

Town league tallies

The Acton Legion Minor Hockey season is quickly drawing to a close for 1978-79 as teams fight for the right to meet in the final on March 31, "Day of Champions".

NOVICE
Weston outscored Oakville 2-1 over the first half of their contest and then the two squads settled down to some tough defence as both Greg Waller and Philip Landriault played shut-out goal for their respective teams. Weston scored the games opening goal as Chris O'Neil found the net from Paul Lanteigne and Derek Bottomley. Oakville tied the score a short time later as Scott Brown tallied an unassisted effort at 3:59 of the second stanza.

Brampton jumped to an early 2-0 lead over Kitchener but could not hold on over the final half of the game as the Kitchener team scored twice to earn a 2-2 draw. Shane Adams and Bill Botetzayas scored for Brampton with Paul Coverdale adding an assist. Doug Neeley and Tim Oakley replied for Kitchener. Neeley also added an assist.

Kevin Usher had a rather easy day recording a shut-out for Dixie as they romped to an 8-0 win over Guelph. Shawn McFadden and Troy Foster each fired three for Dixie with Mike Brower and Tim Tibbetts adding singles. Tibbetts was the playmaker of the day netting four assists. Brower and Pat Johnson added the other assists.

ATOM
Hamilton took an early 2-0 lead over Oshawa and then led on to record a 2-1 win in the second round of a round-robin play-off. David Slaney and Phillip Wedge scored the Hamilton goals while Dwayne Death replied for Oshawa with help from Peter Timmerman.

London scored the first goal of the contest but that was all they could find to beat John Benton in the St. Kitts goal as London dropped a 4-1 decision.

Todd Nellis fired the only London goal before St. Kitts came back with three tallies from John Moran and a single by Ken Phillips. Rick Smith assisted on the Phillips goal.

PEE-WEE
Two Baltimore goals late in the contest was all that made the score respectable as they dropped a 7-3 decision to Rochester. Jamie Taras potted five goals for the winners with Scott Nowlan and Ted Nessett adding singles. Garnet Trowbridge added two assists while Tim Garton and Steven McGinn picked up single helpers. Alan Higgins counted a pair of goals for Baltimore with Jerry Herrington adding the other. Robert Luisetto counted two assists with Herrington and Kevin Hoerig adding singles.

Tidewater took a 2-0 over Cleveland early in the second period but couldn't withstand the storm as they fell over the final half of the contest to a 5-2 loss. Ted Lindsay gave Tidewater an early lead with Bill Morrison counting the assist and then Darren Edmundson extended the lead to two with Shane Steeves helping before Cleveland exploded with three goals from Steve Buckingham and a pair off the stick of Bruce Sheppard. Brian Steckley added three assists for Cleveland with singles going to John Gardiner and Steve Buckingham.

BANTAM
The Jets took an early 4-0 lead in bantam house-league action and then relaxed allowing the Aeros to pull to within one. The Jets came alive to score one more to produce a 5-3 final in their favor. Scott McDonough triggered three for the winners with Dean Hughes adding a pair. Dana Taras and Tom McDonough picked a pair of assists each while Rick Chapman added one. Steve Watzek, Danny Waites and Greg Maltby fired singles for the Aeros with assists going to Watzek, Rob Little and Jeff McNabb.

Four unanswered third period goals by the Whalers gave them a 7-2 win over the Oilers. The Whalers scored first with two goals, one each by Andy Cunningham and Ray Scott. The Oilers came back with a pair of markers from Barry McNabb. With 1:27 remaining in the second stanza the Whalers exploded. Paul Nolan fired two goals over the remainder of the contest with Andy Cunningham, Gary White and Mark Dawkins adding singles.

A third period goal by Mike Shubert was the difference as the Toros edged the Cougars 3-2. Toros took a first period lead on a goal by Tom Briggs with Shubert assisting but Cougar counters by Greg Cowan and Mike Scott set the stage for the Toro comeback. Lorner McGinn tied the game before the second frame ended and Shubert tallied the winner in the third frame.

MIDGET
Detroit overcame a one goal deficit over the final half of the contest to score a 6-2 win over Vancouver in midget play-off action. Russell Allen and Gord Scott found the range for Vancouver while Derrick Neeley scored four times for the victorious Detroit squad. Mike Marshall and Les Nadhazi tangled the twine for the other Detroit goals.

Montreal came up on the top end of a see-saw battle on the weekend as they scored a 5-3 win over Toronto. Marty Collerton scored a pair for the Legion Minor Hockey Schedule For March 10, 11

Midget In-n-outers top Elora in five games

A 10-3 win on Monday night in Elora lifted the Acton Ed's In-n-out Midgets to a series win in Waterloo-Wellington league play-off action.

The midgets captured the best of seven series in five games, winning three and drawing even in the other two contests. Acton won the series' first two games 6-1 and 6-4 but fell up against a pesky Elora team in the next two contests and managed 6-6 and 4-4 ties. In the first game, the 6-1 win, Acton was led by two goals from Bill Curry.

Elora took an early lead in the match but Acton came back to even the count on a goal by Randy Smith before the first period ended. Derek Hodgson assisted on the play.

In the second frame Acton took over, dominating Elora. They scored four times as Curry found the net twice with Jim Trowbridge and Todd McIntyre counting singles.

Rob Evans added an insurance marker in the third period.

The second contest was probably the biggest test for Ed's boys as they fell behind 4-0 before coming alive, scoring six unanswered goals for the win.

Dave Lawson fired two for the winners with Roger Evans, Todd McIntyre, Derek Hodgson and Rob Evans adding singles.

In the third game of the series the midgets faltered over the final five minutes giving up a three goal lead and then hanging on for a 6-6 tie.

Murray McNabb and Denis Kirton fired two goals each for Acton with Ron Jackson and Dave Lawson adding singles.

A goal with only 37 seconds left in the game cost the In-n-outers the series' third win in Elora last Wednesday but put the locals in a position to win the eight point series with Monday's win.

Jim Trowbridge was the big shooter for Acton netting two goals. Ron Jackson and Dennis Kirton counted singles.

The In-n-outers are now sitting waiting for their next opponent in their battle for the Waterloo-Wellington league honors.
