Paris Star

This is the year of texture. From silky and sensuous to crisp and sharp. Nubby weaves. Open, airy string knits. Liny tweeds. Slubbed raw silk. To pull it off, the secret is contrast. Pair light, wispy gauzes with grainy raw silks. Play straw against linen. Top drapey cotton trousers with the ease of puckered silk. It's the unexpected combination of textures that makes this year's look one of the best yet!
