Family night at community centre by Winifred Smith It was an evening of fellowship and fun as. many families turned out at the Community Centre on Saturday night for the annual Family Night sponsored by the Church. It was due to the kindness of the musical group who provided the music that the evening turned out to be so successful. Those giving of their talents so freely were The Kerr family, Mrs. Marion Armstrong, Earl Burt and Sam Leitch. To add to the fun, spot dance prizes were given out and they were won by Emmerson and Joyce Clarke, Kathy and Reg. French, and Lorraine and Amic Buckrell O'Connor (a couple from the younger set). During the intermission, coffee, soft drinks and an assortment of fruit bread was served.

The congregation were pleased to welcome a couple to the Church Service on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. David Sherman, who are candidates for the ministry, and will be ordained this year were special guests. They were introduced by Rev. Stiles and each took part in the service. The selections musical provided by the Youth group from the Moun-

tainview Baptist Church,

Georgetown was very much enjoyed. A special collection taken up will go toward the Student Bursary Fund. The third meeting of the 4-H Home-making club got underway on Saturday morning at the home of Jackie Koperdraad. The name of the club "Accessories--The Final Touch". The Ballinafad group have named themselves, "The Fashion Finders". The officers have been named they are-president-Jackie Koperdraad, Vice-President-Shelly Wilson. Secretary-left floating, Treasurer-Christine Curry, Press Reporter-Hellen Schwartz. There was a display of hats at the meeting and girls could choose which sample they wished to make. In previous meetings the group were taught tricks with a scarf and how to make a triangle one, also how to choose colour schemes.

The 4th meeting will be at the home of Kathy Lozinski. They will be discussing Fads in Shoes.

Dr. and Mrs. Brian Buckreil and children have returned home after enjoying a week's holiday in the Huntsville area. Sorry to hear Paul Eckert is a patient in the Georgetown Hospital. Hope he responds quickly to treatment and will be able to return home soon.

There will be registration for a Ballinafad soccer team (Squirt Division) on Friday evening, March 2, between 6 and 7 p.m., at the Ballinafad Community Centre. It will be first come basis for interviews. Further information can be had from Ivan Bird or Gord Colton.
