Competitive
Nicole Campbells' rink of Beverly Appleyard, Margaret Mackenzie and Kristine Bruce still have an extremely good lead over the rest of us.

Wednesday Night Mens Competitive
Out ahead again is Fred Archibald's rink of Bill Cripps, Pete Vidler and Glen Gray. Tony Verbits' rink and Bill Tully's rink are in second and third spots respectively.

Thursday Night Ladies
After two games of the new draw Dully Mouldens' rink of Pat Near, Mary Hicks and Betty Knapton have slipped into the lead.

Friday 7-9
With the new draw just beginning here we have three rinks in top spot. The skips of these rinks are Steve Ormsby, Chris Geggie and Keith Hampton.

Friday 9-11
Slipping ahead of the pack is Howard Campbell's rink with seven wins and one game in hand. You can do it Howard! Second place in Bruce McArthur's rink with six wins and one game to make up also. In the same position, that is, six wins and one game to make up, are the rinks of Fred Archibald, Bill Cripps, and Brian Robertson.

The next few games should prove very interesting.
