

Curling Club results

by Karen Archibald

John Gilbert of Oakville Badminton Club gives a few words of advice to Bob Harmen of the Acton Badminton Club during a free clinic sponsored by the Halton Hills Recreation Department in conjunction with Fitness Week. The event was held at McKenlie-Smith Middle School with a good turnout to listen to what Gilbert and partner Paul Watt had to say.

With four games or less remaining in the season, skips and their rinks are rallying together to get that extra win that could mean a trophy.

Monday 7-9
Ken Phillips' rink of Sue Beemer, Elmer Lucas and Bonnie Walker have yet to lose a game. They have five wins to their credit. Pat Chamberlain's rink, though, is right behind Ken with four wins.

Monday 8-11

Gord Toth's rink and Bill Cripps' rink are ahead with four wins apiece. This could be an interesting session. Carl Rosenquist's rink could still give these two rinks a run for their money.

Tuesday 7-9
Glen Gray's rink and Brian Moore's rink each have four wins but Brian has a slight advantage. His rink also tied up one game. Better make it count Brian; Glen's out to win.

Wednesday Afternoon Ladies
Evelyn Cadenhead's rink of Alison Ginn, Anne Thorpe and Janet Marshall are leading all the other rinks with four wins and a tie. Anne Ridley's and Donna Cripps' rinks, which have three wins each, would like to see a change in the lead. Good luck to you all, girls.

Wednesday night ladies
Competitive
Nicole Campbell's rink is still leading the pack with eight wins. Close behind and trying their darndest to catch up is Fanni Verblik's rink with six wins. Guess we'd better get cracking girls if we want to win this.

Wednesday night men's
Competitive
Well, well, the inevitable happened. Fred Archibald's rink finally lost a game. You should have let Bill skip. Things couldn't have been any worse. Tony Verblik's rink is still in second spot. You'd better pull up your socks too Tony, or is that "pull up your rocks?"

Thursday night ladies
Dolly Moulden's rink and Sue Patrick's rink each have four wins. Looks like a fight to the finish between these two teams. Nicole Campbell is in second spot with three wins.

Friday 7-9
Ahead with five wins is Keith Hampton's rink of Valerie Phillips, Les Weir and Clifford Kok. Second spot goes to Chris Geggies rink of Gwen Tyler, Reg and Mary Hieks.

Friday 9-11
Leading the rest of us Howard Campbell's rink has eleven wins. Bruce McArthur's rink is now in second spot with ten wins and tied for third spot are the rinks of Fred Archibald and Brian Robertson. Everyone's going to have to work extra hard to keep up the pace. Howard, you'd better keep an eye over your shoulder in case we close in on you.

Some of the girls who have been curling out of the club have been doing very well.

It's nice to hear from teams that have curled elsewhere. On February 10 Sue Patrick's rink of Mary Watson, Shirley Rosenbersky and Heather Ferguson curled at Chingacousy. They took the consolation prize for being one game high winners.

The Stratford Club, on February 13 and 14 hosted a spiel attended by Anne Moore's rink of Kae Hanson, Phyllis Patrick and Ina Mellon. They took third place in the 'B' division. Nice work girls!

The Milton Curling Club this past Saturday saw Nicole Campbell's rink of Marilyn McArthur, Donna Cripps and Bev Appleyard take second spot in their draw.

The Carling-O'Keefe mixed spiel was held at the club on Sat., February 24. Winner of the first draw after three-eight end games was Fred Archibald's rink of Anne Pickering, Glen Gray and Karen Archibald. It certainly was quite a day. Second place went to Dennis Young's rink, and third spot for this draw, went to Randy Mould's rink.

Overall winner, taking the trophy and the second draw was Dave Halfpenny's rink of Gloria Jennett, Ross Blairrow and Liz Schroder from the Guelph Curling Club. Second and third spots went to skips John Mintern and Chris Geggie. Thank you Del for running the spiel and thanks to all the club members who helped make the day a success.

Keep throwing those rocks, everyone!

Moms oust Flamboro may not continue

After dropping the first game of their best of five series to Flamboro the Acton Hockey Moms' minor atoms came back with three straight wins, the latest a 2-0 shut-out to wrap the series up but they may not continue in Ontario Hockey Association play-offs.

After topping Flamboro the atoms were informed they would meet Streetsville for the zone title. According to team manager Richard Kilpatrick the atoms may not play the series because Streetsville should be in a higher classification in the OMHA, but more important because of a stick swinging incident that involved Streetsville and Orangeville in the third game of the series between the two centres. Kilpatrick feels the incident is a definite cause for concern.

Orangeville refused to play the fourth game of the series where a player from that team ended up in hospital due to an incident after the buzzer had sounded. Streetsville was awarded the series.

The game between Acton and Flamboro was like the previous three meetings between the two clubs—close.

Acton scored two first period goals and then held Flamboro off the sheet for a 2-0 win.

Paul Kilpatrick scored the first Acton marker from Doug McKnight and Sean Fitzgerald. Peter Cargill added the other Acton goal from Mike Baker with 1:19 remaining in the opening frame.

There was only one penalty called in the contest that going to Flamboro and resulting in the second Hockey Moms' goal.

Burlington tops Derbys

In a strange set-up of the Central Ontario Junior 'B' Hockey League play-offs, Streetsville Derbys and Burlington Cougars have been forced to meet in semi-final action.

The Cougars currently lead the best of seven series one game to none after a barnburner in Burlington Sunday evening. The Cougars scored at the midpoint of the second overtime period to capture a 7-6 victory.

Cougars topped Thornhill while Streetsville took Brampton to reach the semis. Both series were straight game victories.

In the other semi-final Oakville will do battle with Oak Ridges.
