Couple exchange vows in double-ring ceremony

Knox Presbyterian church was the setting for the Dec. 16 wedding of Sharon Paulette Gillespie to Andrew Angus MacDonald.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gillespie, 138 Wynford Place, Acton. She is a student at Centennial College and lives at 1911 Victoria Park, Apartment G2 in Scarborough, Ontario.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Borowski, R.R. 1, Scotland, Ontario. He is also a student at Centennial College and lives at 1911 Victoria Park, Apartment G2 in Scarborough, Ontario.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, William Gillespie. She wore a long royal blue polyester v-neck dress with a matching blue waist length jacket. A Juliette cap held the white shoulder length veil. The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses, yellow daisies and blue forget-me-nots.

The groom's mother received in a long green and brown floral dress with a pale green waist length jacket.

An evening dinner and dance was held at the Churchill Room in the Guelph Legion. The 150 guests were received by the bride's mother in a long pink floral polyester dress. The groom's mother received in a long green and brown floral dress with a pale green waist length jacket.

Master of Ceremonies at the reception was the bride's brother, Peter Gillespie.

Guests came from Acton, Preston, Georgetown, Orangeville, Wiltonville, Scotland, Brantford, Toronto, London, Tillsonburg and Waterloo.

Special guests were Miss Bonnie Gillespie and her escort Lorne Hughes from Edmonton, Alberta and Miss Brenda Kingsmill also from Edmonton.

The bride was guest at two miscellaneous showers. A shower held at the home of the bride's mother was hosted by the bride's sister Mrs. Anne Bullock and her niece Miss Carol Bullock.

A second shower was held by the groom's aunt at the home of Mrs. Albert Borowski in Scotland, Ontario.

The couple are now living in Scarborough.

Safety discussed

The February meeting of Acton Women's Institute was held in the Isabel Watson room of the Acton Public Library.

The January meeting was cancelled owing to the death of a life member, Mrs. George Fryer.

Mrs. Bill Denny gave a reading, "Nature is free." Mrs. Marjorie Hall spoke for the consumer on the high price of beef.

The convener for the month was Mrs. George Hargrave.

The theme was "Safety." Many safety tips were explained for the home. Most important was the protection of children from dangerous household products. Also demonstrated were different forms of home nursing care.

Miss Jean McLean, Tweedsmuir curator, showed the members some pictures taken on the 75th anniversary luncheon in June, 1978.

Janet Rogers and Marg McNabb received their 25 year pins at the Legion Ladies Auxiliary banquet recently.

Founders Day lunch

Twelve members of the Lakeside chapter of the IODE and two members from the Duke of Devonshire chapter attended the IODE Founders' Day Luncheon Saturday at the Guelph Cuten Club.

The Robert Murtrie chapter of Guelph hosted the afternoon. Guest speaker was Guelph mayor Norm Jary who gave a talk about Guelph. One of the highlights of his talk was when he revealed the origin of the hockey term "hat trick."

Mr. Jary said that many years ago a young local hockey player got three goals in one game, and as an award, the Biltmore Hat Company presented him with a hat. As a result, "hat trick" was born.

I.O.D.E. elects slate of officers

The annual meeting of Lakeside Chapter of the I.O.D.E. was held in the Legion Auditorium on February 6 with Honorary Regent Mrs. J. Jocque presiding for the reading of the Secretaries' reports and also installed the 1979 slate of officers.

Golden Age club plans anniversary

On February 6, with the president in the chair, the regular meeting of Acton Golden Age Club opened with O Canada.

After the secretary's and treasurer's reports had been read, R.L. Davidson made a suggestion that the group have the 15th anniversary party in April instead of March when, hopefully, weather will be better.

Mrs. Dennis finalized the bus trip to the Grand Ole Opry in Kitchener on March 24 leaving St. Alban's Hall at 12:15 with dinner at the Ponderosa. Also the trip to Scott's at Oquaga Lake with the Burlington Seniors will be July 2 to 6. Last year, there were three Burlington and one Oakville bus there at one time.

Two Acton high school students interviewed many members on the subject of "aging".

Birthday greetings were sung to Mesdames Britton, Townsley, Waterhouse and Barker—the anniversary greetings to Mrs. Masales.

New barber at Pete's

Darlene Welch has joined Pete Humenick at Pete's Barber shop in Acton.

She has recently completed a barbering course at George Brown college. A native of Acton, Darlene went to school in town and lives on Highway 25 north.

The barbering course is a government apprenticeship program with approximately half the class being made up of girls.

Darlene is now waiting to write her exam. Examinations are only held when there are enough people to write.

Before working at Pete's, Darlene worked at Fabio's Grooming place in Brampton. She started at Pete's on January 31.

Darlene Welch gives Dr. Tom Thompson a trim at Pete's Barber shop. Darlene is a new barber working along with Pete Humenick. Dr. Thompson was Darlene's first customer when she started January 31.

Knox ladies Bible study

The Afternoon Auxiliary of Knox church met on Thursday with a small attendance, owing to illness and the severity of the weather.

Two guests from the Daughters of Knox, Mrs. Korpella and Mrs. Swallow, conducted an enjoyable and helpful Bible study. It was decided to transfer the offering each month to Mrs. Inglis, treasurer of the Alert Evening Auxiliary, who will forward it to headquarters at appropriate intervals.
