Kerr countered Solandt: ICG

A letter from an Ontario cabinet minister resulted in a change in alignment of a major power transmission corridor through Nassagaweya—a royal commission made its recommendations—a legislature committee was told last week.
MPP George Kerr, solicitor-general in 1974, the line run south of the Fifth Side Road for a short distance, mainly in Concession 6 of Nassagaweya Township.

The letter, dated April 3, 1974, has Kerr asking executive assistant Gordon Hampson to impress on Solandt the desirability of taking the line in the opposite direction.
"These points have to be made to Mr. Solandt or anyone else involved in this matter... most people favor the line running north of 5th Side Road including the mayor of Milton, Anne McArthur who lives in the vicinity," states the letter according to interested Citizens' Group (ICG) spokesman John Minns.
The letter ends with "Please make sure these points are made known to the powers that be," said Minns after the presentation to committee. He found the letter with other material in the Ontario archives.
"This letter had the effect of moving the line away from Chisholm and McArthur to affect more properties on the north side of the sideroad down the 6th Concession of Nassagaweya," said Minns Sunday.
"Virtually every public servant (to) whom the commissioner spoke showed... real apprehension about discussing his work to anyone outside his ministry," read Minns.

Three car collision
Dubu Royce was the scene of a three car collision February 4, police said. A car driven by Lloyd Sheppard, Kingham Road, went out of control and struck parked cars owned by Neil Thompson and Odile Thompson, both of Dubu Road. Estimated damage was about $800 to each vehicle.
Main Street N. and Elizabeth Drive was the scene of an accident February 5 when a stake truck driven by Allen Simioni of Wyford Place was in collision with a vehicle driven by Jean Hawthorne, Elizabeth Drive. Estimated damages were $50 to the truck, $400 to the car.
Police said a car driven by Ernest Diggins, Berry Street, was in collision Feb. 1, with a car driven by Shawn Van Merkesteyn, Crescent Street, at the intersection of Church Street and Elgin Street. Estimated damages were $400 to Diggins vehicle, $300 to Van Merkesteyn's.

Carnival invites snow fun people
Halton Region is inviting snowfun lovers to the third annual winter carnival at Kelso Conservation Area on Sunday February 18.
Snow sculpturing, dog sled teams, sleigh rides, tobogganing, skating and tours of the regional museum are some activities people can join as soon as they arrive. Other activities, such as log sawing, toboggan races and snow shoeing require registration.
To encourage participation the region has a bus service from Milton Mall to Kelso. First bus leaves at 11 a.m. and the last return bus is at 5 p.m. Organizers advise there is limited parking at Kelso and also that there is a $3 charge per car.
Halton Hills, Milton, Oakville and Halton Region sponsor the carnival.
