Soccer team is organized

by Winifred Smith
The first Sunday in Lent was observed with a special service at the church this past Sunday.

An inspiring anthem was sung by the men's choir. It was entitled "Somebody's Praying For You." There was a short period of meditation on the meaning of Lent and the Sermon was based on prayer. The pancake supper held on the previous Tuesday evening was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson spent Sunday with friends in Ancaster. Quite a large number of little lads turned up on Friday evening to register in the hope of forming a soccer team. From the group a team has been formed and we will look forward to hearing more about the Ballinafad Soccer team in the near future. Ernie Thompson's property has been sold. The new owners moved in over the weekend.
